Our Annual Easter Opening Will Take Place Tuesday and Wednesday March 28th and 29th

Woman's Cloak and Suit Dept.

Every woman should make a mental note of the fact that this is one of the season's functions—she MUST attend. The styles this season are so elaborate, so varied and so extensive that the most extraordinary results have been attained. One hour spent here during these opening days will give you a better conception of the season's styles than could be obtained were you to spend a month in shopping at any other time. Visitors from out of the city who are here attending the Grand Opera of "Parsifal" and "Lucia Di Lammermoor," and those who desire to make their selections during the opening days, will have ample opportunity. We have planned so that everyone who desires may have the advantage of choosing their new things while all the novelties are on display.

SCOTTISH RITE'S REUNION

Convocation to Be Held in Omaha is Interesting in Prospect.

LARGEST CLASS KNOWN TO TAKE DEGREES

Three Days Will Be Devoted to Conferencing and Communicating the Mysteries of the Several Steps in the Order.

The fourteenth annual reunion of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, Orient of Omaha, will convene at Masonic temple, this city, Monday, March 27, for a four days' session.

Most elaborate preparations are being made for the event and the indications point to one of the largest gatherings of Scottish Rite Masons yet held in this jurisdiction. Members of the rite in good standing, wherever dispersed, are invited to be present and unite in the ceremonies of the convocation. The statutes of the supreme council require that visiting brothers must present their patents for examination and also evidence of affiliation. An applicant must be an affiliated master Mason in good standing and a resident of Nebraska. A rebate equivalent to railroad fare one way and hotel expenses will be allowed to all nonresidents who receive the Thirty-second degree. Candidates are not required to take all the degrees at this reunion. They may if they so desire stop at the Fourteenth, Eighteenth or Thirtieth degree, leaving the omitted degrees to be received at some subsequent time.

The fact that special railroad rates are being given for the grand opera season here in Omaha during the week will, it is expected, bring a very large number of brethren to the reunion that might not otherwise come. One of the largest classes known in the history of rite in this state will receive the degrees.

Committee and Program.
The reception committee for the convocation will consist of W. H. Munger, L. P. Funkhouser, F. W. Slabaugh, Rufus Parker, C. L. Talbot, William A. DeFord, J. R. Silme, M. A. Hall, W. S. Summers, Henry C. Akin, Henry Hardy and M. F. Funkhouser.

Committee on Examination of Visitors.
The masters of the lodge and Gustave Anderson, 33, inspector general, Nebraska; William Cleburne 33, John J. Mercer 33, Victor White 33, Charles B. Finch 33 and L. M. Keene 33.

On Monday, March 27, at 9 a. m., Mount Moriah Lodge of Perfection, No. 1, will convene in executive session to receive and welcome the visitors. At 9:30 a. m. the Fourth degree, secret master, will be conferred, followed by the conferring of the Fifth degree, perfect master; Sixth degree, intimate secretary; Seventh degree, provost and judge; Eighth degree, intendant of the building; Ninth degree, Knight Elu of the Nine; Tenth degree, Knight Elu of the Fifteen; Eleventh degree, Knight Elu of the Twelve; Twelfth degree, master architect; Thirteenth degree, Royal Arch of Solomon; and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Fourteenth degree, grand elect perfect and sublime mason.

Rose Croix Degree.
Sempet Fidelis chapter, Knights of Rose Croix, will assemble in executive session Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the Fifteenth degree, Knight of the East, the sword will be conferred and at 2 p. m. the sixteenth degree, prince of Jerusalem, at 4 o'clock the seventeenth degree, Knight of the East and West, and at 7:30 o'clock the eighteenth degree, Knight of the Eagle and Pelican, or Prince of Rose Croix.

On Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock St. Andrew's council, No. 1, Knights of Kadosh, will rendezvous in executive council. The degrees administered during Wednesday will be: The Nineteenth, Pontiff; Twentieth, Master of the Symbolic Lodge; Twenty-first, Nochieth or Prussian Knight; Twenty-second, Knight of the Royal Axe, or Prince of Lebanon; Twenty-third, Chief of the Tabernacle; Twenty-fourth, Prince of the Tabernacle; Twenty-fifth, Knight of the Brazen Serpent; Twenty-sixth, Prince of Mercy; Twenty-

CORN STILL COMES TO OMAHA

Receipts at This Market Greater Than at Kansas City or St. Louis.

CASH TRADING A LITTLE MORE LIVELY

Sales Greater and Prices Slightly Higher Than for Previous Week, with a Fair Demand for All Grades.

Omaha again exceeded Kansas City and St. Louis on corn receipts. The local market received a total of 562 cars of corn for the last seven days. Kansas City received 488 cars and St. Louis 312 cars. The largest Omaha receipts were last Monday, 136 cars. The Omaha market also received 81 cars of wheat and 108 cars of oats. It is expected the corn receipts will drop off after this month.

During the week sales from the sample tables included three cars of No. 3 hard wheat, one car of No. 4 hard wheat, five cars of No. 3 corn, two cars of No. 4 corn, one car of No. 2 oats and one car of No. 3 rye. The week opened with the Omaha cash price for No. 2 hard wheat $1.02 and $1.01. The week closed with the price $1.01 and $1.02. The prices about the sample tables for corn last Monday were 45 1/2 cents for No. 2 and 46 cents for No. 2 yellow. The lowest point reached during the week was 44 1/2 cents for No. 2 corn Thursday. The close for No. 2 was 45 1/2 cents and for No. 2 yellow 44 1/2 cent higher. This makes a net loss for the week of 1/2 cent. The oats remained practically the same for the whole week, opening and closing with No. 2 mixed at 39 cents and standard at 39 1/2 cents.

