EDDIE QUICK HERO OF THE STRIFE

Clever Pitching, with Some Timely Batting and Correct Base Running Ends in Defeat for the Carney ites.

Eddle Quick won his third game on the home grounds before a crowd of about 1,500 people at Pa's lot Monday, although it looked for a time as if the old idea of a hoodoo being connected with ladies day was going to prevail. The game was of the kind that makes the blood run warm, for it was filled with exciting incidents. The Sloux were down and out one-twothree in the first inning, and it looked as if Omaha was going to set the pace from the start. Thiel walked and went to second on a wild pitch, but was obliged to Hickman, p. 1 1 1 0 c Clark, p. stay there on Carter's bunt. Welch sacrificed them each on a base, but Dolan struck out and Thomas popped an easy fly

Carter's territory. The little sleuth grabbed

Schaub made in the second inning for the Sloux. It popped right in the air over

Sioux. It popped right in the air over the pitcher's head and no one touched it until two had scored. Thiel stole third and was caught leading off too far.

After the third the Sioux were at the mercy of Quick, although they made two singles in the fifth inning, but a neat double play saved any further scoring.

Show (The leave of the leaf of the Sioux City led until the last half of the fifth, when the fireworks went up, and when the smoke had cleared away Omaha had scored four, Mr. Schaub was sent to the stable and Kostal called in to finish the game. Thiel walked and Carter did likewise. Weich bunted toward first and Starnagle threw wild to catch him. Thiel and Carter came home on the error. Dolan went out from Starnagle to Weed, who had covered first, and Thomas drove the ball to Sheean and Thiel was caught at the plate. Thomas stole second and went to third on a passed ball. Martin walked, and he and Thomas worked the double steal, Thomas scoring and Martin going to second. Schipke's double scored Martin, and Omaha had made four tallies on one hit, three bases on balls, an error and three

Finishing the Job.

The Champions made one more in the seventh. After Welch went out to right, Dolan singled and stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and came home on the return of the ball from Thomas' fly to left field. In the eighth Schipke struck to second on Quick's out from Weed to Starnagle and scored on Thiel's single. The Voice with its one cry of "Can't put It over" has returned to town and was very much in evidence at the game Monday

Denver Wins Paor Game.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 22.—Lack of effective hitting and reverse ability to bunch their assortment, assisted by the wildness of St. Joseph's pitchers, lost today's game to Denver by a score of 7 to 6. The exhibition was no credit to either team and was marked by dumb work and disgusting bungles. Clark for St. Joseph throughout three innings was decidedly wild, passing five men and letting in two runs. Stoup throughout the balance of the session was an easy mark and was effectively batted. Hickman was but hitle better, but until the seconth kept the hits well scattered. Hickman let three locals on for hits in this inning, tleing the score. A pass to McHale and two base hits to center by Belden and Randall in the eighth put Denver two to the good. Perrine's bungle of Lucia's throw in the ninth was responsible for St. Joseph's sixth run.
