

TRACKAGE IN THE EAST END

Real Estate Exchange Takes Up the Matter for Tentative Debate.

NEW LOCATION FOR THE JOBBING HOUSES

Large Area Available for Such Uses if Council Will Only Grant Use of Alleys to the Roads.

The Real Estate exchange discussed informally the question of making more liberal concessions to railroads for trackage in the eastern part of the city.

ATTORNEYS FOR WATER BOARD

Member Congdon has employed John L. Webster and Carl C. Wright to defend in the injunction suit.

The question now before the court is simply whether the water board or the city has the right to change the rates originally established by ordinance.

The case is regarded as so vitally important by the members of the board that it was agreed that the very best legal talent available should be secured to protect its rights as conferred by law.

HITCHCOCK WILL SUCCEED MET

Former Congressman Will Head-Ed the Editing of His Own Newspaper Again After Next Month.

Before the state senate investigating committee at Lincoln the other night, former Congressman Hitchcock denied that he was either proprietor, editor or general manager of the World-Herald, but, on the contrary, was simply a shareholder in the World Publishing company, president of that corporation and business manager for the newspaper.

Have you made definite arrangements for the succession to Mr. Metcalfe after his retirement? was asked Mr. Hitchcock. "I shall become editor of the paper myself," was the reply. "I expect to do the principal editorial work and have charge of it all. I shall have a new assistant in the person of Harvey E. Newbranch, who is now our legislative correspondent. Other than that the editorial staff will remain unchanged by Mr. Metcalfe's departure."
