RETAILERS ARE IN EARNEST

Large Attendance at Meeting to Make Arrangements for Trade Day.

CIVIC PARADE ONE OF ATTRACTIONS

Sub-Committees Which Are to Have Charge of the Details Are Rearranged—Market to Concentrate in One Place.

That the retail merchants of the city are much interested in the success of the market days to be held Thursday and Friday, May 18 and 19, was demonstrated by the large and representative attendance at the meeting last night in the rooms of the Commercial club, when numerous plans and suggestions for ascertaining the expected visitors on those days were discussed.

At the former meeting it was decided to hold two stock markets, one on East Broadway and one on South Main, but last night this plan was changed, as it was deemed best to concentrate the auction at one point, and it will probably be held on Fourth street near Fifth avenue.

The suggestion of a parade of the civic societies, the high school cadets and Dodge Light Guards on the evening of the first day met with much favor and if this can be arranged a trophy in the shape of a silver cup or something else equally appropriate will be offered as a prize to the company making the best showing. This feature will be taken care of by the executive committee of the Commercial club, a promise to this effect being made to the meeting last night by H. H. Vreeland, former president of the Commercial club and a member of the present executive committee.

Mar. Burdick, who had been designated a committee of one to visit Missouri Valley and gather pointers as to the manner in which market days were carried out there, made a detailed report, which included a number of valuable suggestions which will be followed here.

The subcommittees were rearranged and a meeting of these will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Commercial clubrooms, when every member is requested to be present. The committees as rearranged are as follows:

Executive—C. A. Beno, C. Hafer, Paul C. DeVol. Advertising—W. G. Woodbury, R. H. Williams, Mr. Clark, W. H. Lynchard. Financial—T. N. Petersen, Charles Swaine, Roy Bentley.

Soliciting—H. Sperling, F. Petersen, Thomas Parnsworth, W. Woodbury. Market—H. Burdick, former president of the Commercial club, and a member of the present executive committee.

LEUTH TO SERVE OUT TIME

Supreme Court Declines to Interfere on Sentence of Kidnaping.

RICHARDS VISITING HIS RELATIVES

Promises to Meet Sheriff in Fort Madison, Ready to Commence Serving Out His Eighteen Year Term.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DEER MOINES, May 2.—(Special.)—The supreme court today affirmed the conviction of August Leuth of Cedar county for kidnaping with the intent to hold for ransom Mrs. Mary Telsow of Bennett, Ia.

The case attracted much attention at the time of the kidnaping, August 16, 1903. The town of Bennett is near Davenport. On the night in question Leuth is accused of driving to the house of the Telsows, where he awakened them and told them that their son at the town of Walcott was very sick and needed them. He offered to drive them to their son's, and they dressed and got into the buggy. A safe distance from the house, at the point of a revolver, Leuth demanded money, but the old couple did not have any. He then allowed Mr. Telsow to return to the house on his promise to get $2000 at West corners the next night. The old woman, 60 year old, was confined in a cellar and the next morning at 8:30 escaped and appeared in a half-demented condition at the home of a neighbor. The only question was the identity of Leuth.

The supreme court also affirmed the conviction of John Dickhoff of this city on the charge of procuring Anna Tolman of Lamoni, Ia., for a house of ill-fame in this city.

The conviction of Max Seligman for obtaining money under false pretenses was affirmed. Seligman was an insurance solicitor and obtained money from the officers of the Equitable of New York in this city.

The school book case from Iowa City was reversed. John T. Reis of that city brought suit against the Board of Education to prevent it from carrying out a contract to pay certain parties for handling school books at cost. The law gives the board permission to buy books and sell them at cost, engaging persons to look after the books. The court holds that the board in contracting to pay two storekeepers to buy the books and sell them at cost exceeded the limits of the law, even if it did save money by that method.

Saves State Five Hundred. Adjutant General Thrift has received word through Colonel Thomas, in charge of Fort Des Moines, that the government will credit the additional target at the fort rifle range necessary for use by the State Guard, and that the targets will be available for use by the time of the state encampment. This will save the state about $50, as the lease on the state range at Cedar Rapids cost $100, and the targets there will not have to be repaired. The range at Fort Des Moines is but a short distance from the state's camp grounds.

Richards to Penitentiary. W. A. Richards is to meet the sheriff of Warren county in Fort Madison today or tomorrow. He has been visiting his relatives in Illinois for the last time before going to the penitentiary. The proceeding was issued by the supreme court last yesterday and it was expected to reach the sheriff today. Richards agreed to be in Fort Madison by the time the sheriff got there.

Governor Cummins today replied to the invitation of Senator Elkins to appear before the Interstate Commerce committee stating that he would be in Washington next week. He will speak in Chicago Saturday night and will go on to Washington from there.

