CAPTAIN BARR'S SHIP MAKES GOOD START

Vessels Disappear in Horizon Strung Out for Six Miles-Valhalla Fouls in Crossing Line and Has to Return

NEW YORY, May 17 .- A splendid fleet of sailing yachts swept across the starting line at Sandy Hook lightship at 12:15 today, and with the queenly American schooner Atlantic leading the way, headed out to the broad Atlantic ocean on a race of $5,000 cup offered by Emperor William of ished into the mist they were strung out eastward and pointing as nearly as possible to a wind that was dead ahead

A quarter of a mile astern of the Atlantic leaders were slowly dropping the Philathe Endymion, holder of the trans-Atlantic yachting record. Almost a mile astern of the Endymion were the Thistle and Fleur De Lys. Strung out behind were American barque Apache, the British top sail schooner Sunbeam, and five miles three-masted schooner Utowana. Bringing | ap the rear was the British clipper ship Valhalla. These two had been delayed by

Start Made in Mist. Leaden skies, low banging mist-laden clouds and a strong east wind were the conditions under which the race started, and the three big square rigged vessels were handicapped at the very start, for at beating to windward in a light air their spreading courses and bulging topsails were not to be compared with the hard futting fore and afte canvass of the trim

The committee boat, with Commander Hibbenhaus of the German navy, Com-States mander H. H. Hosley of the United navy, Oliver E. Cromwell, Newbury D. Lawton, H. L. Parsons and E. H. Wales of the New York Yacht club on board. anchored an eighth of a mile east of Sandy Hook lightship and established the starting line between them shortly after 11 o'clock. A fleet of yachts and tugs began to assemble. As the racers arrived they were towed to the north and windward of the starting line. Most of the schooners soon after reaching the line dropped their tows, set their huge sails and began to wheel about in and out through the fleet like high stepping horses displaying their paces for the admiring spectators. Meanwhile the wide topsails of the Valhalla were unfurled and sheeted home and one after another the tall topsails, top-gallantsails and staysails of the square rigged craft were spread to the soft breeze.

Warning Signal Fired. The blue peter, giving warning of impending departure, was run up on the mast of the committee tug. At noon there was a flash and spurt of smoke from the gun on its deck and a warning report rolled among the fleet giving notice that the race would start in fifteen minutes. Ten minutes later another gun sounded and the prow of every oraft swurm toward the starting line. It was an inspiring spectacle. Near the line the small Allsa, bearing every mark of the racer, was engaged in a jockeying match with the Hildegarde and to avoid being forced across the line prematurely performed some startling mancuvers. Be hind them, to the north and east, the fleet

Always the Same Good Old "Blatz" was spread out in fan shape. Close-astern of the leaders was the Atlantic, where Captain Charles Barr had placed it in well timed position. The Endymion, Hamburg from a windward position and crowding close upon the quarter of the latter was the majestic Valhalla, whose every mast was a leaning spire of towering canvas gently bellying before the brees and sweeping it loward the dock. Still far away were the > room to pile on sail and get under way. Almost at the flash of the starting gun the Allsa and Hildegarde went across the line with the yawl slightly in the lead and Lazotte hit the ban to Quick, who and in the windward position. Crowding close behind them came the Atlantic, Endy-Valhalla in that order.

Sunbeam and Apache, taking plenty of sea

Bad Start of Big Boats.

As the vessels crowded together at the 2.660 miles to the English coast for a captain, anxious to secure the weather position, the schooners in the lead crowded Germany. When last seen as they van- the Utowana and Valhalia so badly that they were unable to cross the line without in a line six miles long, heading south- a collision. They approached the line from such a direction that the other yachts were crossing their bows, yet they sailed to their course so long that the Utowana, the was the 99-foot American yawl Alisa, which leader of the two, became pocketed so was having a hot brush with the German that it could not be turned about. Both schooner Hamburg, while all three of the it and the Valhalla bore down upon the schooners threateningly. While passing Schipke's three-bagger to center field and delphia schooner Hildegarde. Next was between a tug and the committee boat it looked as though they were going to smash into the Atlantic and Endymion, and an order came from the committee to go about and cross the line properly.

