OLD OFFICERS ARE ALL RE-ELECTED

Method of Selecting Them Through Nominating Committee Causes Some Discussion and Steps Taken to Change the System.

At the closing session yesterday afternoon of the convention of the Iowa State Retail Grocers' association the preliminary steps owards enlarging the scope of the organizaion were taken. The matter was brought before the convention by R. A. Greene of East Peru, state organizer and member of the executive committee, who suggested its passage. Those who opposed it con-that the association be enlarged so as to tended that to adopt the report would be take in all classes of retail merchants. He introduced a resolution instructing the executive committee to draft the necessary changes in the constitution and bylaws and report at next year's convention, so that action can be taken at that time. If the proposed change is approved by next year's onvention the name of the association will be changed to that of the lowa State Retail Merchants' association. It is understood that the proposed enlarging of the scope of the association has been under contemplation for some time and that it meets with the general approval of the members. Many of the local organizations affiliated with the state association embrace in their nembership merchants in all classes of retail business besides grocers, this being especially the case in the county organisations. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the re-election of the old officers, as follows:

President—A. M. Hough, Newton.
Vice President—B. T. Jackson. Cedar Rapids.
Secretary—Ira B. Thomas, Des Moines.
Treasurer—W. A. Scruby, Des Moines.
Executive Committee—W. H. Ahlbrecht, Tama; C. L. Wilson, Sloux City; E. M.
Taylor, Sibley; H. Corrance, Dubuque;
James Leslie, Clinton; R. E. Daniels, Council Bluffs.
Wilson and Taylor, and the council Stuffs.

Wilson and Taylor are the new members of the committee, taking the places of Eugene Buttles of Burlington and R. A. Greene of East Peru.

Objection to Method.

The appointment of a nominating committee in the morning brought on . light on this old method of electing officers, in which J. A. Cook of Shelby and Eugene Buttles of Burlington took the leading part. Delegate Cook introduced a resolution dong away with the old method of election by a nominating committee and cailing for the nomination of officers in open meeting and election by ballot. This resolution was referred to the committee on resolutions, which later reported the following substitute resolution, which was adopted by the convention:

Resolved. That this association fix the time for election of officers at i p. m. of the second day of the next convention and that the officers be elected by ballot from nominations to be made from the floor of the convention, notice of such change to be mailed by the state secretary to each local association at least thirty days prior to the annual convention, the newly elected officers to assume their duties immediately after the close of the convention.

Resolutions Adopted. Resolutions reported by the committee as follows, were adopted by the convention at the morning session: Protesting against the practice of jobbers and manufacturers selling to "box-car merchants" and traveling wagon peddiers. That the retailers show their appreciation of the jobbers who retuse to seif to con-Sumers by patronizing them.

That the lowa retailers purchase, as far as possible, their supplies from the lowa jobber. usinesslike and unprincipled.
Recommending that congress pass a nalonal pure-food bill.
Protesting against the passage of any bill for the creation or adoption of a do-bill for the creation or adoption of a domestic parcels post.

Condemning the use of trading stamps and premium tickets.

Reaffirming the action of the previous convention in regard to the exemption bill.

That the legislature be asked to pass a bill prohibiting the sale of gasoline in any vessel except same be painted red.

Regretting the retirement of Fred Mason as secretary of the national association and extending him good wishes for his future success.

Extending thanks to the several local committees, Commercial club, local asso-ciation, press and others for courtesies shown. At the morning session State Senator

Saunders of this city, who was unable to be present Wednesday, addressed the convention on "Fraternity." M. N. Spencer, a wholesale grocer of Red Oak, read a paper on "Credits." The question of extending credit, he said, was answered by the simple word "don't " W. J. Likington, editor of the lowa Trade Journal, read a paper entitled "Just Another Way," in which he advocated a closer relationship between the retail merchant and the customer. The afternoon was devoted to the discussion of a number of questions of interest to the trade and the reports of local and county associations.

