

TELEPHONE 64.

SEE, APRIL 23, 1905.

"They're only truly great who are truly good."

Muslin Underwear

Made just like home work. That means good materials with careful and even stitching. Garments cut and put together in the best manner.

GOWN—Made of fine cambric and nainsook, either high or low neck, trimmings of lace and embroidery, a good assortment of styles to select from. Price $1.00 each.

CORSET COVERS—Almost every style is shown by us. Good values from 25c to 75c; beautiful qualities in covers trimmed with fine lace, tucks and embroideries from 75c to $1.50 each.

DRAWERS—Made of fine cambric, flounce trimmed with lace and fine tucks, 75c each.

Beautiful lace trimmed drawers, ranging from 75c to $1.50 each.

SKIRTS AND CHEMISES—In a wide range of styles, plain or elaborately trimmed, excellent values, from 85c up.

New and Smart Styles in Silk Coats

The silk coat will be very much in evidence as the season advances. We have sold hundreds of covert coats, but from now on the silk coat will have the call. We show really handsome styles from $12.50 to $17.50.

Ladies' Waists

Delicate lawn waists at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & CO. Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets has received a telegram announcing that Admiral Togo's main squadron will assemble south of Formosa.

Baron Hayashi Defines Situation. LONDON, April 22.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister to Great Britain, said to the Associated Press today:

I do not consider that the Japanese note to the French government could be termed a protest. It simply draws the attention of France to Vice Admiral Hoshizumi's long stay in Kamranh bay. Unfortunately discussion of this subject would considerably delay the French government's decision on the Japanese note. I do not consider that the Japanese note to the French government could be termed a protest. It simply draws the attention of France to Vice Admiral Hoshizumi's long stay in Kamranh bay. Unfortunately discussion of this subject would considerably delay the French government's decision on the Japanese note.

Great Britain Prepares Ships. LONDON, April 22.—A special dispatch from Hong Kong says all shore leave of crews of British warships has been stopped and the dockyard employes on their Easter leave of absence have been recalled, so that the ships can be made ready for sea at the earliest possible moment.

RUSSIA INCREASES THE WAR TAX. Law Goes Into Effect May 1 and May Produce $11,000,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—The council of the empire today promulgated the first law providing for an increase in taxation for war purposes. It includes an increase in the tax on matches, petroleum, etc., and a graduated tax on salaries of officials. The total product is estimated at $11,000,000. The law goes into force May 1.

KAISER'S BIG SCHEME

(Continued from First Page.)

following like that it would certainly win for him a place in history as the greatest of German monarchs up to the present.

Great Britain Interested. Great Britain is interested in more ways than one. In the first place millions of its subjects in East India are Mohammedans, and while they look to London in matters of state, they look to Constantinople in matters of faith. In Africa the same condition of affairs obtains. The rapidly with which England is developing railroad systems along the Nile shows that England has no notion of relaxing its hold upon Egypt. Then the Mohammedan religion is the prevailing religion here, and there are grave questions remaining to be settled regarding the English occupation of Egypt.

So it is in Morocco and the north of Africa. The boundary lines between spheres of influence in Africa, English, French, German, etc., are by no means settled. The Kaiser, called upon to look after the interests of the sultan, would at once secure the inside track in vast sections of Africa. Hence the initiated are watching the German emperor and Count von Buelow in this Morocco matter with intense interest. Much remains to be determined, many things are for the future to decide. Count von Buelow has made one point perfectly plain and clear to the Reichstag and the world. In fact, he took pains to emphasize it himself. He insists that Germany open negotiations direct with the sultan of Morocco, which distinctly implies that it will not negotiate with France.

France has claims in Morocco, but so, too, has the sultan of Turkey, for traditionally all of the Barbary powers, Morocco, Tunis, Tripoli, Algiers, etc., though the rule has never been permanently established, are in more ways than one tied to the sultan of Turkey.

If Germany, on being informed of the terms of the Morocco stipulations of the Anglo-French entente, had asked France for explanations or for a more special declaration as to its intentions that that given in a general way by M. Delcasse, it would, in all probability, not have been refused. But instead of that Germany, far from raising any objections, seized sunny opportunities of giving it to be understood that the Anglo-French entente in no wise affected German interests. A fortnight ago the German press began to talk differently, and one of those newspaper controversies followed which cannot possibly lead to any practical conclusion, but which invariably create a good deal of bad blood. Count von Buelow's remarks, like the Kaiser's visit to Tangier at this particular moment, in fact, the whole of the German policy in Morocco as now revealed, is regarded by the French newspapers as unfriendly toward France.

Stalls French Program. That the condition of affairs outlined is not an idle dream is evidenced by the fact that even in the German newspapers veiled references to the new German policy and the new field for German activities are constantly seen. One of the German newspapers quotes a Russian statesman as saying that Emperor William is endeavoring to become protector of the Mohammedans, that he has already assumed the position to Turkey, and this

Silk Shirt Waist Suits

In all the newest modes and styles, at $15.50, $19.75 and $25.00.

Separate Skirts. New organ pipe skirts, just received. Very new, handsome fabrics. Price, $15.00.

New Rajah Silks. Every lover of good silk will appreciate the style and value shown in these new Rajahs.

The beauty of texture, the soft brilliant luster and the graceful drapery effects produced in "Rajah" suggest the handiwork of the true craftsman.

The artistic color and weave combinations are beautiful, 30 inches wide, $1.25 per yard.