Barely in time to prevent a collision the fleet made an opening for them and astern of the leader was the American they went through them and swung into line. Warning whistles and signal flags recalled them, but not until they had gone more than half a mile on their course were they able to get clear of the fleet and return and recross the line.

In the meantime the little schoone Fleur de Lis, the smallest of the fleet, on which Miss Candace Stimson, the owner's daughter, is a passenger, slipped across the line and quickly overtook the Thistle. All the lenders got away within a minute of the starting at 12:15, but the Fleur de Lis crossed at 12:07, Sunbeam at 12:30, Apache at 12:35, Utowana at 12:57 and Valhalla at 1:25 and thus badly delayed.

Atlantic Takes the Lead,

Among the leaders the yawl Ailsa, as expected in light winds, clung to the windward position and quickly drew away from the Hidegarde. The long, lean, threemaster Atlantic, with Captain Barr at the helm, slipped by them both like a keen greyhound, and at its stern clung the German Hamburg, which in the first five miles had almost overhauled the Ailsa and dropped the Endymion astern of it. It was evident that the German was hot after ing five runs on four hits, an error and GAMES IN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION the flying leader more than a quarter of a base on balls. a mile ahead and that Captain Barr was wasting not a moment in securing the position in which he has so often placed the American craft-the lead. It was to be a royal battle between the Yankee by Lemuel Miller of the Allsa and the Gloucester fishing skipper, Captain Bohlino, of the Fleur de Lis, each eager for the lafter the fourth inning was Quinlin, who lead and wise in ways to get it. Strung out, the long fleet faded into the

PA WALKS AWAY WITH POP Standing of the Teams.

Omaha Puts Several Kinds of Crimps in Colonel Eyler. Omaha .... St. Joseph

WINS FIRST FROM ST. JOE, NINE TO THREE

Percy Snys the Reason His Colts, Fleming, Lesotte, Andrews, et. al. Cannot Win Is Rourke Has Hoodoo.

The Champions finally found a pitcher who was willing to let them make a start in the hitting branch of the game and it was no other than our old enemy. Pop Eyler, formerly with Denver and the acknowledged hoodoo of the Omaha players. It was a standing rule until last year that Omaha couldn't beat Pop Eyler, but last spring they changed the rule and since that time he looks no worse to the Champions than any other ordinary ball tosser. Pop did not seem to exert himself much yesterday at the Vinton street park, and the 600 faithful fans saw Omaha put it all over him to the tune of 9 to 3, albeit Pop had some very ragged support.

Percy Chamberlain said Pa had a horse shoe in his pocket, as this was the only way that he could account for some of the plays of his team of old-timers. Think and Thistle swept down toward the line las, Ketchem, Fleming, Lazotte, all in one team playing against a bunch of colts like the Champions, but the Champions struck their gait and horseshoe, or no horseshoe, the St. Joe team never was in it from the first.

time winners with Ketchem sousing the ball for a Texas leaguer over Martin right off the reel. Young Fleming bunted an easy one to Schipke, which Thomas dropped, threw to third and caught Ketchem. Douglas flew out to Welch and the fans began mion, Hamburg, Thistle, Utowana and to have hope that they would not score. Jay Andrews hit for a double by Thomas and Fleming and Lazotte scored. Quinlin singled right through Quick, but was caught windward end of the starting line each trying for a double steal, when Gonding threw the ball to Quick, who boosted it on to Martin.

Omaha Scores in Second.

Omaha did not score in the first, although Thiel walked and Carter sacrificed him on to second, for Welch and Dolan were easy outs. In the second, however, Thomas was given a life by an error of Andrews, who was trying to umpire the game and play at the same time. He stole second and Martin struck out. Thomas scored on Gonding scored Schipke on a bunt.

