Delegates to Baptist Convention Pay

Preliminary Meetings of Women and Board of Managers is Held Before the Regular Convention,

ST. LOUIS, May 15.-A number of delegates to the general Baptist convention met by appointment at an early hour to day and went to Bellefontains cemeter to see the grave of John M. Peck, who came as the first Baptist missionary to St. Louis in 1817. A brief service was held at the grave.

Today the ninety-first annual meeting o the American Baptist Missionary union began. Preliminary meetings of the Woman's Foreign Missionary societies and of the board of managers were held. The convention was then opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. T. M. Johnston of St. Louis, President William A. Munroe of Massachusetts presided and delivered his annual address. The annual report of the missionary nion was presented by Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Barbour, foreign secretary. He said the total offerings from the different northern Baptist churches exceeded the offerings o Last month Uncle Bill was a full 80 any previous year by $25,000. He spoke of

Dr. John Shaw of Chicago reviewed th work of the evangelistic committee in the ast four years. Moderator Moffatt announced the appointment of Justice John Harlan of the United States supreme court, as vice moderator.

A number of reports of special committees were then received.

The committee of marriage and divorce urged that the rule that ministers refuse perform marriage ceremonies between divorced people unless the causes for the divorce are scriptural be continued. .

The committee on Sabbath observance urged that all forms of sports and railroad excursion be abolished on the Sabbath and the Presbyterians refuse to subscribe for Sunday newspapers. The committee on Christian work among seamen, asked that more chaplains be secured for the navy. The committee on church co-operation and union submitted a plan for uniting with the reformed Presbyterian church.

Work of Cumberland Presbyterians. FRESNO, Cal. May 19.-The Presbyterian general assembly began today by electing a moderator's council of one representative from each synod to assist the moderator in appointing committees.

The Item presenting the returns of the vote on union was referred to a special committee composed of Dr. Templeton, Rev. T. A. Wiggenton, Rev. J. J. Mc Ciellan, John Beard and Judge Young. The committee was instructed to canvass the votes and present a full report at noon to-

Conference Over Union. FORT WORTH, Tex., May 19 -Dr. J. E. Plunkett of Augusta, Ga., the newly elected moderator, was in the chair when the second day's session of the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church was called to order today. The first order of business was the continuation of reports of committees. Among the reports submitted was that of the executive ommittee of ministerial education and relief. Several standing committees were appointed by the moderator.

It is understood that consideration o the question of church federation will begin tomorrow. This question appears to be paramount and many members of the assembly believe it will carry, although a lively opposition is sure to develop,

Just before adjournment the report of and Presbyterian churches was read. It recommended the appointment of a committee to confer with similar com mittees from other churches as to what would be hest to do in the premises. Dr. G. R. Strickler of Richmond, Va.

offered a motion, which prevailed, that the report of the committee be referred to a mmittee of thirteen, to be designated by Moderator Plunkett. This committee is empowered to report back to the assembly its recommendation on the question

The merchant who says we charge for giving credit assumes that the people DO NOT THINK. He doesn't stop to think that there is nothing on earth to prevent them from going through all the stores and comparing prices with ours. This one fact all by itself proves conclusively that if we did exact a tribute for our credit accommodation, it wouldn't be any accommodation at all, and hence would be a flat failure.

It is true that very few stores can give cerdit as we do. By purchasing our merchandise in large bulk we are easily enabled to underbuy and undersell.
