APPLAUSE IN COURT ROOM

Stirring Scenes at Close of Argument in the Doyle-Burns Case.

DEFENSE HAS FACT NOTED ON RECORD

At Close of Argument Case is Adjourned for the Day and Court Will Deliver Its Instructions in the Morning.

Yesterday's session of the Doyle-Burns ase was replete with incidents, the most sensational of which occurred at the close of Mr. Baldwin's argument in the aftersoon. In his closing remarks Mr. Baldwin took occasion to question the propriety of Congressman Smith quoting from the scriptures at the close of his argument when referring to Doyle's admission on his testimony in the Colorado suits. He called attention to the fact that the trial had commenced on Ash Wednesday and continued nearly through the forty days of the memorable events brought to mind by the Lenfen season, saying:

by the Lenfen season, saying:

I may be pardoned, gentlemen, if in the discussion of this case I have declined to follow the example of the distinguished counsel for the defense. I have dealt seriously at all times with this case, because it involves a serious and important matter. I have told you no stories. I have indulged in no anecdotes. The nature of the controversy forbids. This is a case which treats of wrongs and injuries, and betrayals of confidence. I have not sought to convert the holy scriptures into an engine of ridicule or make them the vehicle of any attempt on my part to exhibit my poor wit for the purpose of exciting your mirth or tickling the ears of the audience. The very reason itself should forbid efforts of this kind.

Audience Applands Plea.

"I don't see how it could have been prevented," said Judge Thornell. "It happened that I had sent the court officer out of the room on an errand." In compliance, however, with the request of counsel for the defense the court ordered that the record show that at the close of Mr. Baldwin's speech there was applause while the baliff was in another coom getting the court's written instruclons to the jury.

The incident was the subject of general liscussion, but it was generally conceded that the applause was a personal tribute to Mr. Baldwin's eloquence and not intended as an expression by the audience which packed the court room of approval or sentiment in favor of Mr. Baldwin's

Some time was spent in the discussion of Judge Thornell's proposed instructions the jury. At the close of Mr. Baldwin's argument, at the request of some of the jurbrs, who stated they were not feeling vell, the jury was excused until this morning, when it will be instructed by the court and the case given into its hands.

BOARD HEARS THE MANAWA CASE Attorney Flickinger Presents Objection to Street Vacation. "There is no reason outside of pure selcated," contended Attorney I. N. Flickerty owners at the hearing before the afternoon on the application of the street railway company for the vacation of sevat Lake Manawa. The hearing was not completed yesterday and the supervisors will visit the lake this morning and personally investigate conditions there.

Mr. Flickinger made a strong protest against the vacation of the streets in controversy, insisting the value of the property of his clients depended on its accessibility to the lake front. His clients, he said, had vested rights in these streets, which the supreme court of the state had only recently held they should not be de prived of. He explained at length the his tory of the litigation over these streets and asked that the board remain passive and not take any action in the matter until the question is settled by the courts. His clients, he informed the board, would not abide by Judge McPherson's ruling and United States court of appeals without de-

Dredging Under Bridges Has Not Improved Situation.

Following the heavy rain yesterday morning Indian creek overflowed its banks at the Northwestern tracks, with the usual result that Broadway and the adjacent territory was flooded. At 2 o'clock after the heavy downpour of rain had subsided it looked for a while as if the danger of the creek breaking out of its banks had passed out shortly before 3 o'clock in the afteroon the creek rose again and the low bridges of the Northwestern acting as a dam, the result was the usual overflow. The overflow yesterday demonstrated that the recent dredging done by the railroad under its bridges at Eleventh street is inof freshets, and Mayor Macrae, who vis-

Relaying of Broadway Paving. At the meeting of the city council next Monday night the committee of the whole will recommend that some action looking toward the relaying of the granite paving on Broadway between First street and the Northwestern tracks be taken. It had been suggested to relay the granite blocks on their side after the ground had been thoroughly rolled and leveled and then cover them with a layer of asphalt. This plan, however, it was stated yesterday, had been abandoned as too costly and it is now proposed to relay the blocks and fill in the crevices between them with asphalt. This do away with the noise of vehicle traffic over the granite blocks. The matter, howthe whole this evening It has been decided to put in new piling under the south end of No. 3 engine house, which backs on Indian creek, and to paint the roofs of the city hall and city jail.

