REIGN OF TERROR EXISTS IN POLAND

Eight Killed by Soldiers in Lods and Disorders Are Reported in Other Citles - Situation is Critical.

WARSAW, May L-Nearly one hundred persons were killed or wounded in disturbances in various quarters of Warsaw today. The troops apparently were uncontrollable and violated all orders to act with moderation. They fired in the crowds of demonstrators and workmen in retaliation resorted to the use of firearms and bombs. Many women and children are among the dead and dying. What approaches a reign of terror exists tonight, the city presents a most gloomy aspect, and the temper of the entire community augurs III. May day opened with every prospect that the recent gloomy forebodings would find contradiction in a peaceful ending. Glorious weather ushered in the beginning of the celebrations, and all factories, shops and offices of every description were closed. The streets were crowded from early in the morning with gally dressed people and troops. Children everywhere enjoyed themselves in the warm sunshine. The presence of numerous patrols of Cossack cavalry and infantry were the only reminder of lurking danger.

between 1 and 2 o'clock, when a procession of several thousand workmen, carrying red flags, marched along Zelazna street. The demonstration was quite orderly and proceeded without molestation for some distance. Suddenly several squadrons of Uhlans appeared, but without interfering with the procession, and took up a position along the sidewalks, while the workmen passed through the lines. Then a company of infantry approached from the front and immediately the cavalry charged into the procession, driving it with the flats of their swords into a disorganized mass. When the cavalry withdrew the infantry fired a volley, whereupon the demonstrators turned and fied. The infantry continued to discharge volleys into the retreating, shricking multitude. Thirty-one persons were killed and many wounded, and of the latter it is elieved that fifteen will die.

The shooting is described as having been guite unprovoked. It has aroused the most Warsaw. Many of those who were killed or wounded were shot in the back, showing that they were running away when they were struck

Workmen Fire on Patrol. Another terrible scene was enacted at 5 o'clock p. m. at the corner of Zlota and Sosnore streets, when workmen fired from behind a wall at a patrol, which immedistely opened fire on the passing crowds, killing or wounding twenty persons

The first bomb throwing occurred at 9:35 o'clock tonight, when a bomb was thrown into a Cossack patrol near the Vienna sta-Three Cossacks and one policeman killed and two women, who were leaving the station at the time, were severely wounded by the explosion of the bomb. Cossacks and infantry fired a number of volleys and it is reported that many persons were killed or wounded. Troops surrounded the whole neighborhood. It has been impossible up to the present time to accurate information as to the casualties in this affair.

At 10:45 o'clock disturbances broke out at Zomskowska gate, of the suburb of Praga, across the Vistula river. A great crowd had assembled there, threatening the troops, when hussars fired upon the crowd and killed four and wounded many others. In Jerosolini street a man fired into a patrol from the roof of a house, but with out result.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 1.-M. Angur

eff, formerly an assistant of M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers undertakes the defense of his former chief against the charges that he was in any manner responsible for the Manchurian adventure or the events which brought on the war. On the contrary, M. Angurieff proves, by means of hitherto unpublished ocuments, that M. Witte opposed the Manchurian plans throughout in the most energy manner, intimating in fact that it was tally his opposition to the schemes in the r east which led to his downfall as fina e minister. M. Angurieff says that in a first place M. Witte was not responsi for the Siberian railroad. Its conceptic and execution belonged to his predecessor as finance minister, M. Wychnegradski. M. Witte was opposed to the seizure of Port Arthur in 1898, but was overruled by the advice of Count Muravieff, the minister for foreign affairs, who submitted alleged proofs that Great Britain intended to seize the port if Russia did retention of Manchuria. Punish Landlords Who Refuse to Rent to Large Families.

CHICAGO, May 1.-In tonight's meeting of the city council Alderman Ruxton introduced an ordinance which he entitled an act to prevent unjust discrimination by andlords against parents. It sets forth that many landlords refused to rent flats to families in which there were children or infants, "thereby discouraging and militating against the probable increase of population in Chicago, contrary to the inunction imposed upon our first parents upon their expulsion from the Garden of Eden to multiply and replenish the earth, and against the policy and purpose of our national administration."