In the speculative market the May wheat Monday was $1.15, a point passed by 1/4 of a cent Tuesday, which was the high point for the week. Friday the wheat struck bottom for the week at $1.14, or 2 1/2 cents below the high point. The week closed with the May at $1.15, or a net loss of 2 1/2 cents. The corn was high for the week on the opening day, or 4 1/2 cents Thursday the May corn was down to 47 1/2 cents, or 1 1/2 cents loss. It closed the week better, reaching 48 1/2 cents yesterday.

Litigants to Divide Costs.

Judge Munger handed down a memorandum opinion Saturday in the case of Dwight J. Layman against Charles D. Woodworth, relative to the assignment of certain patents and infringements thereon. The opinion enjoins the defendants from further manufacture of the infringing machines. The respondent is, however, permitted to file an amended petition. Each party is to pay half the costs of the action, and the master is charged in the case is allowed $20 to be said in first instance by complainant and taken as part of the costs.

LARGE GRAND OPERA RECEIPTS

Coarled's Metropolitan Company Draws an Extraordinary Volume of Business in Chicago.

G. Schlotterbeck, in charge of the tour across the continent for the Coarled Metropolitan Opera company, arrived in the city yesterday for a general round up of the local situation as it relates to the series of two performances of grand opera scheduled for the Auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday next, March 29 and 30. He brings information from Chicago that total receipts there for the week of opera closing last evening reached the enormous sum of $50,000, the largest amount ever taken in for eight consecutive performances in the whole history of grand opera. The cause of this sensational achievement must be found in the magnificent performances given by the Coarled company, thanks to such world eminent stars as Mme. Sembrich, Fremstad, Messrs. Caruso, Burgstaller, etc.

From Minneapolis Mr. Schlotterbeck brings the news that the three performances there scheduled for tomorrow and Tuesday have practically all been sold out a record never before attained in that city. He says it is no exaggeration to state that not less than 1,000 people have failed to secure tickets for the "Parsifal" and Caruso performances in Minneapolis, so eager is the demand.

The Coarled company, according to Mr. Schlotterbeck's statements, is pitched to the highest point of enthusiasm by the tremendous audience it has had in every city visited thus far in this, the most elaborate tour ever undertaken. Not a change has been made in a single cast, not one substitution. The artists are over-enthusiased at the warm welcome extended them everywhere and find pleasure in giving the best at their disposal, with the result of such performances as have never been equaled anywhere.

Superlatives have practically been exhausted in describing the beauties of the Caruso voice, yet the Chicago critics declared on Tuesday morning last, after hearing his work in "Lucia di Lammermoor," that the half had never been told and that to hear Caruso and Sembrich in so melodious an opera was a treat never to be forgotten. Music lovers of Omaha will have the opportunity on Thursday evening next of hearing both these artists in their most effective roles, the one as Edgar, the other as Lucia, and those who fail to take advantage of this occasion will hardly forgive themselves.

The performance of "Parsifal" on Wednesday evening next will be an event in the musical life in Omaha. Scenery for the production will arrive in this city

CONTRACT FOR NEW THEATER

Woodward & Burgess Award Building to Rocheford & Gould—Work to Start at Once.

Yesterday Messrs. Woodward & Burgess awarded the contract for the brick and carpenter work on their new theater to Messrs. Rocheford & Gould. Work will be started early in April, very likely a week from Monday. Some clearing away of present buildings on the lot is needed, but it is the intention to make all speed with the construction, in order that the theater may be opened next fall. No figures are given out as yet as to the cost of the theater.

MOTHER GOOSE HAS LEFT US

Popular Old Lady Bird and Her Flock Took Flight for Minneapolis Saturday Evening.

"Mother Goose" left town last evening. E. Rosenbaum, manager for Klaw & Erlanger, and George F. West, representing the Northwestern railroad, showed the old lady bird and her 299 goslings from Boyd's theater to the Union station, where Mr. West had in waiting a special train. After some cajoling on the part of Messrs. Rosenbaum and West the habitues of Goseland were inveigled into the special train, which consisted of two drawing room sleepers, four tourist sleepers and four baggage cars. After it was assured that Joe Cawthorn, with his old oaken bucket, and Corinne, with her suit case full of diamonds, were on board some one called "All aboard!" the wheels of the engine began to revolute and in a few minutes "Mother Goose" and her large family were far into the night on the way to Minneapolis. Then the telegraph wires began to click and all along the line the information was sent that "Mother Goose" was on the way and orders were given to give her the right-of-way.

Printing Contract Induction.

Judge Troup, on application of the World-Herald, has issued a temporary restraining order to prevent the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas county from designating The Evening Star as the paper to print the delinquent and scavenger tax lists. In this case the plaintiff is setting up the claim that it has a contract with the county, by reason of a resolution passed last August to do all official county advertising until September 1, 1906. At the time the annual meeting of the board of the World-Herald had a bid before the board, but withdrew it to get away from the press it had filed for itself. The matter will be heard by Judge Sears on Thursday morning, April 30.
