

Telephone 684.

Monday Morning Our Semi-Annual Sale of New Tailor-Made Suits at Half Price

Every lady knows when Thompson, Belden & Co. advertise a sale it means just what we say. When we state that our suits will be sold at half price it means half price.

Read the Reductions All our beautiful Tailored Suits, always sold at $15.00—Monday's price $7.50.

Stylish Wash Materials The most important factor in Wash Goods is the style.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & CO. Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets

DEFENSE TAKING ITS TURN

State Rests Earlier Than Expected in the Dennison Case.

TWO OF ITS WITNESSES DISAPPOINTING

Dennison Puts on Two Witnesses and Introduces Affidavits to Controvert Sheriff's Story.

(Continued from First Page.)

Dennison's financial statement had been made public he went to Omaha for the Des Moines Capital to interview Dennison.

Every cent that was spent in behalf of Sheriff's defense was legitimate. I had a right to spend it, and there was nothing wrong about it.

The witness did not remember how much Dennison said he spent on his own money.

The witness said he had gone to Cedar Rapids and Des Moines for him.

Dennison told him that after the parole he had tried to get the republican "organization" led by Insurance Commissioner Israel W. Durham.

The witness admitted that he had gone to the World-Herald office after going to Dennison's house and had discussed the case there.

Defense Commences. Mrs. Eva Swartz of Lincoln, formerly of Logan, was the first witness of the defense.

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

had committed the Pollock diamond robbery. I remarked to him that I thought the name of Tom Dennison had been connected with that robbery at the time.

He told me that Dennison had nothing to do with the robbery, and that he, Sheriff, had taken the diamonds into Omaha and left them with a saloon keeper who disposed of them a few days later.

He said that he was going back to Iowa to implicate Tom Dennison in the Pollock robbery, and that he expected to soon be out of the penitentiary.

He replied, "Well Dennison is a gambler and got his money skinning people, and I am going to skin him once just for luck."

Letter in Produced. The witness then explained that he had seen a notice in a newspaper that Dennison was to be tried for being implicated in the robbery and that then he wrote to Mr. Dennison and told him that he had talked with Sheriff and could tell some facts to the jury that would be to his interest.

The witness was asked if he had not told Dennison that the affair was a "game of politics," and he admitted that he had made such a statement.

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

It was on December 20, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, that Sheriff's wife bought some cigars and said something about my diamond ring.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

Who introduced you to him? The proprietor of the restaurant in which I was caught was the answer.

That is a fine diamond, he said. "I am a good judge of diamonds."

That he came home on the same train with Dennison and that Dennison spent money freely, and frequently he saw he had a large roll. He did not know how much Dennison had but he said he was one of the "billions" ones coming home from the flight.

The deposition of Charles W. Mullen bore on the bond which was given for Sheriff when under arrest there and which Sheriff said cost Dennison $700. He swore that a man named Burns told him that Sheriff was a brother to Dennison and that he went to the jail to see him.

The witness swore that he had never received a telegram from him. On cross-examination, as shown by the deposition, he said he may have said that Dennison sent him money, when talking to a Pinkerton detective to explain why he got his "foot in the case," but if he did make such a statement it was false.

A deposition was then read from H. W. Fletcher of Georgetown, Wash. The question was asked: "Were you solicited for money to help pay the expense of Sheriff's trial and to secure him a parole?"

The answer was "yes." "Who did you pay it to?" "Before the answer could be read the prosecution objected."

"Your honor," exclaimed Connell, "we will prove by a competent witness who he paid it to. We will prove it by a witness in the flesh and we will prove it beyond a doubt."

The answer was then read: "I paid $50 to Hooker or Murphy, I don't know which, I paid it in August or September, 1892."

Fletcher was a fare dealer and had worked for Dennison, he said, for about two months on one occasion.

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 27.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church completed its 11th annual session today and adjourned. Routine matters, such as the reports of the committees on narrative and judicial affairs, occupied the closing session. Many of the commissioners have already left for their homes. About 300 commissioners will remain here over Sunday, as they do not desire to be traveling on the Sabbath.

As there will be a very large amount of committee work during the next year, arrangements were made today for the several meetings. There are twenty special committees in addition to the standing committees and some of these have a membership of over twenty.

MODERATOR MOTTATT today named additional members of the committee on Canadian union. Most of the new members are lawyers. They include Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, May 27.—Governor General Makovitch during the night issued a proclamation directing the troops to restore order and to use their arms without hesitation to this end, and giving notice that all persons arrested in connection with disturbances will be tried by court-martial.

Strong patrols of cavalry and infantry are parading the city and all the public buildings are guarded by troops. The socialists have issued a manifesto stigmatizing as traitors the national democrats, who urge the workmen to return work, declaring the socialist's intention to continue fighting the government regardless of the consequences.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

ORDER MUST BE RESTORED

Governor General of Warsaw Issues Orders to Troops to Use Arms.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, May 27.—Governor General Makovitch during the night issued a proclamation directing the troops to restore order and to use their arms without hesitation to this end, and giving notice that all persons arrested in connection with disturbances will be tried by court-martial.

Strong patrols of cavalry and infantry are parading the city and all the public buildings are guarded by troops. The socialists have issued a manifesto stigmatizing as traitors the national democrats, who urge the workmen to return work, declaring the socialist's intention to continue fighting the government regardless of the consequences.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

ACTIVITIES ON AT SCHWERIN

Balls, Dinners and Receptions Precede Wedding of Future Queen.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for hours every day. Recently the duchess has also been obliged to give daily sittings to a portrait painter.

LOVING CUP FOR THOMAS. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 27.—The American grand corps duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany, May 27.—The series of balls, dinners and receptions which precedes the wedding of Crown Prince Frederick William to the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin began today. The crown prince arrived here last night and was received at the railroad station by the Duchess Cecilia, her brother Grand Duke Frederick and other members of her family.

During the next three days the young duchess will rest, as the preparations for the wedding have been most fatiguing. About 100 costumes have been fitted and refitted on her during the last six weeks, which has meant standing for