TRADING WAITS ON MONEY CONDITIONS

Fear that a Flurry Would Result from Demands for April Settlement and Japanese Bond Subscriptions Not Realized.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Today's stock market was in the hands of professional traders. Only a handful of the standard stocks were as much as a point away from last night's level at any time. The movement, aithough very sluggish, was a clear index of a conviction on the part of the trading element that the present curtailment of the money market resources is the restrictive influence on speculation and is not more than temporary. Today was expected to mark the end of the period of the most urgent requirements for the Japanese bond subscription and the April I paymenis. The trading element seemed to be confident that a relaxation of money would follow im-pected to mark the end of the period of the most urgent requirements for the Japanese bond subscription and the April 1 payments. The trading element seemed to be confident that a relaxation of money would follow immediately.

The tons of the early market was more constrained while the dread was still entertained that there might be a flurry in the money market with the closing day of the month. The comparative tranquillity of the cail loan rate, which did not get above 4% per cent, calmed the apprehension. Prices improved late in the day as had been the case under the same circumstances about every day this year. Outside of the professional circle, there was no surring of speculative interest. Abroad, as well as here, the expectation of a relaxation of money after the turn of the quarter had an influence on stocks. The estimates of the week's currency movement indicated the payments to the subtreasury, which footed up 4.577,000, have been offset to the extent of several thousand dolars by receipts from the interior to participate in the Japanese loan subscription. Interior banks evidently continued to make drafts on their New York correspondents to pay internal revenue collections, which accounts for the large absorption by the subtreasury. There is no idea that any contraction of loans has been possible during the week owing to the heavy demands which have had to be met in the money market. The losa in cash will not be offset threefore by any reduction of deposits through decrease in loans. Considering the subtreasury. There is no idea that any contraction of loans has been possible during the week owing to the heavy demands which have had to be met in the money market. The losa in cash will not be offset threefore by any reduction of deposits through decrease in loans. Considering the low level to which the surplus had already a fallen in last week's bank statement it seems evident that very large supplies for the money market will depon to a consultation of the money of loans as between the banks and the tr grades the market was not very active and grades the market was not very active and prices certainly no more than steady. There was nothing offered today good enough to bring over $5.40. For the week the market on beef steers is about $2355c higher, the improvement being most noticeable on the better grades. Trading has been active on most days, so that each day's offerings have been well cared for.

The cow market was also fairly active and prices on the desirable kinds were fully steady with yesterday, the demand for that class being, if anything, in excess of the supply. The commoner kinds, though, were more or less neglected, as packers did not seem to care whether they got any of that kind or not. As a result salesmen in some cases found it rather difficult to get steady prices. As compared with a week ago, the good to choice grades are about 25%55c higher but the common stuff has not shown much of any im-revenent.

HOGS-Recepts of hogs were light this morning at all points and as a result the tendency of prices was upward. The market here was a little slow in getting started, but salesmen held for a nickel advance and as packers all had to have some hogs, the market soon became active with prices generally 5c higher than yesterday's general market. Owing to the limited offerings it took but a comparatively short time for everything in sight to change hands after buyers and seners got

FATAL FIGHT IN NEW YORK Brothers-in-Law Fight Duel with Revolvers in House of MALONE, N. Y., March 31.-Summar Hazen, a bridegroom of a week, and John Hall, his wife's brother, are dead as the result of an exchange of pistol shots at Hall's home last night.

When Hall learned that Hazen and his sister were to be married he warned Hazen that he would resort to violence if necessary to prevent the ceremony. Nothing came of the threat and the newly married couple, believing that the trouble had blown over, started for a visit to the bride's brother's home. They had hardly crossed the threshold when Hall drew a revolver and sent a bullet into his brother-in-law's body. As Hazen fell he drew a revolver from his pocket and returned the shot. Both men received fatal wounds and died within a few hours.
