

ALGOES ARE BOTH ARRESTED

Pair of Michigan Blackmailers Taken on a New Charge.

MORE NEWS IS RECEIVED FROM HOME

Chief of Police in Jackson Says Woman is Brain of Pair that Ought to Be Landed.

JACKSON, Mich., May 23, 1905.—J. J. Donahue, Esq., Chief of Police, Omaha, Neb., Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your letter, also a copy of "The Omaha Bee" giving the account of the Algoe affair. Mrs. Algoe is the brains of the party, and she ought to be locked up with her husband. If it is necessary I think I can get witnesses to go to the state to show them up. As I said above, the woman is the brains of the party and ought to be included in the complaint and prosecuted to the full extent of the law. It will be a pleasure to consider your assistance in this matter. You have a pair there that ought to be landed. Yours truly, JOHN BOYLE, Chief of Police.

This is another one of those self-explanatory letters, like the one which the Algoe woman, through her official newspaper organ in Omaha, so grotesquely denounced as ungentlemanly. The letter was received at the office of Chief Donahue Monday morning. The office is in charge of Captain Mastyn, in the absence of the chief, who is in Washington attending to the duties of chief. When the woman and her official newspaper have successfully repudiated this missive, others may be thrust upon them of equal gentleness, but far more startling import, so far as the record of these persons as professional blackmailers is concerned. Through the columns of their official organ the proclamation, attributed to the female, was made in customary legal style, that she proposed to write to Chief Doyle and ascertain if he had really written those things to Chief Donahue, but that she would not be taken into the contents of any letter from Chief Doyle.

Man and Woman Arrested.
Morris B. Algoe and his consort were both arrested Monday morning and placed in a cell at the city jail. The charge was blackmailing Edward Rosewater out of $50. The woman was not arrested on the other charge as professional blackmailers are bound to pay for the privilege of being bound over to the district court and bailed out on a surety company bond obtained by his legal advisers.
The couple were arraigned before Police Judge Berka at 10 o'clock Monday afternoon and, upon advice of their attorney, Dunn, pleaded not guilty. Dunn wanted to go for their bond, but Judge Berka positively refused to accept him. County Attorney Blahaugh then asked that the bonds be fixed at least at $50 each and that the couple be held in custody until they can post their bonds, but Judge Berka fixed them at $50 each and the pair then went into a secret caucus with the man Dunn. At the conclusion of the conference the couple decided what plans he had laid for raising bonds. He brushed out of the city jail building and the prisoners were put back into their cells.

Found in Rooms at Hotel.
The bodies of the two men who were found in a hotel here Saturday night and Sunday morning by Detectives Hetfield and Donahue called with the new warrant sworn to by Chief of Detectives Dunn.
"They took their arrest philosophically," said Chief of Detectives Dunn. "They were not surprised at being taken to the police station and, upon advice of their attorney, Dunn, pleaded not guilty. Dunn wanted to go for their bond, but Judge Berka positively refused to accept him. County Attorney Blahaugh then asked that the bonds be fixed at least at $50 each and that the couple be held in custody until they can post their bonds, but Judge Berka fixed them at $50 each and the pair then went into a secret caucus with the man Dunn. At the conclusion of the conference the couple decided what plans he had laid for raising bonds. He brushed out of the city jail building and the prisoners were put back into their cells."

One of Their Old Tricks.
One telegram which came Monday morning says the pair blackmailed a man by the name of Ryerson at Jackson out of $400 and then that Algoe wrote out an assault and battery complaint against Ryerson. The female, this messenger says, went to the length of declaring this man had improper relations with her before and after her marriage to Algoe. The authority back of this and the other telegrams will hardly be beaten down by any reputation which man or woman of this character could make through the columns of the most ardent newspaper champion. The men who give out these statements are interested, not in punishing a political enemy, but in upholding the majesty of the law and securing that the ends of justice. Algoe also went under the name of Alger in Michigan.
Even more interesting information is contained in another telegram, which says as letters written by the Algoes to old "friends" in Michigan have been found, in which the Algoes tell of their nefarious conspiracy in Omaha, going into the details of the case.