Accused of Robbing Friend. Lee Van Hosse was arrested yesterday morning and sentenced to ten days on bread and water on a charge of vagrancy, but a charge of larceny may be placed against him today. Van Hosse and a comfishness on the part of the motor company panion, George E. Meyers, have been workfor the demand that these streets be va- ing together with a Burlington section gang at Pacific Junction. Wednesday they went inger, who represented the protesting prop- to Omaha to see the sights and shared the same bed in a lodging house. Van Hosse Board of County Supervisors yesterday awoke first and returned to Council Bluffs, leaving his companion asleep. When Meyers awoka he discovered that his time eral streets and alleys traversing its resort check and $2.40 in cash, all he had, were missing. He borrowed 10 cents to come to Council Bluffs and search for his missing companion and incidentally his wealth. He ran across Van Hosse in the Burlington yards waiting an opportunity to board a freight. He called an officer and had Van Hosse arrested. The missing time check was not found on Van Hosse, but cash to the amount of which Meyers claimed he was robbed was.

The state meeting will be held at Council Bluffs. The movement has been kept quiet till a proper time to spring it, and it is said that it will be one of the principle movements at the Council Bluffs meeting. Pleas for His Life. A most eloquent plea for a man's life has been filed with the clerk of the supreme court in the case of the State against Joseph C. Smith of Buxton, who has been convicted of the murder of Mrs. Ida Canady and sentenced to hang. The case will be argued before the supreme court at the coming period. The commission of the murder is acknowledged, but it is claimed that the sentence should not be hanging, for the reason that, driven by jealousy to fury, Mrs. Canady, with whom Smith had boarded, had caused him to be arrested and imprisoned for eighty days merely for revenge. Smith is a colored man and his attorney worked with him an entire day in the penitentiary before he could induce him to sign an appeal to the supreme court. Articles of Incorporation Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state today by the Lamont Telephone company with a capital of $25,-The articles are signed by W. A

GROCERS WHO SOLD DRUGS South Omaha Men Fined for Violating the Pharmacy Law of Nebraska.

Six grocers from South Omaha and Albright pleaded guilty in Justice Foster's ourt Wednesday to selling drugs without t license. They were H. Katskee, F. A. Hart, T. J. Flaherty, J. P. Kraus, J. M. Chalupsky and August Miller. In each case a fine of $10 and costs was imposed. The State Board of Pharmacy filed the complaints.

Mr. Kraus of Albright was very indignant at the prosecution "It seems to me the authorities are very anxious to cause trouble to respectable citizens," he said. "The town is full of urglars and robbers and they are not olested, but as soon as a respectable man slightly fractures the law, he is arrested." You have broken the law and a fine necessary," replied the court. As God sent the plague to Egypt, so we have evidence of plagues in this modern Egypt; war, defeat, first on the sea and then on the land, famines and assassinations. The zemstavos are meeting and everywhere the people are saying, 'Let the people go.' This modern Pharaoh scems niways to grant something, but always hardens his heart "Are you aware of the effect the brave stand Israel made has had on the liberty of the world? Their action founded the nation of Israel, which has had the great est effect of any kingdom in the world's history. Its laws have been copied, and its ideals, and it gave the world Christ, the Jew, who alone is enough. That little nation not only gave Christ, but all the prophets, the old and the new testa-

Pride of Liberty. "Who would not give his life for liberty?

America, the foremost country in the world. is proud not of its wealth and power and great empire, but of its liberty. All this liberty is due to the Jews. The Puritans planted the seed on the bleak New England shores. Everyone knows how Hebraic the Puritans were; they sang the songs of David, they gave their children and their cities Jewish names, and the sentence on the Liberty Bell is from the Jewish Old Testament, which has been called the text book of liberty. The feast of the Passover is a feast of liberty, and we need such a day, for the battle is not over. Men are still crowded down. Israel's mission is not operating its branch lines out of Des $1,000.
