No Children in School District. SIDNEY, Ia., March 13 .- (Special)-One of the most remarkable cases in the history of Fremont county schools occurred at Spring Valley, in Prairie township, last week, when the only faimly remaining in the district which had children in school moved away. The school was a small one at best, and during the winter the patrons Telegram.)-Exemption from taxes for began seeking homes elsewhere until not a twenty years and an opportunity to secure pupil belonged in the district. The teacher, Miss Mamie Thorne of Sidney, closed her in his direct examination for that reason. He explained, further, that he could not testify fully with reference to the writing on the Portland stake unless with the consent of Burns, stating that he had the consent of Harnan and Doyle. Counsel for the defense objected to reading this part of the cross-examination because they were vountary statements of the witness and not given in response to any question, and the objection was sustained for that reason. In the cross-examination the defense introduced in evidence the receipts given by Finn when his bill for services referred to in his evidence was paid. The receipt was made in the name of Burns alone, while another receipted bill of Finn's for services on the Portland claim, offered by the defense, showed it was made out to Doyle.