Woman Worse Than Man.
In speaking of the arrest of Mrs. Algoe, Mr. Blahaugh said:
"I have been informed that the character of Mrs. Algoe in this blackmailing work is much worse than that of Algoe himself and I see no reason why she should not arrest her and make her face the same charge as that of the man."
In speaking of the bond proposition for the two under the present charge, County Attorney Blahaugh said that in all probability it would be impossible for them to secure the bonds under this charge, as it was likely that the surety company would refuse again to sign the necessary papers to release the pair.

Short of Speakers.
The Memorial service still shy about twenty speakers for the public schools for Monday afternoon, May 25, and the committee urgently asks that all veterans who have received postal request to address the schools reply to the committee as early as date as practicable. The time is passing for making assignments, and as the schools have to be ready for assignments it can at once be seen that it is imperative that the responses be returned to the committee at once.

BEST BUILDING LAW AS GUIDE

Burwood Theater Going Up on Basis of Ordinance in Force in Cleveland.

Building Inspector Withnell says: "The Burwood theater now being constructed on Harney street near Sixteenth by the Woodward & Burgess Amusement company marks a new epoch in the construction of theaters in this city.
"Ever since the fatal fire at the Chicago Chicago marked differences have been made in the building laws of various cities pertaining to such buildings as theaters, etc. However, no changes, except for the worse, have been made in the Omaha building laws, but the Burwood is being built in conformity with the laws governing such buildings as is being enforced in Cleveland, O. This code is acknowledged to be the best in force throughout the country, far surpassing the Omaha ordinances as regards the safety of the public, and this is particularly so in the management of the Burwood are intending to do."
"Mr. Burgess, the Omaha member of the firm, desires the public to come around and see the work as it progresses, so that it can see for itself the manner of the construction."

DEATH BEATS IN THE RACE

Fatal Summons Comes to Daughter While Mother is on Way from Omaha.

Mrs. Sarah McAshan of the county clerk's office at Topeka, Kan., where she was called Saturday by the dangerous illness of her daughter, Beth Marie McAshan. Mrs. McAshan arrived in Topeka too late to see her daughter alive, as she died while the mother was on the way to her bedside. Miss McAshan was 19 years old. She had been ill since the early part of last winter, and in March her mother took her to San Antonio, Tex. She improved to such an extent that she was later brought to the home of an uncle in Topeka. While there typhoid malaria developed and the patient could not shake it off. The body will be taken by Mrs. McAshan to Fort Madison, Ia., for burial. The family formerly lived at that place and Mr. McAshan is buried there.

An Attack of Croup Warded Off.
"Our little girl, two and one-half years old, woke up coughing with the croup one evening recently. We happened to have some of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on hand and gave her two doses of it. She went back to sleep and woke up next morning without a trace of cold. It is certainly a great medicine," says A. J. Luginbill, editor of Star, Villa Rica, Ga. An attack of croup can always be warded off by giving this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail. It contains no opium or other harmful drug and may be given to the smallest child with perfect confidence.

Announcements of the Theaters.
Mrs. Fluke and the Mannattay company arrive in Council Bluffs today and will appear at the New theater tonight; "Leah Kleschna," which they acted with tremendous success for five months at the Manhattan house in New York. There has been a very large sale for the engagement and the house promises to be crowded to-night, as it always is for Mrs. Fluke. Her position as the foremost American actress, which has been enhanced this season by her long and brilliant engagement in New York and the fact that she has the strongest play and most brilliant company of her career, makes her visit here the most important event of the local dramatic season despite the fact that it cannot be played in Omaha, no theater being open to Mrs. Fluke here.

No prettier or more wholesome domestic drama was ever written than "Hazel Kirke." It depends for its interest on the mistaken zeal of a well meaning, but hard-headed father and the misery that flows from his own misdirected efforts to secure blind and unquestioning obedience to his will. Its atmosphere is elevating and pure, and its story of domestic interest. The presentation of the play by the Fortis stock company at the Boyd is on a high plane of excellence. "Hazel Kirke" will be the bill until after Wednesday night, with the customary bargain matinee on Wednesday.