The ordinance provides that any landlord who shall refuse to rent any house or flat to families in which there are children shall be subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100. If the landlord shall establish the fact that the "children in any such family are of a boisterous disposition and likely to disturb the peace or dignity of such house or flat, it shall constitute good defense."

The ordinance was referred to the committee on judiciary.

Abraham Levy Speaks Five Hours in Defense of Nan Patterson.

SUICIDE

Attorney Points Out Many Things That Indicate that the Bookmaker Took His Own Life.

NEW YORK, May 1 .- "This case is one of deliberate murder or suicide. There can be no manslaughter about it. There should be no comprise verdict. She is either railroad, was heard during the afternoon guilty of murder in the first degree or not

With these words Abraham Levy, counsel for Nan Patterson brought to a close this afternoon his five-hour argument in degation and require at least two or three fense of the former chorus girl, charged with the murder of Caesar Young. During the long argument Miss Patterson faced the jury unfilnchingly. The court room was crowded, most of the attendance being women, who struggled to get a look The attorney general has rendered an at the defendant. At one time during the opinion sustaining Secretary of Agricul- afternoon the judge was compelled to stop ture Wilson in his contention that the Mr. Levy, while court officers expelled from law requiring stock in transit to be the room some women who persisted in discussing the case in audible tones to the annoyance of all present. Mr. Levy reviewed all the testimony in detail and declared not a word had been introduced which showed any purpose on the part of Miss Patterson or her brotherin-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Smith, to threaten the life of Caesar Young.

The suicide theory was strictly emphahe had shot himself. Mr. Levy scouted the Miss Patterson should have chosen a crowded public street as a place for murder when she had so many opportunities o attack Young where there would have been little danger of detection. Assistant District Attorney Rand will close for the people and it is possible the case will go o the jury tomorrow afternoon.

Levy Begins Argument. When the trial was resumed today Mr. Levy formally announced that the defense would rest on the state's case, and then began his closing argument for the prisoner. Mr. Levy warned the jury that circumstantial evidence must be considered with the greatest care, as any judgment they might make could not restore the life that had been taken, saying in part:

cutor. He has also told you about the $5,000 which he says was lavished by Young on the defendant, when he knew the case was barren of evidence of any money excepting $800.

Mr. Levy declared that the prosecution had failed to prove that J. Morgan Smith bought the pistol, and also had failed to prove a motive for the deed.

Victim of Her Own Weakness. Mr. Levy argued that Nan Patterson was a victim of her own weakness and the blandishments of Caesar Young. It was admitted that she was the mistress of Young, he said, but before that she had been true to her husband, and she was as loyal to Young as if she had truly been his wife. Young was the master; she the weakling. He would have the jury not accept the letter written to Leslie Coggins as showing that she was disloyal to Young. The letter was not dated and the only way to fix the time it was written was to go back to when Miss Patterson was in a California hospital. That he said, was two and one-half years ago, before Caesar Young came into her life. It had been shown by the prosecution, he said, that Young saw the Coggins letter last May, but there are at least three letters in this case which were written by Young to Miss Patterson after that time. He asked the jury to read them and to determine why they were written to a woman whom the writer wished to get away from. "These letters were signed 'all love," he said, "and in them we have a voice from the dead indicating that this married man was pursuing this girl, instead of

she pursuing him." Mr. Levy then took up the witnesses one by one, after classifying them under three heads-official, interested and disinterested. He called their attention to what he termed discrepancies in the testimony of Policeman Junior and William Stemm, who, he sald, saw practically the same things, but in a different way.

It was 6 o'clock when Mr. Levy, who had spoken in all over five hours, concluded his address. During his long talk Nar kept her eyes fixed on the jury, watching the effect of Mr. Levy's argument, which may decide her fate.

When adjournment was announced Miss Patterson walked back to the prison with a steady step. She made no comment on the day's proceedings. Assistant District Attorney Rand will make his closing argument tomorrow. The district attorney's office is making a thorough investigation of a story as to the suppression of certain evidence in the case. A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed and affidavits will be taken from them at the conclusion of the trial.