Is Active Candidate. Fred N. Kretschmer of Dubuque is in the city today and stated that he was an avowed candidate for the office of state treasurer and that he considered W. W. Morrow of Afton in the same light. He thought the candidacy of John Richards, who is from the same congressional district for secretary of state, would make little difference to his candidacy.

Asks Society to Endorse. Governor Cummins has asked the State Dental society, which is in session here, to endorse a member of the society to succeed Dr. F. A. Lewis of Ottumwa as a member of the Board of Dental Examiners. Dr. Lewis' term expires July 31 and the governor has said he would appoint whoever the society selects. Dr. N. C. Deemer of Mason City and Dr. E. D. Brower of Tama are the principle candidates. There are about 20 attending the state convention in session in Odd Fellows' hall and about fifty candidates taking the examination in the senate chamber.

Population of Missouri Valley. MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—Missouri Valley's city assessor has finished his work for the year and gives Missouri Valley a population of 5,329. In 1900 the population was 4,699.

Circus in Hard Lines. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 2.—(Special.)—Campbell Bros' circus had the usual hard luck in this city and upon its first week's business it made its first exhibition after leaving its home city, Fairbury, yesterday. Yesterday morning its clown elephant, which had been sick with indigestion for a week, died, and yesterday afternoon, shortly before the time for the evening performance, a strong wind, accompanied by a fierce wind, which sadly ripped up several of its tents and caused the center poles of some of the larger tents to sway about like toothpicks. No evening performance was undertaken and the show sustains quite a loss on damaged canvas.

Why Be Gray. Mrs. Nettie Harrison's 4-Day Hair Restorer. Will bring back the natural color. Gray hair and bald restored permanently without inconvenience and with no disagreeable after effects. Not a dye; is cleanly; does not soil; does not make the hair sticky. Price, $1.00. Mrs. NETTIE HARRISON, Dermatologist, 13 West 37th St., New York, N. Y. Sold by Eberman & McDonnell Drug Co., 8 N. W. Cor. 15th and Dodge, Omaha.

Wanted for Iowa Murder. MUSCATINE, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—Daniel Norman Williams, wanted here to tell what he knows of the Tuman murder of some years ago, has been convicted at The District Court of Iowa yesterday. He is charged with the murder of Alma Nesbit, a young woman who had entered a timber claim in that state, and has been sentenced to hang. He was convicted in June of last year and the supreme court of that state it is learned has affirmed the decision of the lower court.

Art Club Meets. MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—The Art club's regular review session was held at the home of Mrs. G. C. Lahman, and the following program was rendered: "Artist Adolf von Menzel," Mrs. F. M. Hoyer; "The Great Portrait Painter, Len Bach," Mrs. C. C. Lahman; "Germans' Art China," Mrs. G. P. Shiley; "Moscow," Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin; "History of German Sculpture," Mrs. Emma H. Russell.

Missionaries to Meet. MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—A county missionary convention will be held at the local Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 4, 5, 6 and 7. Addresses will be delivered by the following: Mrs. Ida B. Wise, Missouri Valley; Mrs. J. H. Gasson, Missouri Valley; Rev. A. A. Thompson, Council Bluffs; Rev. F. F. Logan, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Main, Fort Cowan, China.

Doctors Attend Clinic. IOWA CITY, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—Nearly 100 graduates of the Medical college of Iowa University arrived in the city today in attendance on the first annual graduate clinic, to last two days. A memorial bust of the late Dean Middleton and a picture of Dr. Hartman were dedicated tonight with appropriate ceremonies.

Charged with Embezzlement. KEOSAUQUA, Ia., May 2.—(Special.)—On the charge of embezzling $7,000 from the Bates Manning estate, H. B. Sloan, a prominent attorney, has been indicted by grand jury. He gave Sloan appearance bond and was released. Sloan is the son of Judge Robert Sloan.

Card of Thanks. Mr. F. J. Fallon desires to thank his friends and neighbors for their kindness and assistance in the death of his wife, Mrs. Maud McCallister Fallon.

Tax Collections for March. As the result of the March tax collections County Treasurer Conroy yesterday turned over to School Treasurer E. G. McGee, $7,902.30; to City Treasurer True, $7,188.68; regular taxes, and $1,574.75 special taxes; and to A. Bereshelm, treasurer of

The Secret of Good Coffee. Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way: HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE. The LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use 1/2 tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot. First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a sweetener), then follow one of the following rules: 1. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly. 2. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve. 3. Don't boil it too long. 4. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. 5. Don't use water that has been boiled before. TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE. 1. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling. 2. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer. Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE. Prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.) SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE.
