City's Chief Executive is Showered with Good Words from Old Friends.

DECLINES TO SAY HE IS OUT OF POLITICS

Declares People of Arizona Assured

Him of Their High Esteem for Judge Ben

Mayor Moores went to his office at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Five minutes later a citizen came in and shook his hand, told him he was looking well and said he was glad to see the chief magistrate back from Arizona. This citizen was the first of a long line that ran through the office at the city hall all day. Frequently the office was as full of men as it would hold. The mayor would try to tell them incidents of his visit or something of the condition of affairs at the Dennison trial at Red Oak, but before he uttered more than a few sentences, fresh arrivals would break in and insist upon greetings. It seemed that every office holder in the city and every politician, except those most bitterly opposed to the administration, presented him The mayor positively declined to announce himself out of politics. He did not go into details in the matter, but close for a fourth term for the mayoralty or as a candidate for any other office, is unsettled. The mayor is between two influences, one of which declares that the voters of Omaha want to elect him to the office again by a larger majority than ever before, and the other which fears that one more strenuous campaign will anish the work that pneumonia and bronchial troubles started two years ago.

Glad to Get Home. "I am very, very glad to get home," said the mayor to his friends. "You can't imegine how lonesome I was at Phoenix. I am feeling just about 100 per cent better than when I went away." The funny stories that he told and the

At Albuquerque Mayor Moores says that from thirty to forty of the best citizens of the place came to him and testified as to the esteem in which Judge Ben S. Baker was held. According to the mayor, Judge Baker left New Mexico under anything but a cloud, having been unfortunate only as the victim of factional politics.

GOOD BLOOD TELLS ITS OWN STORY

And tells it eloquently in the bright eye, the supple, elastic movement, the smooth, soft skin, glowing with health, a body sound and well, an active brain, good appetite and digestion, refreshing sleep, energy to perform the duties and capacity to enjoy the pleasures of life. The blood is the most vital part of the body; every organ, muscle, tissue, nerve, sinew and bone is dependent on it for nourishment and strength, and as it circulates through the system, pure and strong, it furnishes to these different parts all the healthful qualities nature When, from any cause, the blood becomes impure or diseased, it tells a different story, quite as forceful in its way. Itching, burning skin diseases, muddy, sallow complexions, disfiguring sores, boils, carbuncles, etc., show the presence, in the blood, of some foreign matter or poison. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Contagious Blood Poison and Scrofula, are effects of a deeply poisoned blood circulation. These may either be inherited or acquired, but the seat of trouble is the same-the blood. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cleanses and purifies the circulation and makes it strong and clean. Under its purifying and tonic effects all poisons and impurities are expelled from the blood, the general health is built up, all disfiguring eruptions and blemishes disappear, the skin becomes soft and smooth and robust health blesses life. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all diseases of the blood are cured by S. S. S. Book on the blood and any medicas advice, free of charge.