When Quick drove the ball to Eyler he fired it to Quinlin, who doubled it back to first for a double play. Omaha scored one in the third after two were out, when Welch hit for a triple and scored when Quinlin fumbled Dolan's grounder.

It was in the fifth inning that Omaha did the business that settled the game, and made the Saints look like a bunch of amateurs. One was almost led to believe that they had never encountered the bunt game before, the way they stood and looked at the ball at times, but Percy explained it by saying that Pa had a horseshoe. A horseshoe is all right, but hits count, too. Quick led off with a bunt, which he beat out, and Thiel did likewise, and made the Saints look like a bunch of which he beat out, and Thiel did likewise, the first hit to his credit in seven games Carter walked and the bases were filled with no one out. Welch struck out and then came the play of the day. Dolan bunted an easy one past Eyler and Peer, evidently thinking that Eyler would get the ball, ran to cover second. The consequence was that no one got the ball until Dolan was on second and Quick and Thie had scored. Thomas flew out to Fleming. Total of Five Runs.

Martin reached first on Quinlin's juggling the ball, while Dolan went to third. Martin stole second and Schipke's single to Fleming, which the latter pawed around for a time, scored Dolan and Martin, mak-

The Champions scored again in the sixth after Quick and Thiel had been put out. Carter doubled and came home on Welch's Quick was hit hard in the first part of the game, but after the fourth inning he settled down and St. Joe did not get a Attendance, 1.300. Score: single, his second hit of the game, adoption and the Teuton, with Captain the game, but after the fourth inning he hit. The only man who got beyond first > reached first on an error of Schipke, and went to second on a wild pitch. The same teams will do battle again this afternoon at Vinton street park and Percy says he will strive to wrest the horseshoe from Pa during the night.

Government Moves for Rehearing of Case Involving Philippine Tariff Order.

LARGE AMOUNT OF MONEY IS INVOLVED

Attorney General Fears Raid

as follows:

The reason for the importance to the government of the ground on which this case is to be decided. If it must be decided in fayor of the complainants, is that there are doubtless claims amounting to more than $1,000,000, on which suit was not brought before July 1, 1902, the date of the ratifying act, but on it suits have been and will be brought in view of the decision of the court. For these reasons we think it of the utmost importance to the government that an opportunity should be given for a re-argument, in which the question of construction and ratification may be given a much fuller consideration, in view of all the history of this legislation than, as it is respectfully submitted, it has heretofore had.

Reservoir Filling Up.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 17 .- (Special.)-As a result of the recent heavy rains, the water in the Granite Springs reservoir is now seventy-six feet deep. It was estimated that it would require at least two years to fill the gigantic reservoir, but as the dam is only ninety feet high, it is thought that it will be filled before the summer is over, thus insuring an unlimited supply of pure mountain water for Chey enne for the next decade.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—A petition of the government for a rehearing of the cases of the United States against Peabedy & Co. and the United States today. The petition was presented by Solicitor General Hoyt and was supported in a brief by Attorney General Moody.

The case was decided a few weeks ago adversely to the contentions of the United States today. The petition was presented by Solicitor General Hoyt and was supported in a brief by Attorney General Moody.

The case was decided a few weeks ago adversely to the contentions of the United States and the decision was accepted by the government as calculated to impose no inconsiderable burden on the treasury. The attorney general concludes his statement as follows:

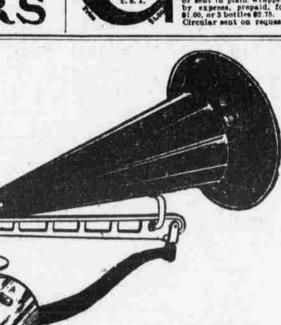

The reason for the importance to the government of the ground on which this case is to be decided. If it must be decided in fayor of the complainants, is that there are doubless claims amounting to brought before July 1, 1902, the date of the ratifying act, but on it sults have been and will be brought in view of the decision of the court. For these reasons we think it of the purportance to the government that an opportunity should be given for a re-argument, in which the question of construction and ratification may be given a much fuller consideration, in view of all the history of this legislation than.
