manifestation of the general scheme of one-third plan. the railroads to seek to divert attention from the main issue and fix it on some subject of less magnitude and importance, even though it may be the bridge matters, which of course are recognized as deserving of serious consideration.

Those members who really want to fulfill their pledges to the people and enact postpone S. F. 224, by Sheldon, a proposed salutary railroad laws are provoked at constitutional amendment to allow the the delay of certain bills contemplating this legislature to designate more securities in purpose. They have not yet heard any artful system of procrastination.

Engineers Bill Vetoed. having run the gauntlet of both houses, been defeated once and resurrected, S. F. 8, the county engineer bill, has finally been declared invalid and Governor Mickey has refused to sign it. The bill did not contain a repealing clause and for that reason it was vetoed by the governor. Tomorrow, however, he will make a per sonal request of the legislature to permit the introduction of a similar measure. The bill makes the county surveyors of Douglas and Lancaster counties ex-officio engineers to these two countle Railroad Commission Bill Passes. The senate this afternoon passed the Cady bill providing for a constitutional amendment for the election of a railread commission of three members, to be paid $3,000 a year each. Thirty members voted for the bill and none against.

The Cady bill, providing that state officers shall constitute a railroad commission to be in force until the adoption of the constitutional amendment, came up for disussion, but was laid over to be discussed with the Sheldon bill. These measures differ slightly in detail.

BOUTINE PROCEEDINGS OF SENATE ommended for Passage.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 8 .- (Special.) - Senator Giffin of Dawson county scored a great victory today in the senate over the persistent work of a powerful lobby in getting his bill, S. F. 98, giving to irrigation districts the right of eminent domain recommended for third reading, and Senator Cady of Howard county, after one of the hardest fights of the entire session, had the pleasure of seeing his decedents bills, four of them, recommended for passage. In these bills, however, it is feared by the introducer the senate was too liberal in that at the last minute Jones of Otoe moved an amendment, which was carried, that the widow be given one-half of the real estate of her husband when the latter shall have died without having made a will.

WINTER MEAT EATING

The Poor Stomach's Tale of Woe. Just Now Mi-o-na Is Needed.

At this season of the year thousands of people are already showing the ill symptoms that are sure to result from the usual dlet. Indoor life, meat-eating. hearty food, lack of exercise, overwork, and poor ventilation spell "sickness," and poor health. If the stomach cannot do its work prop-

In his fight for S. F. 98, which has been of the legislators and their constituents pending for many weeks and which had been threshed out time and again before committees. Giffin made the only speech in favor of the bill, while Fries and Mocket each opposed it.

The senate overruled the recommendation of the committee, which was to indefinitely which the permanent school fund could be outery from Lancaster county against this invested. Sheldon made an able argument to have the bill placed on general file and he carried the day.

The committee on rules, which was authorized to confer with the house committee regarding the discussion of bills by either body, reported that the two committees had agreed that the house rolls should be given preference in the house and the senate files in the senate until March 17. The report was adopted.

At the afternoon session the decedent bills were amended so that the widow should receive one-half instead of onethird of the real estate of her husband. Cady, Meserve, Wilsey and Williams each made strong talks at the afternoon session, the last three opposing it. The senate passed these bills:

HOUSE HAS A LIGHT DAY'S WORK Effort to Get Bill Up Out of Its Order

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 8 .- (Special Telegram.) Convening at 10 a. m. the house passed these bills:

H. R. 188, by Douglas of Rock-Cutting H. R. 188, by Douglas of Rock—Cutting out the assessor and county clerk as members of the county board of equalization.
H. R. 214, by Andersen of Douglas—To protect labels, trademarks and forms of advertising of union labor organizations.
H. R. 229, by Parker of Otoe—Prohibiting the retail sale of liquor within 400 feet of any public school or country school house. At 10:30 the house went into committee of chair.

At the afternoon session Dodge of Dougas moved that the house go into committee of the whole and first take up H. R. 297, by himself, a proposed constitutional amendment for a railroad commission. Foster of Douglas expressed the view that it was unfair to himself and the introducers of other bills to place Dodge's bill ahead on general file. Peabody of Nemaha moved to table the state penitentiary:

Almost the last relic of the disastrous fire of four years ago has disappeared and the penitentiary as it stands will, we believe, compare favorably with the most modern and up-to-date institutions of its kind in the country. Certainly no penal institution in the United Stales from which we have received reports has a better equipped cell house than occupies the west wing of the Nebraska penitentiary, and the entire prisop has a decided air of comfort and sanitary excellence which is most commendable.

