Packers Drop Exhibition Game to the Champions Easily.

SNAPPY PLAYING ON BOTH SIDES

McCloskey Pitches Seven Good Innings, but Companion Runs Into a Little Hard Luck with His Two.

City clubs were the opposing forces and at the end of the game the score stood 6 to 2 for the Rourke champions, although up to the dusty eighth it looked like a shut-out game. Pitcher Companion, who came into the fray in the sixth, let the Packers into a get-rich-quick scheme, which netted the visitors four hits and two runs in the last two innings, when the dividends were declared. The first four innings of the game were played at a galloo, so far as retiring sides was concerned, the score being I to 0 for the Rourke fam-Hy at the end of the fourth. But with the fifth the Omaha boys went after Mr. Cadwallader and made seven hits and five runs in the pext three innings.

What the Stone Got.

At the end of the seventh inning the blackboard showed three hits and no runs for the Sloux, but in the eighth the board began to show signs of life. McCullough, first to bat in the eighth, sent out a nice little single and was next seen on first base. He then got a clearance card for second, when Starnagle followed with another hit. Sheehan slammed out a dandy right field and McCullough hit the high places for home, scoring the first run for the Hawkeye aggregation. Starnagle tried to follow McCullough, but was caught at the plate by a throw from Carter to Then Manager Duncan of the Sloux team became aroused and told the boys to ginger up. He thought possibly they had struck pay dirt. Lawler went out and the giorious eighth was ended for the Packers. Captain Carney packed one score away in his grip and settled down again.

Well, after awhile the ninth inning came around and Mr. Noblit of the Sloux tribe was hit by one of Companion's stray grape and cannister explosions; Newton walked, Weed was discovered on first on a fielder's choice, McCullough made another hit and stole a base and out of all these doings one run was made when Noblit came in on Mac's hit. Noblit was the boy who made the three-base hit in the first, but was left on the sack when Weed fanned.

Harry Welch a Sprinter. Dolan's two-base hit in the first sent Welch around the bases like a cat having fit. Welch certainly did run from first to home. "Goodness gracious, see that boy run; It's too lovely for any use." screamed at fair fan. Thiel made a three-base hit in the fifth to the right field fence and scored Gonding, who ran as if he, too, felt something coming on.

After the fourth inning the champions played Mr. Cadwallader and his supporting company for seven hits, two fielder's choices, a pair of walks, a sacrifice, stolen base, one hit by pitcher, with two Sloux errors to add zest to the proceedings. Out of these ingredients the Rourke family made five runs.

The same team will play at Vinton agreet this afternoon. Attendance, 1,000. The OMAHA.

New York Beats Philadelphia, PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—McGann was caught at the plate in the eighth inning of today's game between New York and Philadelphia. He lost his temper and struck Catcher Abbott, who retaliated by striking McGann with the ball. The men were separated by the players of their respective teams, and as McGann waiked to the bench a number of spectators threw cushlons at him. He was taunted by the crowd and several of the visiting players threatened to go into the pavilion. A youth who was selling soft drinks was struck in the face by one of the New York players. After the game a crowd followed the carriages occupied by the champions, hurling bricks and mud after the members of the team. McGann and Abbott were placed on the bench. Corridon was in poor New York Beats Philadelphia.

WORK OF IOWA'S TRACK TEAM

the Best Have Gone.

IOWA CITY, Ia., April 22.—(Special.)—
The track team of Iowa university will miss this season the aid of the old quartet of point winners that during the last two years has been good for twenty points in every dual and state meet. Swift, in the discus, and Crane in the shot, both unequaled in the state, have graduated from the university. Ross, one of the strongest broad jumpers in the mate, has only recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever and will not be permitted to compete. Only Captain Barker, who is clearing the bar higher than he ever has any previous season, is regarded as a certain five-point man.

ing the team. Renshaw, Davis and Colye are almost an even match in the hundred, and while they are not burning the track up, their work is characterized as very satisfactory. Davis, Younge and Coyle are running the four-forty in around 52 and considering the condition of the track, which has been exceptionally heavy during the last ten days, the time is considered rather good. In the distances Stanfield is a find of Coach Delaney's that is making the old men tighten up in their work. He has been running the half mile, mile and two-mile and shows exceptional finishing qualities. He is equalling the work of Jeffers, who won places in meets last season, and together they will make a strong team in the event. MARGUERITA LEMON FILES BILL Opera Singer Now on Pacific Coast Asks for Divorce from Husband,

NEW YORK, April 22.-Marguerits Lemon, one of the prima donnas of the Metropolitan Opera company, who sang here in grand opera last winter and is now singing with the Conried Opera company in San Francisco, has brought suit in the New York state supreme court to have her marriage to J. Reed Littel, a prominent patent lawyer of this city, annulled. The case was today set for trial next Tuesday.

The opera singer demands a separation on the grounds that the decree of divorce granted to her husband's first wife, Mabel Littel, in Chicago in 1899, is not valid in this state. Mr. Littel's answer is a general denial and sets up the fact that his first wife's divorce was a legal one. Marguerita Lemon has figured of late rather prominently in Herr Conried's Wagner productions. Shoots at Charleart Party.

LOWELL. Mich. April 22—A charivari party last night, near here resulted in five men being wounded by a charge of shot. The serenaders went to the home of Sam Vendenbroeck, who was recently matried and after making a bideous racket for a time demanded cigars. Vandenbroeck s response, it is alleged, was two shots from a revolver which did not hit any of the serenaders, who continued the racket. Then, it is said, Vandenbroeck fired his shotgun at them, wounding five persons, one seriously.
