The ico is now out of the straits of Mackinac. Chicago is coming off second in the bidding for Nebraska corn. St. Louis evidently wants the corn more than Chicago, for the former place is bidding higher in state markets than is the latter. Nebraska corn has accumulated so much at seaports awaiting leading for export that new business is being retarded until the old grain is got off hand. The clearances reported for the day are 372,000 bushels of corn. The May corn market ranged between 674c and 484c before noon against 474c and 474c Tuesday. Liverpool closed with an advance of $16c. HOGS—Receipts were pretty liberal at all markets and prices were snaded slightly at all points. The trade here opened a shade to 2½c lower, at which basis the bulk of the trading was done. Barring a weak spot in the middle of the day, there was no great change in the trade throughout. Sales at $5.2565.57½ show only a trifle off, as the great bulk yesterday went at $5.27½. The market ruled fairly active at the prices and closed a trifle firmer than the opening.
