At the inquest held yesterday morning over William Steibaugh, found lying dead in Indian creek Sunday morning, the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that death resulted from heart failure induced by exposure. James G. Bradley, D. Maltby and W. J. Berringer comprised the jury. The principal witness was E. S. Fegley, who so far as is known was the last person to see Steinbaugh alive. He testified to being with Steinbaugh Saturday night and that he left him at Broadway and Eighth street, where the witness took a car for home. Steinbaugh, according to Fegley, was somewhat under the influence of liquor, but was not what could be termed drunk. Before parting they took a drink together from a bottle which the witness had. Steinbaugh drew $16.25 pay Saturday afternoon and Fegley did not see him spend any of it, although only $12 was found on Steinbaugh. Dr. M. A. Tinley testified as to making a post mortem examination of the remains and finding no traces of violence. He gave it as his opinion that death was due to heart failure, probably induced by stimulants and exposure.

Funeral services over the deceased were held yesterday afternoon at the family home on Mill and Eighth streets, after which the remains were taken to Monroe, Neb., for interment.

GRAIN PILES STILL BURN Famous Mining Suit to Be Taken Up

Company of Piremen Busy All Day Pouring Water on Embers.

CONSIDERABLE SALVAGE IS EXPECTED

Building Insured for $68,500 and Grain for More Than Value of What Was in the Elevator at the Time.

All that remained yesterday morning of the large Union elevator at the Union Pacific transfer was a mass of smouldering ruins and regular mountains of burning grain. No. 1 company of the city fire department remained on duty all of yesterday and, assisted by a number of the the burning grain. It is expected that the grain will continue to smoulder for several days.

Insurance men who visited the scene of that there would be considerable salvage from the grain. The building was insured for $68,500, the risk being divided among forty-nine companies. The Home of New York and the Union of London carried each $5,000, while two other companies carried $3,500 each, the remainder being divided in amounts of $1,000.

The total insurance on the grain was $270,000 this being an over insurance of $30,000, as considerable grain had been shipped out in the last few days, and it intended to have cancelled policies to this amount yesterday. Including the $30,-600 over insurance, it is estimated there will be a salvage of about 20 per cent.

The elevator was built in 1881 by the Union Elevator company, incorporated the preceding year and composed of the Burlington, the Rock Island, the Milwaukee, the Northwestern, the Wabash and the Union Pacific Railroad companies. It was constructed by J. A. Murphy of Council Bluffs, under the supervision of George Wright, who for several years had charge of the elevator. Its original cost was $200,000. It is said that it will not be rebuilt, as it has never paid satisfactory dividends on the investment.

Last year about $30,000 was expended in remodelling the interior of the elevator and new machinery was installed.

WILL NOT ENFORCE HEALTH ORDER

Board of Education Declines to Exclude Pupils from School. It is now up to the Board of Health to enforce its order requiring all teachers and pupils of the public schools who have not been effectively vaccinated within the last seven years to be vaccinated or debarred from school. The Board of Education at a special meeting yesterday afternoon, after a prolonged discussion, decided that it would not assume the responsibility of carrying out the Board of school such pupils as have not been vac-The board disposed of the question for the time being by adopting the following ment against his property to secure her claim for $1,000 alimony. Mrs. Hess was 18 at the time of her marriage, while her husband was only 20 years of age.

The meeting was called at the request of Superintendent Clifford, who asked that instructions be given as to what directions here. tions he should issue to the principals of the several school buildings in the matter, as the time set by the Board of Health in which children had to be vaccinated expired on Friday. Member Tipley suggested that the board ought to take hold of one or the other horns of the dilemma, although he was of the opinion personally that the Board of Health had acted somewhat hastily in pro- pecially to the ministers who have critimulgating such an order as it had, as he did not believe the smallpox conditions warranted it. To get an expression from the other members, he introduced a resolution to the effect that the principals be directed to require a certificate of vaccination from each pupil and that such pupils as failed to present the required certificate be debarred from attending

