TWO HOME RUNS AND FIVE TWO-BAGGERS

Set Result of the Slaughter is Fifteen Russ, While Omnha is Only Able to Get Two Men Over the Plate.

DENVER. June & Twenty-two hits off Eddie Quick helped the Griszlies' tally fifteen runs and thirteen Denver runners were left on bases too exhausted to continue the circuit. Bohannon's weakness, due to illness, allowed Rourke's one-time champions to score two runs, one each in the first and second innings, but the scratch it secured of Engle in the remaining innings did not help their fortunes. Martin was put out of the game for calling Mace warm names because of a decision on a close play at second and McCloskey reclose play at second and alcolossey blaced him Gonding retired, disgusted, in the last of the sixth in favor of Freese, but Rourke refused to relieve Quick. Mace was certaite and many of his decisions were elately erroneous in the opinion of the plainly erroneous in the opinion of the Thiel scored in the first on his hit, Carter's sacrifice and McHale's error. Martin tallied in the second on his hit and successive errors by Hoelskoetter and Hartzell With three on bases Hoelskoetter's fast double to McGilvray prevented further scoring. Bohannon filled the bases in the successive bases on balls, but a fast double from McGilvray to Lucia shut

Denver started to score in the third and made three before stopping. McHale led off with a two-bagger and Hartzell's homer tied the score, with none out. Randall hit, was afivanced by Belden and Perrine and scored on Hoelskoetter's hit. Six came in the fourth. Hartzell and Belden walked, filling the sacks; Schipke's error scored, McHale and Perrine's twobagger cleared the bases, adding three more. Hoelskoetter's hit scored Perrine. McGilvray's hit and Lucia's single scored Hoelskoetter, making the total for the inning six and for the game nine. In the fourth Hartzell and Randall hit, were advanced by Belden, and Perrine walked. Hoelskoetter's fly to Henline tallied Hart-In the sixth Lucia hit, was advanced by Engle and scored on Hartzell's fourth hit. Belden opened the seventh with a homer, Hoelskoetter and McGflvray hit and both advanced while the ball was being thrown around. Hoelskoetter scored on a fielder's choice and McGilvray came in on Thiel's error. In the eighth Hartzell got his fifth hit and went the rounds on Carter's error, which let the ball roll to the fence. Perrine and Hoelskoetter fattened their batting averages with singles, but could not score. Score: DENVER. H. O. A. E

Peer Exhibition at Springs.

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 6.—Burns' weaklings presented another farce today, allowing Des Moines to win by a score of 18 to 1. It might just as well have been 25 to 1 if the visitors had not got tired running bases. At er the fourth inning the Underwriters quit trying. They didn't intend to get the other two runs, but they could not help it. The game was really infinitely worse than the score indicates. The official scorer was extremely lenient in letting the locals off with six errors. Attendance, 150. Score: Poor Exhibition at Springs.

Opened with Prayer. The exercises were opened with prayer. Miss Anna Johnson delivered an essay "Tennyson's Women" in the sign language, it being read simultaneously by Miss Humphreys. Miss Johnson, as well as Miss Maudie Roath, who had an essay and the valedictory, have been educated so they can speak, but it was thought best to let them sign their essays. Miss Agnes B. Kirpstrick gave an oral demonstration 348 B. Kirpstrick gar. 333 with a class of five-year pupils, portraying some of the ways in which the beginners are taught to utter words that they cannot hear.

In a tri-linguistic exercise Joe Morehouse recited a poem; Earl Haller gave it in the sign language and Miss C. Jensen spelled it with the fingers, all simultaneously. Miss Eva Raymond declaimed in the sign language, "The Raven," Mrs. Hendee reading at an ordinary pace. Even without speech Miss Redmond made her expression very dramatic, proving that the sign language has a peculiar grace and beauty of its own.

Miss Helen Northrup, a graduate, read an ssay on pretenders orally. She is quite deaf and came to the institution only a year ago from the Wayne High school. She learned to talk before being afflicted. "It is not strange to see apparently fine men and women convicted to the penitentiary," said Miss Northrup. "They are fine men and women only in the audacity of their pretensions. They are pretenders who have met their Coloden and their Waterloo, as the royal pretenders of old." The Lotus Enters

A pretty drill, called "The Lotus Eaters," was given by Anna Johnson, Eva Redmon and Lillian Rasmussen. Following this six little girls signed the song, "I Have My Eyes on You," Mrs. Hendee singing it. A very interesting exhibition of oral class work by fourth year pupils, who helped capture a gold medal at the St. Louis fair. was given under the direction of Miss Lillian Bamford, teacher, Harry Kellner enacted and Joe Morehouse recited orally a funny pantomime about a backwoods preacher and some hornets. The acting of Mr. Kellner carried even more humor than the words, it being in exaggerated sign language. Fifth grade floral class work was exemplified by a group of pupils under Miss Mary McNamar. Miss Maudie Roath, the valedictorian, then signed her essay, "The Light that Has Come to Us," Miss Regnler reading. The essayist traced the development

Bishop George Worthington delivered the ddress, his subject being, "Religion in Education." The exercises were very impressive, the pupils entering the church singing the school hymn as a processional. All were in white summer frocks, the raduates wearing white gowns and caps and the faculty the same uniform in black. An interesting feature of the morning with the class, which presented a fine appearance and received many flowers. The auditorium of the school was pleasantly decorated in the class colors, white and gold, and with the class flower, the daisy, Superintendent R. E. Stewart acted as master of ceremonies.

One of the most interesting features of the commencement was an industrial exhibition of what the 200 students of the school have been taught to create. The articles shown were mostly of carpenter work, plain and fancy needle work and embroidery, drawing, painting, various kinds of art expression and the first pair of shoes just finished. The guests in spected the exhibition after the program was finished and expressed much pleasure and surprise.

WITH THE BOWLERS.

Of the tournament teams bowling last night Weymuller and Rasmussen finished in the lead with 1,856. Snyder and Waber Just passed the 1,800 mark, Snyder's high game of 223 pulling them up. "Doc" Schneider and Jack Hughes must have thought they were playing tennis for they used the lightest balls they could find in the alleys. Tonight the teams are Butler and Grotte and Jones and Berger at 7:30; Denman and Potter and Brunke and Forscutt at 3.

DOCTORS FOR MEN

Above all other things we strive to save the thousands of young and toward the grave, tortured by the woes of Nervo-Sexual Debility, the re-sult of youthful habits, excesses, etc. have evolved a special treatment Nervo-Sexual Debility and special aknesses that is uniformly success-in cases where success was before other doctors deemed impossible.

It does not stimulate temporarily, bu restores permanently. It allays the irritation of the delicate tissues surrounding the lax and unduly expande seminal glands, contracting them to their normal condition, which stop night emissions, dries up day drain and proporties of the condition of the condi and prevents prematureness. It tones up and strengthens the blood vessels that carry nourishment to weakened and wasted parts, restoring them to full power, size and vigor.

By our system of electricity and medicine combined we cure quickly, safely and thoroughly all diseases and weaknesses of men after all others have failed. Our object is not so much to do the work that other doctors can do, but rather to cure obstinate diseases which they cannot successfully combat. All that deep knowledge, expert skill, vast experience and thorough scientific office equipment can accomplish are now being done for those who come to us for help they need. We Cure Quickly, Safely and Thoroughly:

Stricture, Varicocele, Emissions, Nervo-Sexual Debility, Impotency, Blood Poison (Syphlis), Rectal, Kidney and Urinary Diseases.
