

FOR GRAND ISLAND COLLEGE

Omaha Baptists Hear Plea in Favor of Their State School.

INSTITUTION REQUIRES LIBERAL SUPPORT

Growth is Rapid and Influence Increasing, but More Facilities Are Needed to Carry on the Work.

In the interests of Christian education generally and especially as related to Grand Island college, Grand Island, Neb., addresses were made yesterday in all the Baptist churches in Omaha and South Omaha.

The college at Grand Island is a denominational institution and was established in 1852. Dr. Sutherland has been president of that college since 1893 and under his direction the endowment fund has increased from a very small start to $70,000.

PRAYER HELPS TO UNDERSTANDING

Daily Communion with God Needed for Christian Living.

Rev. Peter Munson of Lincoln occupied the pulpit at the Swedish Methodist church, Twenty-seventh and Swedish streets, yesterday morning.

INTERESTING STORY OF THE BLIND WOMAN WHO SAW GOD

Fanny Crosby, the blind writer of gospel hymns, was the subject in more than one Omaha pulpit Sunday.

Whatsoever a man does in this world, unless it is linked with God, it is ineffective and availeth little.

AT THE PLAY HOUSES.

Vaudeville at Creighton-Orpheum.

It's a laughing bill down at the vaudeville house this week, with most of the fun set to music.

The electric road which passes through my farm diagonally I at first considered a great disadvantage, but changed my thinking when, by the aid of the telephone and the electric road, I had repaired within two hours the fence on my farm.