Not a Banking Business in Any Particular

But one of the best things we ever undertook.

Every lady that has opened an account in our Commercial Deposit Account Department is a friend to it.

It gives you all the convenience of the old-fashioned charge account, and all the benefit of a cash store.

We pay 4 per cent interest, compounded four times a year. You may have your money or trade it out any moment—just as you like.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany

M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

DELCASSE DECIDES TO STAY

French Cabinet Decides to Unanimously Support Policy of Foreign Minister.

HE AGREES TO REMAIN ON THIS CONDITION

Result Will Be a Firmer Attitude Toward Germany on the Moroccan Question—Causes Satisfaction in Great Britain.

PARIS, April 22.—Yielding to the personal solicitations and representations of President Loubet and the leaders of the government that his retirement would be a serious national peril at this time, M. Delcasse today advised Premier Rouvier that he would reconsider and withdraw his resignation as foreign minister. This was after strong assurances had been given M. Delcasse that the ministry was united in sympathy with and support of his foreign policy.

During the conference today between the president and M. Rouvier and Delcasse, the latter said he would retain the portfolio of foreign affairs only in case the entire Cabinet approved of his foreign policy which he would carry out according to his views. The authority necessary to carry on negotiations with the powers was ineffective, if such negotiations led to reserves or divergences among the members of the Cabinet. The purpose of the intended Cabinet meeting was to remove every scruple in the mind of the foreign minister concerning the loyalty and support given him by the cabinet.

It was given him all the convenience of the old-fashioned charge account, and all the benefit of a cash store.

We pay 4 per cent interest, compounded four times a year. You may have your money or trade it out any moment—just as you like.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

Firmer Attitude Toward Germany. M. Delcasse's staying in the cabinet is expected to result in a firmer attitude toward Germany than heretofore shown.

The foreign minister's policy has been to give Germany adequate assurances that the interests of the sultan would be the same as those of the rest of the world, but after making these approaches he did not desire to yield France's entire project concerning Morocco at the dictation of Germany. It is said that some members of the cabinet are so determined to give the same object, showing that there was no divergence of views, and in consequence M. Delcasse gave as his final answer that he would remain.

As a result of his decision the special Cabinet council which was called to meet this afternoon was abandoned.

WILL FINISH MEMORIAL HALL

Daughters of American Revolution Vote to Raise Necessary Funds.

ANTI-MORMON RESOLUTION ADOPTED

It Asks an Amendment to Federal Constitution Making Polygamy a Crime Against United States.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—At today's session of the congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution Verna M. Davis, one of the justices of the supreme court of New York, who presided in the criminal branch during the first and second days of the trial, was one of the interested spectators of the proceedings.

Mrs. Donald McLean, the president general-elect, on motion of Mrs. Murphy of Ohio, was elected chairman of the Continental Memorial Hall committee, the action being in accordance with precedent.

In response to an inquiry of Mrs. Mary Woodruff of California the president general explained that the chairman of the Continental Memorial Hall committee was not necessarily the president general, but had to be elected. She then devoted a brief time to outlining the work done by the present committee, of which she is chairman. At the conclusion of her statement the thanks of the congress were extended to Mrs. Fairbanks.

When the congress reconvened at 2:30 p. m. a discussion which had occupied considerable time was continued. It related to a construction of the constitution as to the admission of members of children of the American Revolution to the Daughters of the American Revolution. A motion was passed enabling members of the Daughters of the American Revolution of eligible age to become members without the payment of initiation fees.

A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a committee to wait on the Daughters of the American Revolution to obtain permission for the interment in the national cemetery at Arlington of the remains of Pierre Charles L'Enfant.

A resolution was adopted providing that the president general appoint a special committee to give effect to the introduction into the public schools of the United States of the system of a "school city."

Anti-Mormon Resolution Adopted. Mrs. Goode of Alabama brought to the attention of the congress the Mormon question in a sensational statement. She declared that the Mormon church was violating the rights of the law of the land; that it was a treacherous institution owing its highest allegiance to its own organization and that it was a stain on the good name of the United States. She offered this resolution:

Resolved, That the patriots we most earnestly call on the national congress to pass such remedial legislation as will put an end to the polygamous and Mormon living, and political control by the Mormon hierarchy and that this congress do pass such legislation as will refuse head smoot of Utah, an apostate to this church, and one of its highest officers, the right of citizenship as a citizen of the United States. And that we further do amend the constitution of the federal government, making polygamy under whatever guise or pretense, a crime against the United States.

Mrs. Allen, state regent of Utah, asked that the word "church" be eliminated from the resolution and the word "hierarchy" substituted. This change was made. The resolution was adopted. A recess was taken until 3 o'clock.

Money for Memorial Hall. At the night session the congress voted unanimously not to mortgage Memorial Continental Hall, but to go ahead with the work of collecting funds for its completion. The treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Davis, of the District of Columbia, in a statement regarding the funds in hand for the hall, showed that about $38,000 had been contributed at this session of the congress and $15,000 turned over from the fund of the Continental Hall fund, making in all $53,000 with which to continue the work. It also was shown that up to the present time $55,000 had been spent on the building and that there was no outstanding indebtedness.

Unanimous action was also taken on a resolution authorizing the president general to appoint a continental hall committee, said committee, with the advice of the supervising committee of gentlemen, to have in charge the work of completing the hall. The committee was authorized to further, in all legitimate ways, the consummation of the work begun.