TIME OF NEXT CONVENTION

Date of Implement Men's Meeting to Be Fixed by Officers Who Are Here.

The officers of the Nebraska and Western Iowa Retail Implement and Vehicle Dealers' association yesterday were in the city, with headquarters at the Merchants hotel, for the purpose of designating the time and place for the next annual convention of the association. November 14-15 was selected as the date and the place was left to the board of directors. The officers and members of the executive committee and board of directors constitute the authority for arranging for the next convention and comprise the following: President, R. C. Cault, Allen, Neb.; vice president, F. D. Stearns, Logan, Ia.; secretary-treasurer, Ed L. Culver, South Omaha; executive committee, A. G. Powers of Wayne, E. F. Morris of Hartington, J. M. Eiwel of Springfield; board of directors, A. G. Powers, Charles Wagner, I. M. Eiwel, E. F. Morris, E. L. Culver, L. F. Byars, J. W. Newell, Nebraska; B. H.

O'BRIEN BRINGS YOUNG FISH

Game Commissioner Plants Fifty Thousand Fry at Cut Off Lake and Yearlings.

W. J. O'Brien, game and fish commissioner for Nebraska, brought a carload of fish to Omaha Tuesday and planted them in Cut Off lake. The lot contained about 500 yearlings and 50,000 fry about three weeks old.

"Since the people of Omaha have awakened to the advantages which they have in Cut Off lake," said Mr. O'Brien, "and since they are showing such an interest by the formation of the Omaha Rod and Gun club, which according to the present plans will furnish protection to fish which may be planted in the lake, we will see that there are plenty of fish put in every spring and fall. These larger fish which we are planting today will be from six to eight inches long in year and at two years old will weigh a pound. There is a bigger demand for black bass than for any other fish for black bass, but I think that Cut Off lake is especially adapted for young bass and bass of all kinds, and I have made an special effort to put in a good supply this spring. We planted some bass in the lake last fall and fishermen tell me that the young bass are thick there at the present time, as they follow a frog to the bank in droves and can be plainly seen. There have been several large catches this spring, showing that bass will thrive in the water. The street railway company kindly consented to furnish us with a car to take the fish from the depot to the lake. I think a larger per cent of these fry will mature in the lake than in the hatchery pond because of the better food at the lake. About 80 per cent of these fish will mature. The markings on these three-week-old bass are perfect and they are about the only fish whose markings are perfect at this age. Under the old law fish were supplied to private ponds by the state free of charge, but under the present law they must be paid for. "Six-month-old black bass cost $30 per thousand and crappies cost $20 per thousand."

COMMERCIAL CLUB DIPS IN

Its Executive Committee Officially Endorses Work of Civic Federation in Denison Case.

The executive committee of the Commercial club adopted the resolutions below at a meeting Tuesday afternoon. Secretary McVann, who gave out the resolutions for publication, declined to give the name of the originator, simply saying, "Say it by the executive committee." The executive committee consists of twenty-five members, but about seventeen members were present and the action was by no means unanimous. The resolutions read: Whereas, In the recent trial of one Tom Denison, at Red Oak, Ia., a number of public officials of this city and of the county gave testimony under oath that the general reputation of said defendant in this community for honesty and integrity is good. It is well known that said Denison has been a gambler for twenty years and has pursued a life of crime and occupation which is essentially inherently dishonest, and Whereas, The declaration that a man pursuing such a calling and repeatedly arrested on charges of felony sustains a good reputation in this community for honesty and integrity fixes a standard of honesty and integrity in our city very much to its discredit and tends to bring our city into disrepute and injuriously affect our material welfare, therefore be it Resolved, That the Omaha Commercial club explicitly repudiates the suggestion that any such standard of morality obtains in this city as would accord a good reputation for honesty and integrity to a professional law breaker. Resolved, That public officials who consider a reputation for gambling and law breaking a good reputation in this community are woefully ignorant of the standard of integrity recognized by the people of this city, or deliberately choose to insult the law-abiding that they may gain the approval of the law-defying. Resolved, That those officials who are directly charged with the duty of enforcing the law who have neglected to perform that duty, and who have declared that law-breaking establishes a good reputation in this community, have added insult to injury, which their dereliction has already inflicted.

WORRY DRIVES COYLE AWAY

Reverses in Health and Business Impel Patrick Coyle to Leave South Omaha.

Patrick Coyle, for years superintendent of the sweet pickle department at Cudahy's, left South Omaha suddenly about ten days ago and it is presumed he has gone west. Financial losses and ill health are given as the causes of Mr. Coyle's sudden departure. One of Coyle's close friends stated Tuesday morning that last month Coyle lost about $2,000 on a cattle speculation. Debts in South Omaha amount to about $4,000. Coyle has property enough to more than pay all he owes. At the Cudahy plant where Coyle has been employed for so many years it is said he had been in ill health for about a year and this along with his financial losses worried him greatly. E. A. Cudahy is having every effort made to locate Coyle. Friday last Coyle was in Denver and left there after buying a ticket to the Pacific coast. It is thought it is Coyle's intention to go to Los Angeles. General Manager Murphy of the Cudahy company stated that Coyle's place would not be filled as Mr. Cudahy wanted him to come back. Before leaving Coyle drew on his bank account for $1,000 which amount he is supposed to have taken with him. Those who are well acquainted with Coyle assert that in all probability he will return to his home as soon as his health improves. Added to Coyle's own illness and worries Mrs. Coyle has been ill for about a month. Her condition is greatly improved although she is considerably worried about her husband. The Coyles live at Twenty-sixth and E streets.

benefit of the Creche. This announcement was made few days ago and the hustling for recruits already has begun, every afternoon seeing Mr. Chambers and Mr. Owens at work upon the drills and songs in which hundreds of Omaha's winsome young people are to take part. "Enchantment" has been produced by Mr. Owens before and has always proven what popularity terms a howling success. The enthusiasm evinced by the corps of recruits already mustered in by Mr. Owens seems to promise a performance in Omaha which will far surpass others in other cities. Miss Ethel Dovey of the famous Dovey sister of Flatmouth is to assume the leading role of Titiana.
