THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly overybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant a contract. This also may be injected into and purifier in nature, but few realise its the charter. for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system. Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onlone and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently nafe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stemach and boweis; it disin-tects the mouth and throat from the poison All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible barm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit. A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels. and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Losenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

HER QUEST ENDS IN FAILURE

Girl from Chicago Seeks Betrayer and Lands in Mother Lee's Mission Home.

After having bunted eight months for he man who betrayed her, and having sold her ring, a keepsake from her mother, in order to get money enough to follow him from Chicago to Omaha, Ellen Christie has been compelled to abandon her quest and has gone with her child to Mother Lee's Mission Home.

Miss Christle met Daniel Neary eighteen months ago in Chicago, when he came to that city to work at the packing plant of Armour & Co. She had just passed 21 years of age and he was several years company continually and she learned to love him. They became engaged and she trusted him too well.

She begged him to marry her at once, when she realized her condition, but he declared that he was financially unable, promising, however, to marry her the next month. By numerous like promises the date was postponed, from time to time, and she became a mother without the marriage tie. A week before the eventful day, she went to see him, determined to accept no further excuses, and to take recourse to the law if need be. But he was gone. then, disowned by her family and having no communication with them, her one purpose has been to find the father of her child. With the baby in her arms she has hunted the streets of Chicago in vain, first on one sive, then another. About ten day's age she managed to secure possession of a letter written by Neary to his sister in law in Chicago. It was dated at South Omaha, where he said he worked in the Armour packing house. An assumed name was signed. She sold then her ring, given her when a child by her mother, and with the proceeds came on to Omaha. When she reached here she was entirely without money, and so went to the police station to ask aid in locating Neary. She was referred to Superintendent Morris of the Associated Charities, who placed her in Mother Lee's home and took up the search. Mr. Morris was unable to locate Neary He had heard of the girl's arrival and had left for regions unknown, leaving nothing behind to indicate where he had gone. It was first reported to have been caught Miss Christie will stay at the home until work can be provided for her.

LITTLE HOPE FOR TREATY

Senate Will Probably Take No Action on Santo Domingo Convention Now.

TALK OF APPOINTING A COMMISSION

Will Be Made Today Secure Support of Enough Democrats to Make Majority.

WASHINGTON, March 15.-Republican eaders of the senate are all at sea re specting the action advisable to take in egard to the Santo Domingo treaty. Recognising that the democrats control more than one-third of the votes and that two-thirds are required to ratify the convention, the sentiment of the republican lenders is that the treaty should be withdrawn by the president. On this subject the senate and the president do not agree, and the idea prevails that after one or two days more of inconsequential discussion the special session of the senate will be allowed to adjourn without date and the treaty lapse. But this plan is not popular in the senate and a way to avoid it is being

One alternative which in the discussion concerning it was termed merely an excuse for Inaction, is that Senator Cullom, as chairman of the committee on foreign relations, should offer a resolution directing the president to appoint a commission to Twenty-Three Men of Crew of One make an investigation of the Santo Domingo debt and other questions involved in the protocol. This plan was agreed on tentatively as the program most desirable under existing conditions, especially as it believed that such a resolution could be adopted without debate. No decision was reached which may not be changed, however, and other plans have been suggested or are brewing.

May Get Aid from Democrats. Senator Newlands offered a resolution calling on the president to forward to the senate certain information believed to be in possession of the State department in relation to the Santo Dominican affairs. The resolution was not seriously considered at the time and Mr. Newlands' speech advocating adoption received scant attention. Later in the day it was whispered that if the resolution were adopted and the democrats felt that if all the information obtainable would be given three or four democratic votes might result. This would ratify the treaty. The minority party, on the other hand, took the position that no information could be forthcoming which would change the principle involved in the treaty and that it is idle for the republicans to hope for aid from that side. The resolution nevertheless remains undisposed of and there was talk among republican leadher senior. They were in each other's ers late in the day of adopting it and putting it to a test as a vote getter.

Among those who talked for the treaty were Senators Spooner, Heyburn, Platt of Connecticut and Fulton, while those op-posed to it were Senators McCleary, Morgan, Culberson, Newlands, Mallery, Clay and Bailey.

NEW BRUNSWICH, N. J., March 15 .-- J. F.
