Limbering Up Work Will Fill the Time Until Saturday, When Comiskey's Whitesox Will Be Here.

There was a general jollification at base ball headquarters, Thirteenth and Farnam streets, yesterday. While Saturday was reporting day President Rourke will not call the roll until some time today. The following players will answer "Here!" when "Pa" reads the roster: Gonding, Freese Quick, McCloskey, Bemis, Dolan, Schipke, Bewer, Ivan Howard, Carter, Welch, Knode, Companion, Thomas and Sanders, Pfelster, Thiel, Liebhardt and Seewald were no women of that avocation with the have not arrived, but may be in on time advanced columns. They provided the for roll call. Practice will begin in earnest nurses with credentials, indicated the roads at Vinton street this morning and continue until the first exhibition game next Saturday afternoon with the Chicago White Sox. Bill Schipke and Paul Companion came in from St. Louis together yesterday morning. Both are looking well and hearty. Schipke has a new suft of clothes and says it is good to get back again.

Papa Bill was handed the following letter last week, which was picked up on the street. It is in a woman's hand, and is undoubtedly the work of some one of the many fair enthusiasts developed in Omaha

OMAHA, March 20.—My Darling Minnie: I have been wanting to write you for some time, but have been so very busy that I just couldn't find time till now. Do you know that we are going to have almost the same base ball team we had last year when we won the pennant.

Oh, joy, it was grand to see those last games at home. They did just as they pleased with those nasty Colorado Springs players. It might be of interest to you to know what I think of "Pa's" new team.

Catchers—well, they are just dandy. Mr. Gonding, that prince of catchers, is going to work for Pa again, and the way he can line the ball down to second is a thing of joy, and to hear his beautiful way of talking to the pitchers—how heencourages them in such a nice way! He is a darling all right enough. Mr. Freese is the other catcher and when he is not catching he will be on the coaching line, and do you know he is just too funny for any use. He is the life of the game. He goes by the horrid name of "Butch," and do you know I don't believe he ever was a butcher, even if he does look like it sometimes. He is awful joily, anyway, if he does kill things. He has the cutest little monkey and it is to be the mascot this year, and with those rabbits feet besides there will simply be no chance for any other team to win.

Mr. Thomas will look after first base (St. Louis Jack, as Mr. Grigwold-calls him) and he can just dig them out of the ground, and high thrown balls—he just eats them. You might think he is lazy, but he isn't. It is just his way, and, oh, but he does hit the ball, and do you know I think he is really handsome.

Second base will be looked after by Mr. Yamata arrived at Labuan on March 18 and ond base will be looked after by Mr.

Second base will be looked after by Mr. Dolan, our "Joey," and if he does make an error once in a while I have been told he has a great head, but I never noticed anything unusual about it. He is said to understand the game from A to Z, for he has played in the big league, you know. Captain Joey is all right.

Shortstop will be attended to by Mr. Schipke and I do hope he will be as good at short as he was at third. Oh, it is wonderful to see the impossible stops and catches he makes, and he is just as quick as a flash. Sometimes he throws the bail clear into the bleachers, but one can overlook that for he makes so many wonderful plays.

Third base is to be filled with one of Pa's new men, and I have not had an introduction to any of them yet; but I expect to have just as soon as the season opens.

Lettfield': I just think Mr. Thiel is just.

Leftfield! I just think Mr. Thiel is just as mean as he can be, and I won't like him the least little bit if he don't sign. He wants more money and Pa just can't afford it. He is such a fine fielder and base runner. I do hope they will fix up the matter some way, for we all know what he can don't highly when the warm days come. ships, the writer says, was very uncom-

some way, for we all know what he can do. I think when the warm days come Thiel will come with them.

Centerfield—our own Dr. Harry Welch will be there. My but ain't he a big, handsome fellow, and how he can hit the ball! Home runs are just too easy for him. No, he don't run like an lee wagon, either. He is such a big fellow he looks like it. But, honest, he doesn't. This year he will be better than ever, for he is going to play further back and run up on the balls. Say, he just can't get a ball if he has to run back for it. to attack the squadron in European waters back for it.
Rightfield-Mr. Carter will take care of the penal camps, the remainder of the population consisting of 2,000 natives and he just can't get a ban it he has to fun back for it.

Rightfield—Mr. Carter will take care of that and that is enough said, for "Bobby Nick" is one of the very best fielders in the business, and as a base runner, oh Minnie, you just ought to see him beat out a bunt. He is just grand, and that delightful southern accent of his is so fascinating.

Pitchers—We will have some good ones, even if that nasty old big league did take two of our stars from us. Mr. Pfeister is king and knows all about how to fool the batters. He has been in the big league, too. Mr. Quick is as handsome as he can be and is such a swell dresser, and he has some very choice in and out shoots which will fool them every time. Mr. Sanders, he of the quick return—it is wonderful to see him catch a batter napping and shoot one over the base, and it's sure to be a strike. He has been in the big league, too. Mr. Leibhardt I did not see much of last season, but I understand he made good in the Three I. Mr. Companion is all right now and will no doubt prove a great help if he will sign, and honestly I don't think Paul is treating Pa right. He was sick last summer and couldn't work and Pa just treated him as a father should. I am sure when he thinks of that he will feel ashamed of himself and sign all right.