Important Notice.
Effective Sunday, May 14, the Rock Island system will inaugurate daily Pullman buffet sleeping car service between Omaha and Wichita and Caldwell, Kan. Returning, will leave Caldwell at 7:35 p. m., Wichita 10:25 p. m., arriving Omaha 11:40 the following morning.
This arrangement will give practically through standard sleeping car service between Omaha and Fort Worth, Tex., as letters written by the Algoes to old "friends" in Michigan have been found, in which the Algoes tell of their nefarious conspiracy in Omaha, going into the details of the case.

NEW GERM TILORY

Explains Cause of Much of the Sickness in Omaha.

The most recent theory of scientists is that the bodily health depends upon the natural action of the stomach. This explains why those who use Mi-o-na tablets are rarely ill. Taken before each meal, Mi-o-na strengthens the stomach so that disease germs are either neutralized or else driven from the system. You can set what you want and all you want without fear of indigestion; if you take a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal.

City Council Decides to Sell Bonds to Cleveland Bidders.

TRACKS TO MILL SITE WILL BE LAID

Judiciary Committee Reports in Favor of Ordinance and the Expected Protest Does Not Make Its Appearance.

When the city council met last night a communication was received from V. J. Hayes & Sons of Cleveland offering to take the city hall bonds and pay a premium of $80,000. Hoehler & Cummings, Toledo, had bid for the bonds, but they wanted $27 for the blank bonds. The council decided the Hayes offer the better and awarded the $50,000 bonds to Hayes & Sons. Under the stipulation made by the council the bonds must be taken and paid for within twenty days.
A special committee of the council reported that funds not to exceed $100,000 can be obtained from the balance in the fund balance and the fund to be derived from the 1905 yield and recommended that steps be taken at once to build a first department headquarters at Twenty-fifth and L streets. This report was adopted.
A petition largely signed by business men asking the council to take steps to condemn land for the laying of a viaduct on stock yards property west of the foot of N street was read and on motion of Queenan was placed on file.
The judiciary committee reported favorably on ordinance No. 1361, which the ordinance giving the Burlington the right to lay a track on the west side of Twenty-fifth street from A to the south side of D street. This ordinance formerly read D street, but was amended to read D street. In connection with this matter the Highland Park Improvement club members did not appear to remonstrate as had been reported they would.
No action was taken in regard to the paving or repaving of Twenty-fourth street. The matter will be brought up next week.
City Engineer Lead handed in an estimate of the cost of grading Sixteenth street from Missouri avenue to I street and the laying of a sewer. The estimate for grading and sewer is $1625. Bids for this work will be advertised soon.
An ordinance establishing a grading district on K street from Twenty-sixth to Twenty-seventh streets was read the first time and referred to a new house moving ordinance, fashioned after the Omaha ordinance. An ordinance was introduced establishing the grade on Twenty-second street from S to Y street. Julius Rothholz was read the first time and referred to a new house moving ordinance, fashioned after the Omaha ordinance. THE SIDE THAT IS NOT CONSIDERED.

The larger portion of the business life of insurance in America is transacted by three companies, The Mutual Life, the New York Life and The Equitable Life Assurance Society. Here is the result of their stewardship from the date of their commencing business up to January 1, 1905, taken from the official reports of these institutions and verified by the state departments to which the reports are sent.
Total paid policyholders by the three companies.....$1,297,394,299
Held for future payments.....1,250,978,921
Total benefit to policyholders.....$2,548,373,220
The policyholders have paid.....2,735,225,378
Accumulated for the benefit of policyholders, over and above the money received from them 123,639,622
It will be seen by the above figures that the contract for life insurance is not the policyholders, or hold in trust for them, every dollar that the insured have paid in premiums, and $123,639,622 in addition which they have accumulated for the benefit of the policyholders. No other business in the United States has so large an accumulation of money as this.

