Testimony of Secretary at Former Trial Read to the Jury.

OBJECTION IS ENTERED TO PART OF IT

One Witness Gets Out of Sick Bed to Come and Testify and Goes to Hospital on His Arrival.

There was little of interest yesterday in the trial of the Doyle-Burns case, the day being occupied with the reading of the testimony of Frank G. Peck, secretary of the Portland Gold Mining company and brotherin-law of the defendant, James Burns, as given at the former trial. Mr. Peck, who at the former trial was subpoenaed as a witness on both sides, this time, however, will not be present. His testimony in brief was that he had been assistant secretary or secretary of the Portland company practically ever since its organization and had charge of the books. Mr. Peck's testimony was devoted mainly to identifying the records of that company. He stated that Mr. Doyle was secretary for a couple of years, but that none of the minutes were written by him except one meeting. The witness produced a receipt for the 185,000 shares of stock in the company issued to Doyle for his interest in the Portland claim, signed by the defendant Burns and dated March 30, 1894; also a receipt for stock issued to Doyle for his interest in the Scranton lode, which was also signed by Burns. Receipt for renewal of the 185,000 shares certificate was signed by Burns for Doyle in the same way. His testimony related to the stock issues of the company.

The defense objected to the plaintiff trying to show from Peck's testimony what disposition Burns had made of the 139,500 shares of stock of the Portland company he had received for the Tidal Wave claim. The plaintiff contended that it is material to his case in order to show the alleged manipulation of the stock by Burns, while, of it, as he claims, then we are responsible for it," was the plea of Judge Smith for the defense, and Judge Thornell took the question under advisement until this morn-

Judge Thornell ruled that the portion of John D. O'Haire's testimony given Tuesday relative to seeing Burns and Doyle working together on the Tidal Wave claim be excluded from the jury, as O'Haire ad-mitted that he only knew it was the Tidal Wave claim from the fact that O'Driscoll had so told him.

J. J. Meehan, a witness for Doyle, arrived from Denyer Tuesday night. He is a mine owner in the Cripple Creek district and had to leave his bed in a Denver hospital to make the journey here, and on arriving the local committee, the citizens of Council here was taken in an ambulance to Mercy hospital, where he will remain until called for the state tournament to be held here in to testify in court.

SUSTAINS THE BOARD OF HEALTH Attorney General Says School Children Must Be Vaccinated. City Solicitor Snyder received yesterday from State Attorney General Mullan his written opinion as to the power of the local Board of Health to enforce its recent order requiring the vaccination of children and others attending the public schools of this city. In his letter to Mr. Mullan the city solicitor saked for an opinion as to what steps the local Board of Health should take to enforce its order, but the state attorney general fails to define what steps should be taken, saying only that the Board of Health "may take such steps as are neces-

Mr. Mullan calls attention to section 257 of the code, which provides that local boards of health shall obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the state board and that peace and police officers within their respective jurisdictions when called upon by the local board shall execute the orders of such local board. This section also provides that when local boards of health refuse or fall to comply with or enforce the rules and regulations of the state board, the state shall itself enforce its rules and regulations.

Mr. Mullan's letter in part follows: Mr. Mullan's letter in part follows:

The regulation of the State Board of Health requiring children attending public schools to be vaccinated can be enforced only when there is a threatened or actual epidemic of smallpox; but if such epidemic exists, or is threatened, I think there is no doubt of the power of the local Board of Health to require all children attending the public schools to be vaccinated. Whenever the question has arisen in courts of last resort the power has been declared to exist. If the school hoard refuses to act or take the proper steps to enforce the regulation take such steps as are necessary to enforce the same.

Mayor Macrae stated yesterday that in asmuch as the time within which the pupils must be vaccinated had been extended to Friday of this week, no further action of the health authorities would be taken until after that date.

Population Less Than Expected. "People will be disappointed if they expect the census this year to show a population of 30,000 for Council Bluffs," was the statement of City Assessor Hardin yesterday. the history of the state association and that DENVER, March 15 .- All sorts of wild rumors regarding the situation in the gubernatorial contest were in circulation early today. One of these was to the effect that two of Governor Adams' supporters in the joint legislative convention had been kidnaped, but all were in their places when joint convention met. It is evident that the final vote which will determine whether Governor Adams shall conwith Governor Cummins at the St. Louis tinue to hold the executive chair or shall surrender it to James H. Peabody, will be very close. It was on this account that the Peabody leaders secured an adjournment of the joint convention.

Although forty-eight republicans, only one less than a majority of the joint convention, voted yesterday for the recess it is confidently asserted by Adams' friends that Peabody will not have more than fortyfour votes in the final determination of the contest. Three republicans who voted for expected that Allen will avail himself of the recess have said that they did so merely to enable Senator Wood, who was absent yesterday, to be present when the vote on the contest is taken. The efforts of the Peabody leaders to have this contest treated as the political issue seem to have signally failed. One-third of the sixty-six republican members, it is commonly reported, have pledged themselves not to vote for Peabody under any circumstances. It is said that these republicans have even rejected a proposition to vote for Peabody on condition that he would resign immediately after being seated.

The action of Lieutenant Governor Mc-Donald in casting the deciding vote on the motion for a recess yesterday has opened up a wide range of discussion. Adams' supporters assert that the lieutenant governor has no right to vote in joint convention under any circumstances, but Lieutenant Governor McDonald says he has such a right and has strongly intimated that he will even vote on the governorship contest in case of a tie. Lobbyists were excluded today from the floor of representative hall, where the joint convention meets. Yesterday lobbyists whether chronic, acute or spasmodic, primarily induced as a result of neglected or improperly treated Gonorrhoea or other causes, obstructing the passage and impending the flow of water, and in time, closing the urchiral canal entirely, producing a frightful tension of the nervous system, will soon involve in its destructive course the whole genito-urinary system.

Stricture produces a burning or scalding sensation when voiding urine, obstructing its flow, or a presistent rhucous discharge, causing irritation and pain, or prostatic complications. When a man sees that his stream is becoming slowly but surely smaller, that it is twisted, divided and irregular, that it passes with less force than formerly, that he urinates more frequently than he should, that sometimes he must get up in the night to relieve himself, and that at times his suffering is intense from the scalding, burning and bearing-down sensations, and that he has a gigety discharge that drains his system constantly, thus weakening both his sexual and general system, then, we say, it is high time that he should do something. Sooner or later, in every case, the urethra, the bladder, the prostate gland and even the kidneys become diseased, and if matters are allowed to take their own course, the whole genito-urinary system becames disorganized and the general health is wrecked. Any sufferer should not let this disease run on and on, only to become worse as time progresses. These troubles are dangerous and treacherous, not only in themselves, but in the complications that ensue because these changes are constantly taking place and are hardly perceptible, hence attract little or no attention, but sooner or later the sufferer will awaken to the fact that he is in a serious shape, and that he has committed a great error in allowing this trouble to insidously progress and tenaciously fasten itself upon the system.
