THOMPSON BEEF & CO. Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets

those of this class who spoke were in the minority, and as a whole it was a great night for the weary old newspaper man.

Their chief of Douglas, much to the surprise of certain ones, yielded to the temptation of the hour to descend to this level.

As announced in The Bee yesterday morning the report of the investigating committee appointed by the senate to look into the $2,000 boodle story published in the World-Herald, which implicated the Douglas county senators, completely exonerated the Douglas county members.

The government officials were served with a notice to this effect. LITTLE BOY BLUE.

His Mother Blows His Horn. A lady living in Illinois writes about food to a friend whose little girl has a delicate stomach and who is privileged to quote from her letter: “The best way to advise you in little Bessie's case is, I feel, to tell you what I did for my little Boy Blue. He was, like your daughter, very fond of white bread, potatoes and the fat of the meat every day table. His appetite seemed good and he ate freely, but like little Bessie, he didn't seem to get the proper amount of nourishment out of his food, was puny in body and lacking strength, was peevish and half sick much of the time.”

SHEEP INSPECTORS MAY STAY

Secretary Wilson Recalls Order Reducing Force on Duty in Wyoming. NEEDED DURING SHEARING SEASON

Senator Warren Points Out Danger of Infection if Officers Are Removed Just at This Time.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, April 1.—(Special Telegram.)—At the request of the Wyoming sheep commissioners, Senator Warren today obtained from the secretary of agriculture the withdrawal of the recent order issued by the bureau of animal industry reducing its force of sheep inspectors in Wyoming. This of course made interesting reading and answered in the absence of something more important to entertain, but if what the Daily Star says in an editorial in its issue of March 27 is true, viz: “That probably more than 100 free passes are asked by shippers as a single pass is received by a member of the legislature,” it would seem that the newspapers of the state, to do real good work along this line with the legislature, should turn in their passes, mileage books, etc.; require the railroad company to pay cash for space and come as usual with a check. No legislature would attempt to resist the passage of a law doing away with free transportation if 500 free and untrammelled newspapers should demand it.

“Regarding the perniciousness of the lobby, about which so much has been said in the past, I have no hesitations in saying that so far as its work around the legislative halls is concerned, that it has not been either obnoxious or unduly offensive. If any one member has suffered great inconvenience from this cause I am ignorant of the fact. People interested in measures have spoken to members about them, as they had a right to do, but I think the members of the house will agree with me that no unnecessary time has been taken from them as a rule. Personally five minutes a day would more than make good all the time taken from me by the lobby.”

Portions of the gulf states suffered from too much rain and farm work has been considerably delayed in the central and western portions.
