

PFIESTER HAS THE GOODS

Strikes Out Eleven of the Men Burns Has Hired to Play Ball.

SHOWS HIS NERVE IN NINTH INNING

With Two on Bases and Springs Heavy After the Big Southpaw Pans Him for the Third Out.

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 3.—With Jack Pfeister in the box against the Millionaires today the local crowd did nothing less than lose, though they gave the Champions a close run for the game. Score: Omaha, 3; Colorado Springs, 2.

Pfeister decided to send in Pfeister to do the twirling and the big Southpaw still has those Millionaires wondering. He struck out ten men, which is not many for him. The home team had an excellent chance to win the game in the ninth inning, but at this interesting stage the hard-hearted Mr. Pfeister smoked up and whiffed Pennell, the head of the Millionaires' batting line.

With two out in the ninth inning Pfeister hit Pennell and was not on his feet. The ball for a half dozen times, but finally held it. Mott next brought forth applause by the running one-handed catch of Schipke's low liner to left. The hit was labeled for three bases, but Mott caught it while going at full speed. The score: Attendance, 300.

Des Moines Takes a Pair.
DENVER, Colo., June 3.—Des Moines took a double header from Denver today, winning the first game by the score of 2 to 1. The first game was won in the fifth inning, with one out. Randall allowed Wakefield to reach second on his single. Morrison fanned, but Gantley hit, scoring Wakefield. He stole and scored on Hogreiver's three-bagger down the left field line. Long's single scored Hogreiver and Long stole second on a poor throw. Hogreiver scored a moment later on Perrine's error off Rossmann. Des Moines scored three runs in the seventh. Hogreiver hit, went to third on Long's single and scored on Bisher's inaccurate throw to catch Long at second. Long came in ahead of Rossmann's homer. The eighth run came in the ninth. Hogreiver hit, went to third on Long's single and scored on Long's fourth single.

Denver started the game with two runs in the first. McHale beat out an infield bunt and made the circuit on Belden's homer. They then came in the eighth on Hartzell's home run.

The hitting of Hogreiver and Long and the magnificent defense of Gantley were the features of the first game.

In the second contest it was a pitcher's battle between Engel and Gantley in which the honors were even. Both were in superb form and neither was able to get a run until the ninth. In the first half, with two out, Hoelcketter dropped a hard drive from Hogreiver's bat. Engel, who had replaced Long at short, waited out and got a pass. In trying to pitch high to Rossmann, Engel hit the ball where Engel misjudged it and Hogreiver scored on the passed ball. Pike came in a moment later on Rossmann's hit to left.

With two out in the last half, Pike fumbled. Hoelcketter's drive, Everett's throw in favor of McGilvray (Hayes). The substitute pounded the ball to left field for a clean three-bagger, scoring Hoelcketter and was barely thrown out on a close decision at the plate, in a desperate attempt to tie the score. Stanley covered across of territory in this game, cutting off three hits. Attendance, 1,500.
