AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Dog Tax and What to Do with it is Before City Council. POUNDMASTER HAS HAD A SOFT SNAP

Members of Council Propose to Break in on the Grift and Try to Save Something for the City. A great many people are daily calling at the city office asking for dog tags, but City Clerk Gillin has not ordered any tags yet and may not do so until the council gives him definite instructions.

Some suggest that it would be better to pay a poundmaster's salary and then re-secure the receipts as well as the money secured from impounding fees. By doing this it is thought that the city will not be paying out so much money each year for very little work.

New Fire Alarm System. Councilman Frank Dworak, chairman of the committee on telephones and telegraph, said last night that the committee would recommend to the council the purchase of a contract for the maintenance of the fire alarm system.

While the three republican candidates for members of the Board of Education are making what might be called a house-to-house canvass the democratic leaders appear to be doing very little.

The northeast improvement club has endorsed the park and city hall bond propositions. The members of the club assert that they will work for these bond issues.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider have returned from a short vacation in Chicago. A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, Nineteenth and S streets.

Balthas Jetter has moved into his new residence at Thirtieth and S streets. A. P. Johnson has returned from Los Angeles, where he went to look after the R. B. Montgomery was on the streets yesterday taking a little exercise. He has been seriously ill.

Emil Gaul has taken out a permit for a $500 brick store building at Twenty-fourth and A streets.

Dr. Thomas Kelly has returned from Montreal, where he accompanied the remains of his brother, Dr. J. J. Kelly.

TRADES UNIONS LOSE AGAIN

Creighton Debaters Decide They Are Detrimental to the Country at Large. 'Resolved, That trades unions show a general tendency detrimental to the best interests of the country,' was the subject of debate last evening before the members of the Creighton University Oratorical society.

The gist of the argument of the affirmative was that every workman has a constitutional right to work as he pleases and to make a free contract with his employer if he chooses, whereas the trades unions say a man cannot work as he pleases, but must consult the unions first.

Mr. Colfer went at some length into details to show in what ways he believes the unions have worked for the betterment of humanity.

Hayden's Big New Building. Contract Let to B. J. Jobst for First Four Stories of the Structure.

The contract for the construction of Hayden Bros. Douglas street has been let to B. J. Jobst. All of the matters which caused a delay in the beginning of work have been arranged and the contractor will begin work at once.

James E. Mason, the architect, has had to draw three sets of plans, and the one on which the contract has been let is practically the same with which he first started.