A communication was read from Secretary Melhop of the lows and Nebraska Wholesale Grocers' association in answer to a letter addressed him on the subject by the secretary of the Betail Grocers as-The board reserves the right to reject any and all plans and specifications. > FEDERATION OF LABOR ADJOURNS Finally Adopts Resolution on Garnishee Bill.

The convention of the Iowa State Federa tion of Labor, which came to a close last evening, adopted at the morning session the report of the joint committee appointed by it and the State Retail Grocers' conven tion to confer on legislative matters of mutual interest.

The entire morning session was taken up in the discussion of the committee's report which was strenuously opposed by a number of the delegates, who objected princi pally to the clause relating to the garnish ment bill by which the Federation of Labor is pledged to withdraw its opposition to the proposed measure and instead work for inconsistent on account of the previous attitude taken by the federation in assisting in the defeat of the bill at the last ses sion of the state legislature.

Just before the adjournment of the session, however, the adoption of the report carried by a vote of 47 to 39.

The election of officers at the afterno session brought the convention to a close. President A. L. Urick of Des Moines and Secretary-Treasurer J. H. Strief of Sloux City were re-elected. J. W. CLUB WOMEN ARE HARMONIOUS Only One Ticket in Field and Prospect of Another.

WATERLOO, Ia., May 11 .- (Special Telegram.)-A child labor legislation conference, conducted by Dr. Samuel Lindsey, secre tary of the National Child Labor commitee, opened the morning's program of the onyention of Iowa clubwomen.

The political calm which has prevailed was broken in the morning business session when objection was offered by some of the delegates to the house instructing the nominating committee by formal ballot. This was voted down, however, and the balloting done at the close of the session, resulting in the nomination of Mrs. J. J. Seerley of Burlington for president; Mrs. Ellen Brown of Waterloo, vice president; Mrs. Nash of Audubon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Johnson of Humboldt, recording secretary; Mrs. B. B. Clark of Red Oak, treasurer; Miss Harriet Lake of Independence, General Federation secretary;

Mrs. Bibbs of Boone, auditor. Mrs. Horace Deemer has refused the presidency, and excepting some following for Miss Lake as president there seems no opposition to the ticket as announced. The amendment of the constitution adding the General Federation secretary to the executive committee was the only business. The final report of the credentials committee shows 252 voting delegates, making this the largest convention in the history of the federation. Sixty-six new clubs have some into the federation since the last blen-good reason exists why a play like the one ow being offered at the Krug should be offered on the stage at all, while many very good reasons can be cited why it should not be allowed to appear. A piece that has for its avowed aim the distortion of history and the presentation of desperate and despicable criminals in any but their true light cannot fail to have ah evil in fluence, and therefore should be forbidden. But "The James Boys in Missouri" continues to draw crowded houses whenever offered. The audience that witnessed its production at the Krug last night was one hat filled all the available room in the ouse, and which spent much time in applauding the mock heroics and platitudin us utterances that come from the pretended representatives of two of the bloodest criminals ever known in the west. whose deeds are still a shame to the state they disgraced for years. Even the Blue Cut train robbery, where Jesse James committed one of the most wanton murders that blackened his long career of cowardly crimes, is turned into an apparent justification of the awful career of these brothers. In fact, no scintilla of truth or verisimilitude is presented.

As to the company, it is composed of people who could well be in better business. No complaint can be made of the presentaion of the piece, for each member of the cast is capable and enacts the role set down with skill and judgment. Scenically, too, the piece has been much improved since it was first offered as a tentative

House at the Boyd last night proved that thirty years have not dimmed the charm of the old time comic opera, "Pinafore." After long oblivion it comes up fresh and spark-ling as when it first enchanted American audiences in the late '70s.

