

CIRCUIS CELEBRITIES.

Foreign Artists Predominate in the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Shows.

It is unqualifiedly claimed that never before have so many of the greatest riders in the world been brought together for a single performance as in the program of "The Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Shows, Combined Shows." This season, the most expert artists from the four corners of the earth have been successfully induced to unite in the enormous bill of these supreme shows. The three rings of the huge circus are filled with equestrian acts of novelty, peril and exclusiveness from the time the scenic program begins until the ending, two hours later. All the nerve-quickening deeds of familiar circus history are re-enacted with superior grace and deftness, and much more of dexterous bounding, picturesque posing, thrilling tumbling and subtle daring are rendered with astounding ease and precision. These renowned riders appear to upset all natural laws and are proclaimed to have reached the limit of human possibility. There are whole companies in some acts, while other startling features are evolved by groups or individuals. It is a common sight to see four superb riders moving as a unit, jumping from the ground as one person and landing on the back of a galloping horse at the same instant. Saddle riders in beautiful menage numbers, daring horsemen of the plains, ruthless cavalrymen, savage warriors, reckless hunters, proud millionaires, fashionable equestrians, madly riding jockeys, savage duellists and other equestrians of imposing ability and historic fame are to be seen in the hurried movement of the tremendous program. Foremost among these masterful equestrians may be mentioned the seven O'Briens, who appear in America for the first time; Oscar Lowande, conceded in professional circles to be the greatest rider in the world; then there are such splendid performers as Harry Lamkin, Marline Lowande, Mrs. Correa and Miss Mamie Kline. There are too many to mention in a brief newspaper notice. There are 200 performers in all and fully one-half of these are equestrians of world-wide fame.

The wonderful Forepaugh and Sells Brothers shows exhibit here June 12 and give two performances, the afternoon at 2 o'clock and the evening at 8 o'clock. Admission tickets and reserved chair seats for the exhibitions of the great Forepaugh and Sells Brothers shows in this city will be sold circus day at the town and country. Forepaugh and Sells Brothers for exactly the same prices charged in the wagon on the show grounds.

OMAHA, Neb., May 27, 1905.—Mr. Lucius Fryer, Manager Shows, Dept.: Dear Sir—My attention having been called to your new sacred song, "Hosanna," by Mr. Van Alstyne, and having used the selection with great success in my own singing, I most thoroughly endorse this most beautiful composition, and have placed it among my repertoire and shall advise its use by my pupils and musical friends. Yours sincerely, EDWARD NORMAN KENT.

The above letter was received from Mr. Edward Norman Kent, the well known tenor and operatic director.

Interest Rates Come Down.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Conservative Savings and Loan Ass'n last Tuesday, the rate of interest charged by said association on loans was ordered reduced July 1 next to 6 cents per month for $100 per loan. This is a reduction of 6-10 of 1 per cent per annum and will be appreciated by the borrowers of the association, since it affects all loans now on the books as well as those hereafter made. It is not expected that this will make any reduction in the rate of dividend paid by this association.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends and George Crook post, G. A. R., for their sympathy and kindness during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Michael M. Kilgore, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