Health Board May Act.
The South Omaha Board of Health is preparing to take some steps in regard to J. J. Morehead, Twenty-third and M streets, for concealing the fact that smallpox existed at his home. Morehead told the neighbors that his children had the mumps. Suspicion was aroused and City Physician Koutsky was notified. Dr. Koutsky called at the Morehead house on Sunday and reported immediately to the health board. Three cases of smallpox existed and gave instructions for placarding the house at once. During the interim between the departure of Dr. Koutsky and the arrival of Inspector Jones Morehead left his home and called at a number of business places. He was taken in charge by Detective Ellfelder and after being detained for a short time was ordered to go home and remain until the quarantine was lifted. The city officials say that when the quarantine is raised Morehead will be prosecuted under the health law.

Interest Money Due.
City Treasurer Howe has written a letter to the mayor and council showing that on June 1 there will be due at the State Fiscal agency in New York City the sum of $7,227. The treasurer asks that the city clerk be instructed to draw a warrant on the interest fund for this amount. There is money in the interest fund to meet this payment and the money will be forwarded so as to reach the fiscal agency by the time the interest coupons are due.
Talks About Live Stock.
A. D. Randall was at the stock yards Monday with a carload of lambs from Osceola. Mr. Randall told dealers in live stock at the exchange that but few more bunches of sheep and lambs would be shipped just now. The flocks that are still in feed lots near Osceola will be marketed within the next few weeks. "As for hogs," said Mr. Randall, "the young crop will be a little heavier than usual this spring and so far the farmers are having very good luck with their pigs. Wheat and oats are in

CONDUCTORS ON WAY HOME

Delegates Who Attended Convention in West Enthusiastic Over the Portland Fair.

The special train bearing the delegates to the convention of the Order of Railway Conductors and their wives passed through Omaha over the Union Pacific and left for the Northwest for the convention at Boise, Idaho, and were given the freedom of the town, and also of the big natatorium, which is supplied by three artesian wells, flowing about 1,000,000 gallons per day. The hot water from these wells also is used for heating and domestic purposes, connected through five miles of pipe laid four feet underground. The Portland exposition is all completed and only awaits the coming of Vice President Fairbanks, who, as the personal representative of President Roosevelt, will make the principal address at the opening exercises of the Lewis and Clark exposition Thursday morning, June 1. President Roosevelt himself will participate in the opening by pressing a golden key at Washington, which will set in motion the wheels of the machinery, electricity and transportation building, and start the chimneys in one of the twin towers of the government building, which will peer forth the mellow strains of "America" as a signal to the world that the western fair has opened its doors.
"The fair has been ready for nearly two weeks and not a detail will remain unfinished when the president presses the button next Thursday. The preparedness of the exposition is characteristic of western work, which dominated the movement to hold this great exposition."
"Nearly all of the old officers of the order were re-elected and E. E. Clark is still at the head of the organization. The order never was in a more prosperous condition, and although the meeting was held at one extreme of the continent, it was well attended."
"We noted as we came along the route used by Lewis and Clark on their famous trip to the northwest, and which the exposition is commemorating, many historic spots. History tells us that these explorers used the route of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company on their trip and points of interest mentioned by these explorers were pointed out by the railroad men as we journeyed along this old overland trail."

BILL AGAINST TOM MURRAY

Old Claim for Washing and Ironing Submitted by Woman Down in Florida.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, who says she is the widow of W. T. Smith, writes to the county court from Jacksonville, Fla., that she has a claim against the late Thomas Murray for "four years' cooking and washing."
Mrs. Smith evidently cherishes the notion that Mr. Murray died in the fullness of prosperity instead of being without any available assets. She sets forth that when she worked for Mr. Murray was "before the new job was built and when Mr. Murray was living in what was then called the White House, on Harney between Seventeenth and Eighteenth."
Mrs. Smith asks for an immediate reply, as she seems after many years to have awakened to the possibilities of her claim. She does not give the amount claimed.