To this Member Shugart at once objected and he stated that he would not vote for keeping any pupil from school. "I cannot see the use of paying a truant officer $40 a month for hunting up children who keep away from school and making them attend and then for us to pass another rule keeping them out of school," he said. President Hess said he was prepared to vote for the Tinley resolution provided the last clause relating to debarring such children as had not been vaccinated from attending school be cut off. Member Westerdahl suggested that about the best course, in his opinion, for the board to pursue would be to quietly ignore the order from the Board of Health and allow that body to enforce it if it should see fit to do so. The discussion developed the fact that yery few children; proportionately, had complied with the order and that there were several teachers who had also refused to be vaccinated. It was asserted that there was evidently more fear of vaccination than there was of smallpox. Tinley's resolution, on being put to vote, was lost, three of the members, Tinley. Hess and Cooper, voting for it and Westerdahl, Shugart and Gorman against it. The resolution declining to assume any responsibility in enforcing the Board of Health's order then was adopted by the unanimous vote of the six members.

Democrats Make Up Slate. The statement was made yesterday by a well known member of the party that a slate had been fixed up for the democratic school convention to be held Thursday night, and indications were that it met 4.800 with general favor and would be pulled through, probably without opposition. The slate is the nomination of Harry A. Searle, 7,800 secretary and treasurer of the Monarch Manufacturing company; Charles A. Beno of the firm of John Beno & Co., and W. L. Butler, local freight agent of the Milwaukee railroad. It is stated, however, that some of the rank and file object to slate being made up in advance of the convention and that other candidates will be brought before the meeting Thursday night. Friends of Dr. C. H. Bower are urging his nomination and residents of the eastern part of the city are insisting that they be given representation on the ticket.

Both sides are ready for the second trial of the famous Doyle-Burns mining suit from Colorado, which will be commenced today in the district court. The work of impaneling a jury is expected to occupy considerable time and little it is antici pated, besides this, will be done before the beginning of next week. The plain tiff, James Doyle, and his counsel are here. Former Governor Thomas, Burns' attorney, is expected here this morning. Mr. Burns arrived in the city yesterday with several of his witnesses.

Judge Thornell held a session of the juvenile division of the district court yesterday afternoon as several youthful offenders were waiting to be brought before him. Jesse Lyons, said to be incorrigible, was ordered committed to the reform school at Eldora. Emery and Albert Irwin, who were charged with failing to railroad employes, kept water pouring on attend school, being otherwise incorrigible, were left in charge of their father, who promised the court they should attend school regularly in Garner township. Earl Roland, a telegraph messenger boy, had the fire yesterday expressed the opinion his case continued pending his good behavior on condition that he reports regularly to Probation Officer De Long. Fred Potter, who was cited to appear, failed to show up and his case was continued.

AN UNKNOWN MAN. Hollingsworth was blown out of the sullding into the street by an explosion. It is feared that several others lost their lives, but this is not definitely known. A man who was seen at a window fell back into the flames.

The fire started from spontaneous com bustion and spread so rapidly that the firemen were powerless. Several explosions followed each other in rapid succession, throwing sparks all over the city and threatening other property.

At 16:15 the fire was still raging flercely and there were fears that it would spread across an eighty-foot street to the two blocks of frame structures, beyond which lies the business part of the town. The firemen, with assistance from a number of smaller towns, worked with might and main to confine the fire to the cereal plant. The plant is built in a triangle at the base of which is the group of elevator buildings and boiler houses. At the apex is the group of mill buildings and more boiler houses. A street intersects this triangle and divides the two groups of buildings. Flames Spread Rapidly.

The fire started in the hull grinding room of one of the elevators and a sheet of flame enveloped that structure. In ten minutes more the flames had crossed the avenue to the mill group of buildings and the firemen were powerless to prevent the spread of the flames in either direction The fire burned northward against the ward with the wind in the elevator group with fearful rapidity. Five-story walls crumbled and fell with a roar heard for many blocks. One women was pinloned on the tracks within a few inches of the deadly electric third rail and though finally extricated alive, is fatally injured. Forty other passengers were injured, but not seriously.

The upset was caused by the car missing a switch. The car was part of an accommodation train which runs from the Canal street station of the elevated road to Madison street and Market. At Market and Lake streets the train consisting of two coaches was turning south and the first car had passed over the switch safely. The trucks of the second car missed and kept going foreward in Lake street. The power was on the first car. Not until the screams of passengers and the crash of glass were heard did the motorman know of the accident. Instantly the power was shut off and the results were confined to the overturning of the second car which