Now, goodby Minnie. I didn't intend to write such a long letter, but when I get to talking base ball I just can't stop. Yours, with lots of love.

P. S.—Now you mustn't forget you owe me two letters. Write soon.

IOWA ATRLETES IN Base Ball and Track Teams Begin to

Work Out. IOWA CITY, Ia., March 25.—(Special.)—Work on the athletic field has been the feature of the last week for both the track and the base ball squads. While the weather is not sufficiently settled to permit weather is not sufficiently settled to permit regular work there, the men have an opportunity to get the stiffness out of their legs occasionally and that is all either Coach Delaney or Chaimers desire for some time to come. Among the track candidates the hard training goes uneventfully forward, Coach Delaney driving the men in a way they have never before experienced. While it is far to early in the season to pick the new men who look good, the entire squad has shown rapid and consistent improvement.

The base bail squad, numbering over fifty now, has had the greatest advantage in the pleasant weather which has permitted them the use of the field and open air work. While the squad is not particularly strong as a whole, the pitching department at least contains new men of exceptional ability. Iowa's pitching staff of last season was one of the strongest in the state and all of the men who composed it are back in the university this spring and will be at the disposal of Coach Chalmers. In addition, Johnson, Kent, Workman and Poyneer seem to show in the best pre-scason form.

The fact remains that Chalmers will practically have to build up an entire new outfield and probably place at least two new men in the infield. For a while at least there can be little doubt but that the team play will be awkward until the new men become accustomed to one another and get into the swing of the season's work.

But as in the track squad, the host of willing material, however unexperienced in university athletics, will be an element of strength in the final reckoning in both dual and state meets. The men go through their stunts with a vim that has not been characteristic of the squad in several years past. Delaney has been able to get more work out of his men than the average coach has, and in consequence in the fundamentals of the Delaney has been able to get more work out of his men than the average coach has, and in consequence in the fundamentals of the game, at least, the men are making rapid strides. His plan of a second track team met with instant favor and will undoubtedly act as a check on the desertions which usually are expected in the middle of the season.

The king has approved of the appointment of Sir Walter Lawrence, K. C. I. E., to be head of the staff during the coming visit of the prince and princess of Wales to India. Their royal highnesses will be received in India by his excellency the viceroy, as the representative of the king. It is the intention of their royal highnesses to visit, so far as the time at their disposal will permit, the principal cities of British India and the more important native states. During the tour his royal highness will receive the princes and chiefs who rule under the paramount protection of the king-emperor, and will hold_levees, at which will be presented to him the principal personages of his majesty's Indian Although the prince and princess of Wales visited a large number of the British possessions across the seas in the memorble tour of the Ophir, which lasted from March to November, 1901, India was not included in the extensive itinerary of that occasion. Outwardbound, it is true, the vessel touched at Colombo, where their royal highnesses went ashore, but time only permitted of a journey to Kandy, and only permitted of a journey to Kandy, and AT AUDITORIUM MARCH much else that they would like to have seen THE AUDITORIUM 30,8 p.m. in the island of Ceylon had to be foregone in order that the passage to Australia should not be delayed. Increased efficiency and economy in the administration of Irish affairs, the executive committee objects most strongly to the proposal for entrusting the control of the finances of Ireland to an elective finances. tive committee objects most strongly to the proposal for entrusting the control of the finances of Ireland to an elective finan-cial board whose interposition between the House of Commons and the country would be fatal either to economy, efficiency or impartiality in the administration of public be fatal either to economy, efficiency or impartiality in the administration of public money. Such a body, if it possessed real control of the purse, would become in effect a home rule government without its responsibility; and, on the other hand, if it were not endowed with such real power would simply constitute another center of mischievous agitation and for resistance to the authority of the imperial government. In the opinion of the executive committee the proposal to appoint a statutory Irish council constituted with indefinite power is either meaningless or it is intended to prepare the way for the establishment of a separate Parliament in Dublin. These proposals, in the judgment of the executive committee, are essentially inconsistent with the fundamental principles of unionist policy, and consequently must be opposed with the uncompromising determination as were the openly separatist proposals of Mr. Gladstone.

The executive committee his observed with deep disappointment the action of the government, as disclosed in the correspondence of the ex-chief secretary during September, 192, and in recent ministerial admissions in Parliament, by which, in the defiance of well established constitutional usage and without the knowledge of Parliament or of the country, they endowed an official of the civil service in Ireland with powers of influencing the policy and acts of the Irish administration which should be entrusted only to a minister personally responsible to Parliament. The executive committee cordally recognizes the valuable services rendered by the Ulster unionist members in bringing to light the circumstances in which this extraordinary unconstitutional blunder was made and urges upon them that, while continuing to maintain their vigilant watch on the administration and the unimpaired efficiency of the imperial parliament, press upon the cabinet the supreme importance of effectively settling the all important question of redistribution during the present session.

The executive committee has read wi

the prime minister so to adjust the policy of the government in Ireland as to enable Irish unionists to close their ranks and in co-operation with the rest of the unionist party to present an unbroken front against the common enemy.
