ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleed-ing eczems, until I was cured by the ing eczems, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful I want the world to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Soap and Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and consider myself well. Any ent, and consider myself well. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Rem-edies can write to my address. Mrs. Altie Etson, Bellevue, Mich."

ITCHING ECZEMA And All Other Itching and Scaly

Eruptions Cured by Cuticura. The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the fright-ful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalled head; all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt.

"Parsifal" at the Boyd. The matinee performance of "Parsifal" but deepened the impression made the evening before. The Savage production is one of amazing excellence; full of dignity and beauty and with surprising care given to details. No little thing is allowed to mar the symmetery of the whole.

The afternoon cast included Florence Wickham as Kundry. Both her voice and her manner of using it were a decided improvement upon Madame Mara. a sinuous, graceful body, which added to the picture, especially in the second act. In the first act her make-up, though wild and unkempt, was attractive, and during the third act, in her penitent's garb, she was most lovely; still beautiful, but with the light of an awakened soul in her face. Mr. Pennarini as Parsifal did some spiendid singing; particularly at the end of the third act, just before he elevates the grail. He has an immensely powerful voice, which lends itself readily to dramatic work. He was a more impetuous Parsiful than Mr. Maclennan, but not on the whole a better

The role of Amfortas was taken by Mr. Bischoff. He, too, possesses a powerful voice, and he uses it well. His conception of the part is not as poetle as Mr. Egenleff's. It was more robust, and at times he seemed to forget that he was a wounded and suffering king. His singing in the tem ple scene was particularly fine.

The Gurnemanz of Mr. Cranston was thoroughly satisfying. He made consider able of a cut in the first act. Mr. Parker Coombs made the most of the small part of Klingsor. Titurel, the father of Amfortas, was sung by Mr. Robert Parker; a difficult role, and very well done, with no departure from the pitch. Enough cannot be said in praise of the Denied a Hearing. "I felt certain had the members of the house thoroughly understood what powers were behind the bill it would never have passed that branch of the legislature. We were denied a hearing before the house committee and of course we had no opportunity to explain the bill. As a last resort I have appealed to the press to show up the measure to the end that every member of the legislature who is not informed of its intent will be informed. These telegrams which are printed below should open the eyes of the members. They are from men who are well informed and stand well in their respective communities.

"The signers of these telegrams are not all of the people out in the state who are opposed to this bill by any means. If any member of the legislature desires to inform himself of the sentiment I hope he will take occasion to write to some of his constituents who have seen the bill and secure his own information as to the feeling. Those farmers who have attempted to secure fair treatment from the elevator trust will furnish information as to the character of this combination. All I ask is that members of the legislature who have not yet had an opportunity to vote on this measure will study it carefully. I elieve when we go before the senate committee to discuss the bill it will be shown up in a different light from that in which t was looked upon in the house.

"I was informed today that the state engineer has said it would be impossible for him to furnish the plans for all the inconsistencies in the bill.

WHAT CAME OF A LETTER.

WHAT CAME OF A LETTER.

My Dear Anni Kate:

I must tell you the good news. Right after receiving your letter, the day before New Year's I started in with new resolutions on the first of the year. I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffala, N. Y., as you requested me to do. I gave him all my symptoms, which were that I was tired—so tired—all the time and did not care to go anywhere, depressed and sad, and all ambition gone, backache and a dragged-out feeling, could not sleep, limbs feeling sore and aching. I followed the doctor's advice, which he went to considerable pains to make plains to me—to rest every day—a napafter lunch—complete relaxation—cultivate repose of mind, try not to worry, get as much outdoor air as possible, and practice long, deep breathing, expanding the lungs. Then for a uterine tonic, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, coupled with a wash he told me of. I must say that after following his advice for four months I feel perfectly cured and like a new woman.