In the meantime the office has not had a single dollar increase in appropria-tion since it was established. To carry out report to the senate of the conditions of the provisions of H. R. 255, should it become a law, $3,000 will be appropriated. This bill makes the secretary draw plans for the bridges to be erected in the various counties of the state and to make out the specifications. To do the work, of course, Mr. Dobson must have assistants, and this $3,000 is supposed to pay the salary of the assistants and at the same time pay for the blue prints. Mr. Dobson asked the committee for $5,000 appropriation, but the sum was cut to $3,000.

The land of Albert Goedde, Fisher's client, was, so certain records show, appraised at $1,500 and Fisher asks the legislature to appropriate $11,500 to cover the appraisal, which he certifies came to that For two sessions previous lie submitted claims of $8,000 and tonight he told the committee that was "the amount agreed on between me and certain parties" as the appraised valuation of the land. The land is in Sioux county and was left by Goedde, his only heirs being in Germany, hence the necessity under Ne-braska laws of taking the matter through the channels of appraisement and legis-lative appropriation. Fisher as attorney was to get all over $1,000 of the appraised

Captain Flaher stated tonight he wrote to the claims committee asking for the opportunity of being heard in his own behalf and is anxious for a full and complete hearing. In his letter addressed to the committee, dated Sidney, March 5, he mys, among other things:

says, among other things:

I have seen the article in The Bee concerning the claim made by me as attorney for the heirs of Albert Goedde for land escheated to the state. This land has been regularly taken by regular proceedings in court for more than four years. It is my duty as attorney for these people to urge their claim without apprehension. Their property is taken and the state ought to pay what it is worth. If you do not care to do this then it will be but fair for the house to pass a resolution giving them authority to sue the state, and then any evidence given for or against the state will be in a court which can punish for false testimony.

peror Nicholas and high ministers were informed in General Kouropatkin's telegram of Tuesday, which stated tersely that Mukden must be abandoned, and they received details of the beginning of the withdrawal as they appeared in excised portions of the official dispatches given out yesterday.

Last evening a newspaper contained ague report of doubtful origin, credited to Chinese sources, but the first positive statement was derived from the Associated Press dispatch from General Kuroki's headquarters, the contents of which were quickly telegraphed to many liberals from friends abroad. The report probably will not be printed in this morning's papers, the government, true to its policy of breaking bad news gently preparing the way by authorizing a number of premonitory telegrams. The news, however, is only what was expected. Ultimate retirement had been discounted from the moment Oyama naugurated his brilliant move westward.

Kouropatkin Will Be Retired. After this action General Kouropatkin's deposition may be regarded as certain. War Minister Sakharoff is picked as his probable successor, though Grand Duke Nichclas Nicholaevich, of the board of strategists, may be entrusted with the direction of affairs. As a strong faction of the army, those high in influence about the emperor opposed General Kouropatkin from the first and though his early defeats were condoned because it was realized that General Kouropatkin was doing all that man could with the tools at his command, it is now felt that after twice having had the opportunity to show what he could do with a powerful army, and having falled to acomplish victory either time, his removal is advisable. A high military official said last night that the emperor had had enough of a general whose interpretation of a victory was a successful retreat. The retreat on Tie pass is bound to renew the attack for peace, though Field Marshal Oyama has failed to crush General Kouropatkin peace is no more imperative now than it was last month. Peace advocates point as a signifi cant fact the departure of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron from Madagascar and Jibutil simultaneously with the loss of the battle of Mukden, and intimate that perhaps the recall of the fleet may have been adopted in view of the latter event.

> The senators said at that rate Nebraska would lose all its consular officers, but the president would not go that far. After their talk with Roosevelt the senators called on Assistant Secretary Loomis, who stated that in the event Mr. Thompson refused to accept the Clenfuegos consulate Mr. Bachr would be permitted to remain, but Mr. Thompsons' nomination was confirmed today, from which it would appear that he intends to accept the place. The senators asked about Church Howe. and were told that he was one of the finest officers in the diplomatic service. "If you can give him even something better than he now has, we want it done," said Millard and Burkett in unison. While the senators showed they resented the manner in which Max Baehr was removed they did not feel like quarreling with the president, in view of his statement that Nebraska had more than its share of consular officers, although they frankly stated they could not see it in that light. Both senators are in receipt of letters and telegrams from the Nebraska legislature, from Governor Mickey and state officers, from ex-Chairman Lindsey and other well known people urging that George Anthus, deputy auditor, be given consular position somewhere. As Nebraska has just lost two places, there is small chance for Mr. Anthes, unless John rumored for some time past. A member of the delegation from Dougas county is also a candidate for a diplomatic place, and as he voted for Burkett the latter is inclined to do what he can to bring his appointment about.

