SINGLE COPY THREE CENTS.

ONE CHINAMAN TO GO HOME.

Judge Munger Gives a Decision in the Deportation Case.

LIU HOP HERE IN VIOLATION OF LAW.

His Pretense to Study a Mere Subterfuge to Gain Entrance to United States from Which He is Ordered Deported.

Judge Munger has handed down a memorandum opinion in the United States district court in the case of the Chinese, Liu Hop and Lew Quam, in which Liu Hop was ordered deported to China and Lew Quam is ordered discharged.

Both cases were appeals from the findings of United States Commissioner Anderson, rendered last winter, in which both Chinese were decreed as being in the United States in violation of the acts of congress and their deportation ordered. In the Liu Hop case the opinion of Judge Munger uses these words:

It appears that Liu Hop is a Chinaman; that he landed in the United States at San Francisco July 2, 1899, or shortly thereafter, and during the year 1899 he came to Omaha, where he has since resided and engaged as a common laborer. Liu Hop, the United States was by virtue of a certificate proper in form, issued by the consular secretary of which purports to date May 17, 1899, which authorized him to enter the United States to study the English language and European sciences and to live in the company of his brother, Liu Eng...

Merchant May Relapse.

In the Lew Quam case it appears from the record that he arrived in the United States at San Francisco on January 12, 1899, in a properly executed merchant's certificate. He remained in San Francisco for three years in the mercantile business and then sold out for $10,000, and then came to Omaha, where he worked in a laundry and has been so employed since without compensation. Hence he has been a laborer since coming to Omaha, within the meaning of the act of congress. Judge Munger's opinion says on this point:

Had the commissioner found that he had been a laborer since arriving in this country, I should feel disposed to affirm the same, but the evidence before me leads me to find on that subject. His finding in the present case, that he is a laborer. The being a laborer follows from the commissioner on this subject. I am bound by the stipulation of law, to wit: Does the fact that a Chinaman who lawfully comes to the United States as a merchant and engages in the business for a period of years and subsequently abandons the mercantile business and follows the trade of a laborer, authorize his deportation? I have carefully read the opinion of the commissioner to the subject and do not find in them any warrant for saying that a Chinaman who lawfully enters the United States subsequent to the expiration of six months after the taking effect of the act of congress of November 3, 1892, and who subsequently engages as a merchant for a term of years and becomes a laborer may be deported.

TOM DENNISON'S FATHER DEAD.

Old Man Succumbs to Blood Poisoning, the Result of an Unhealed Scratch.

Tom Dennison was called to Jefferson, Neb., Thursday evening by a telegram to the effect that his father was dangerously ill of blood poisoning. Friday morning a word telegram came to Mr. Dennison's family saying that the old gentleman had died at 8 o'clock in the morning.

So far as can be learned, it seems that the elder Mr. Dennison some days ago noticed a scratch on one of his hands. He paid no attention to it, did not even know how he got it. A few hours afterward the hand and wrist began to swell, and then the swelling extended to the arm, going as high as the shoulder.

As soon as the specialist arrived Thursday night he had a specialist called from Sioux City to co-operate with the family doctor. All efforts were unavailing and after many hours of suffering Mr. Dennison succumbed, his age and physical condition being handicaps too great to overcome.

Pat Dennison, a second son of the dead man, was telegraphed and a reply has been received that he is too ill at his home in Denver to come to the funeral of his father. That misfortune never comes singly seems to be proved in this case, for it is but a few days since Thomas Dennison was called from Omaha to attend the funeral of his stepmother.

BIG CONTRACTS AT FORT OMAHA.

Major Zalinski Makes Three More Awards Under Directions from Washington.

Major M. Gray Zalinski, constructing quartermaster, has just received word from the War department to award contracts for the following work at Fort Omaha:

For construction of mess hall, stables and wagon sheds, to Peter Soderberg, Omaha, for $21,000.

For plumbing and heating, to J. J. Handgren, Omaha, for $10,972.

For wiring and electric lighting, to Bennett Bros., Omaha, for $1,646.

The work will now be pushed as fast as possible. Major Zalinski said this morning: "With the award of these contracts and those of Thursday, it makes a total of nearly $50,000. The total appropriations thus far made for rebuilding Fort Omaha now reaches $100,000, and there is still $117,000 appropriated for Fort Omaha in the army appropriation bill, making a total of $217,000."

ROTHERY ENJOINS HIS WIFE.

Partially Stops Proceedings During the Adjustment of a Family Difference.

On application of Fred W. Rothery, Judge Flora has granted an order restraining Mrs. Sunderland and Pearl Rothery from removing or attempting to remove any of the furniture from the residence at 223 North Twenty-first street. The alienation of the petition is that defendants have planned or are planning to remove the household furnishings from the residence on Twenty-first street and break up the home of the plaintiff, Mrs. Sunderland, by further enjoying from going upon the premises or in any way attempting to separate the plaintiff and his wife, Pearl.

The suit out of which the injunction grows is to be heard by the court on Tuesday, April 18. According to all reports it seems to be a case of objection to mother-in-law, spreading out into a divorce proceeding, with incidental complications.

Pretoria's Hard Trip.

DOVER, England, April 14.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Pretoria, which arrived here today (from New York, April 13) and proceeded, was delayed by heavy weather. During one day of its voyage the Pretoria only logged 129 miles.

MORE WORK FOR POLICEMEN.

City Charter Requires that They Shall Look After Some Matters Other Than Crime.

"The new charter provides that policemen shall report bad sidewalks, obstructions on walks and streets and all defects that hinder or make dangerous public travel," said City Attorney Green. "Also to keep tabs on the street lights and report outages. The force at the present time is relieved of such duties, but steps should be taken immediately by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners to inaugurate a system in conformity with the law. It is a good measure and one that will result in a great deal of good and economy. In other cities