Seventy-five of Omaha's amateurs presented the piece under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus for the benefit of St. James' orphanage and the Home of the Good Shepherd. The immensity of the spectacle gives some idea of the labor inspectacle gives some idea of the labor involved in staging the production. The captain, known to his friends as Lou Traynor, never failed to bring down the house with his "Well, hardly ever." Cynical and ridiculous in humor T. F. Lively choruses of sailors, marines and the admiral's feminine relatives relieved the solos at frequent intervals. FINISH OF CASE IS WARM Conclusion of Argument in Defunct Company's Suit Brings Clash of Counsel,

One of the spiciest phases of a very spicy case was developed in Judge Sears' court Thursday morning. The arguments were being concluded in the case of the receiver against the stockholders, or the alleged stockholders of the Omaha Gas Engine and Motor company, which once was, but H. H. Baldrige, attorney for Gustave

Anderson and others, in an earnest review of the evidence set forth that Mr. Anderson had gone into the company in good faith, under the representations of friends that it was a good thing. He had put up $2,500 in gold at the Commercial National bank to Inventor H. K. Clover and afterward had loaned the company $1,809 and $1,500 at two different times to save its credit and keep it running.

"Anderson was milked to a finish," said Mr. Baldrige, with some heat. "He was left to hold the sack, while Lindquest got out from under and recommended that his friend, Anderson, be made president in his stead."

Attorney J. L. Webster, for Mr. Lindquest, followed Mr. Baldrige. He went to the front for his client from the jumpoff with enthusiasm. Incisive analysis of the company from its inception was followed by a free use of the terms "conspirator," "co-conspirator," "fraud on its face," "fleecing of the innocent public," and kindred assertions along that line.

Mr. Webster was not at all sparing in his denunciation of an agreement or contract between Howard K. Clover and Dr. F. E. Coulter. Gunnar A. Lindquest, the tailor, stands to pay for $1,100 worth of stock at probably 50 cents on the dollar if he is held to be a stockholder. So his attorney's efforts are being directed to proving that he could not have been, for the reason that misrepresentation and other technical obstacles were in the way to prevent. At the conclusion of the arguments Thursday afternoon Judge Sears took the case under advisement. It probably will be some time before a decision is rendered, as there is a very long record to go through and many exhibits to be exam-

This organization is a national body, having posts in thirty-three states, comprising s membership of about 26,000 commercial men. Their national convention is one of great importance and much good work is done at these gatherings. The United States Department of Commerce and Labor is the result of a resolution at their national onvention several years ago, which brought the united effort of this national body to the halls of congress, that resulted in the creation of this department.

> Called Up in the Niger for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"We consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best we sell," write J. L. True & Son of West Epping, N. H. "We have customers who think there is nothing like it for croup. A few nights ago a man called us up at 2:30 a. m. to go to our store and get him a bottle of this remedy as his little girl had the croup. He knew it would cure her for he had tried it many times before."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION ENDS Bad Weather Keeps Down Attendance at Meetings.

MITCHELL, S. D., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)-The state Sunday school convention went up against some mighty bad weather during its meeting. Today it rained awhile and a snowstorm followed for over an hour, making the attendance rather small. The work of the day has been of an interesting character, particularly the conference committee's report on Sunday school work, in which many new-ideas were advanced. At the noon hour the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. James Chalmers, president of Brookings college and president-elect of the University of South Dakota at Vermillion; vice president, Rev. J. P. Jenkins of Sioux Falls; secretary and treasurer, Rev. F. P. Leach of Sloux Falls; executive commuttee, Rev. C. M. Daley of Huron, chairman; E. H. Grant, T. H. Hagen, Rev. A. H. Seymour, Prof. D. A. Jordahl and D. C. Jones; international vice president, Rev. A. C. McCauley of Bridgewater; member of international committee, Rev. C. M. Daley of Huron. The convention closed this evening with an address by Mrs. Bryner.

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach. When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of digestion, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfect folly to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undigested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the worn out muscles and nerves of the stomach so that it can do its own work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat to-day but tomorrow and forever after; as is done, by the use of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion. The price of the Blood and Nerve Food, 50 cents; the Liver Food 25 cents, Book free. sold and guaranteed by Myers-Dil-
