DES MOINES, June 12.-The Champions won the game today in one fatal inning. the second. Morrison opened the game for the Underwriters and from the first it was evident that his wrist that was injured on the first trip west was still bothering but failed to score, being caught at third by Morrison, who stopped a ball off Henlne's bat. With one man out and two men on bases. Fisks let Gonding's hit go by him, and the rest of the story is merely a matter of five hits and six runs. Morrison was taken out of the box and Chappelle, the new twirler, made his initial Joseph : bow in Des Moines. He pitched a good Springs. game and allowed but one score after the second inning. After giving Martin his base in the fifth he also passed Schipke. Martin tried to steal third and Fiske did not cover his bag. A score resulted. Des Moines' second score came in the third on a two-base hit by Hogrelver and a single by Rossman, Attendance, 1,100. Score; OMAHA.

Companion Batted Out. COLORADO SPRINGS, June 12.—It took Sloux City only the first inning to trim the Millionaires today, a combination of hits and errors and two triples scoring five runs in as many minutes. Companion started in to pitch, but was taken out after the two three-baggers by Starnagie and Nobilt. Hester, the Colorado college man, was sent in and barring the second inning, in which the Indians bunched four hits, he kept the visitors from further scoring until the ninth. Liebhardt Wins a Game, DENVER, June 12.—Denver could not touch Liebhardt with men on bases, while Vollendorf was comparatively easy for St. Joseph. Consequently the Jobbers took the first game of the series by the score of 4 to 2. Ketchem, last season with Denver, convinced the local fans of his value by securing three singles and a double out of five times up. Andrews, with a three-bagger and a two-bagger, was a close second for batting honors.

The Corona Juniors, who have changed their name to Spauldings, won their tenth straight victory by defeating the Armor Stars and the Tribunes. In the first game with the Stars neither side had scored a run until the sixth inning, when a pass, a stolen base and a single netted the only run for the Stars. In the seventh the Spauldings got started and not only did they shut the Stars out for the rest of the game, but they also put poor Mr. English out of business by sending him to the bench and when it was over the Stars were three to the bad. By hard hitting in the last two the Spauldings added four more. The feature of the game was the pitching of Priest, who allowed but three hits and fanned eighteen men.