CHICAGO, May 1.-Conditions in the teamsters' strike were werse today than at any preceding time. The strikers were in of the trouble. The chief cause for the Leo Osborne, the son, who did the shoot- increased belligerency on the part of the ing, requested that he be permitted to go strikers and their friends is laid to the fact has today brought 1,500 men into the city to take their places and that 500 more are has been guaranteed to them that their

Today a new feature appeared in the and I suppose I will have to stand the strike, and it will be in full evidence tomorrow whenever a wagon of the Employers' Teaming company goes through the streets. This feature will be the rifle. The weapon will be carried on all wagons of the Employers' Teaming association in open view. During the last week there has been much complaint on the part of the strike sympathizers of the readiness with which the nonunion men, particularly the negroes who have drawn and used revolvers. A number of them have been arrested on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and today the attorneys ment and painfully injured about 7:45 last of the Employers' Teaming company called evening. Mr. Heller was on his way to upon Chief of Police O'Neil and asked if the city hall to ask the co-operation of their men had not the right to carry the Board of Education in the plan of the weapons provided they were held in open Omaha Improvement league for a public view and were not concealed. Chief O'Neil playground at Twentieth and Farnam replied that there was no law against it, and arrangements were promptly made by J. O. Detweller, who saw the accident, the employers to place rifles on every one said: "A large dog ran out from a group of their wagons. Over 1,000 of the weapons of children on the walk and seemed to were purchased today and during the latstrike or run in between the wheels of the ter part of the afternoon a number of bicycle, which was thrown in the air and wagons went through the streets with a Police Guards Insufficient. The reason for this move on the part of the employers is that today, standing the utmst efforts of the police they were unable to give nonunion teamsters that protection which the Employers' up three cuts on the face, but the sur-geon stated that he anticipated no serious the morning Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler requested the employers to rethe brain is not feared, and at 10 o'clock frain from making shipments, as he could not furnish sufficient men to guard their wagons, because at that time he was compelled to make large details at various depots on account of the incoming of numbers of nonunion men. Assistant Chief Schuettler declared later that he had sufficient men to handle the strikers, but that the employers demanded ten men for a wagon when three constituted sufficient Articles of incorporation were filed with protection. The employers on the other hand point to the increasing number of assaults made on their drivers and assert of $250,000. The articles are signed by that while the police are doing all that Glenn Jones, George M. > Mayor Dunne is Disturbed. Mayor Dunne was informed of the fact that rifles would be carried by the nonunion men, and he was visibly disturbed, and declared that the police will not be permitted to authorize the carrying of arms by anyone, whether in the employ of the Employers' Teaming association or affili-

> "The chief of poilce will give no authority to anyone to carry arms," he said, I had not heard of the matter before, but the city of Chicago will not authorize the carrying of arms." Chief of Police O'Neil, however, declared that if the employers armed their men the the weapons are not concealed. There is no law against the carrying of weapons in the open," the chief declared. "If their men keep the weapons n full view on their wagons or by their sides the police cannot interfere. There is a law against shooting within the city limits, and also a law against brandlehing weapon in a threatening manner, both of these will be strictly enforced by the police. I disapprove of the arming of those engaged in the strike, and as far as my influence goes I shall discourage it." There was a report late this afternoon that Mayor Dunne was about to force an adjustment of the trouble, but this he declared tonight was incorrect. "I cannot force a settlement if the two contestants are unwilling," he said. "There is no power I can see that I can employ to bring them to terms. As for the report that I am going to interfere in the strike, I have been interfering for some time, and everybody knows how successful I have een. I am exhausting every effort to throw a ray of sunshine into the struggle, but at present I cannot see that I am accomplishing anything." City Council Takes Action. The city council tonight passed a resolution directing the chief of police to enforce that portion of the state statutes which prohibits the carrying of rifles in the streets by unauthorized persons. President Shea of the Teamsters' union said tonight that if the Employers' Teaming association armed its drivers with rifles he would do the same with the union drivers. "If it is legal for the nonunion men to arm themselves," he said, "It certainly in not illegal for us to do likewise."