Indians Are Disappointed. There was a steady stream of callers at White House all day long and some of the president's callers were compelled to go away without seeing him. Among these was a delegation of Sioux Indians, who came to Washington to attend the inauguration, but who were refused permission to parade by Commissioner Leupp, on the ground that the inauguration was not a wild west show. Throwing a few guttural chunks of conversation at the biggest chief in the party the interpreter received from the big brave a much-sotled letter, which was solemnly handed to the president's doorkeeper. Finally the answer came back that they must first see Commissioner Leupp before they would be althe delegation were Shooting Hawk Eagle, Charging Bear. New Barracks at Mobrara. Representative Kinkaid called on General Humphrey today relative to the new barracks at Fort Niobrara and to ascertain if the old foundations could be utilized for the new buildings. General Humphrey stated that plans for the barracks had been sent to the quartermaster at the fort and that the question of the use of the old foundations would also have to be determined by him. Judge Kinkaid left tonight for the west.

Cowboys at White House. Captain Seth Bullock and his company of cowboys, whose picturesque appearance was a feature of the inauguration day parade, were given a reception tonight by President Roosevelt. They walked to the White House in the rain, having sold their onies which they brought with them from the west. Captain Bullock and his men remained at the White House for an hour, having an informal chat and a smoke with the president, who gave them a cordial greeting. They leave for home tomorrow The reception was the outcome of the presentation today by the cowboys young Theodore Roosevelt of one of the ponies they brought with them, a strong, gray animal, fourteen or fifteen hands high, which the young man admired very much. With the pony also went a comoutfit, including a bridle, saddle, 'chaps' and a slicker or raincoat Cattlemen in Washington. A delegation of cattlemen, including W. G. Comstock of Nebraska, will have a conference with Secretary Wilson tomorrow, as well as with D. Salmon of the Bureau of Animal Industry, regading modifications of existing orders for dipping feeders These cattlemen say that if the orders are carried out it will mean a great loss to them in addition to needless expense.

Baxter Sees Moody. Judge Baxter had a further talk today with Attorney General Moody regarding forthcoming actions against cattlemen for illegal fencing of the public domain, and more than ever is it Judge Baxter's intention to begin suits the moment he gets back to Omaha. He will go to New York omorrow and then home. Senator and Miss Millard left tonight for

New York, on their way to Nebraska. Senator Miliard will return to Washington to attend a hearing of the interstate commerce committee, of which he is a

GRACE SPENCER IS NOW FREE Relative of Woman Comes to Front and Pays $25 to Secure Her Release.

Mrs. Grace Spencer walks the streets of Omaha today a free woman after having faced for almost a week in jail the prospects of a prison term for forgery. A relative whom she has not seen for a long time was attracted to her aid by means of newspaper articles and has advanced to Sunderland Bros. $25, the amount which she secured from the firm by signing the name of Helen D. Wormersley. The case was dismissed by Judge Berka Vednesday for want of prosecution. Mrs. Spencer has been offered a position by a drug firm of the city and this she says she will accept.

Police Matron Anderson is much pleased with the disposition of the case. She has become very interested in Mrs. Spencer and has worked hard in her behalf. According to the woman's own statement she will have nothing further to do with Ed Bryan, the South Omaha man to whom she was engaged, and who did nothing to

KNOCKED DOWN BY RUNAWAY

Wyoming Man Badly Bruised as Result of an Accident on the Street.

was knocked down by a runaway horse at the corner of Twelfth and Farnam streets at 5:45 last evening. Becker received bruises about the head and right side, but was not seriously injured. The horse belonged to Dr. Walker and was being taken to the doctor's office by Willie Gerhard, a 18-year-old lad, from the stable where the horse is kept. On the way to the doctor's office the horse became scared at something and got beyond the boy's control. Becker went to cross Farnam street at Twelfth, not seeing the fast coming horse, and just after stepping of the curb was struck by the horse and thrown to the pavement. At the same time the boy was thrown from the buggy and the horse broke loose from the buggy and continued on its way down Farnam street and was stopped by a policeman a few blocks farther on.

J. L. Becker, a stockman from Kearney;

Gerhard was not injured at all. The buggy was badly scratched and the harness
