A well known attorney in talking about this and other paving cases said last evening that it seemed as if it was impossible to secure any improvements in South Omaha without opposition. In many cases the city officials appear to take all necessary precautions and are very particular about the drafting and passage of ordinances. This program will be observed: going through all the forms as directed by the city attorney, and yet when the time comes to pay taxes or let contracts or sell bonds other attorneys find that some detail has been overlooked and that the special assessment levied will not hold in the courts.

The reason given is that the expense would be greatly in excess of the business done in South Omaha. COUNTY EQUALIZERS MEET Board Organizes to Fix Assessments with McDonald Chairman and Charles Youngers Messenger.

County Commissioner McDoaald was Tuesday morning elected as chairman of the Douglas County Board of Equalization. County Clerk Drexel will act as clerk of the board.

Peter Hofeldt offered the name of Thomas. Harrington to be messenger of the board. He explained that Mr. Harrington had lost the place last year on a tie vote with Charles Youngers and that he thought Harrington should have the position this year. Mr. Kennard moved to substitute the name of Youngers for Harrington. Mr. Bruning seconded and the amendment prevalled. It was made plain that there was no personal feeling against Harrington. He is a democrat and Youngers is a republican, as is the board, so it was considered only fair that he should be chosen On the vote to substitute Youngers, Messrs Hofeldt, Drexel and Reed voted no, but on the final vote all were recorded in the affirmative. Youngers will draw 25 cents for each notice served by him on order of the board. After organizing the board adjourned to 2 p. m. At the afternoon session owners of houses and lots to the number of half a dozen

He paid taxes amounting to $106,78 for the years 1896-6-7-8.

The property stood in the name of Harvey Link, an old settler, but others had some interest in it. When the time for redemption had almost expired Mr. Link and the others interested tendered to Mr. Seaman what they thought was fairly due him. This he refused to accept, on the ground that he was by law entitled to 20 per cent interest for two years and thereafter to 10 per ,ent and an attorney's fee. He was offered 12 per cent interest and his long acquaintance with Mr. Link was put forment.

"No, I cannot do that," said Mr. Sea-"This is a matter of business and if such a bad precedent," He insisted on the last farthing the law allowed, as Link and his friends allege. Mr. Seaman later conveyed his interest in the land to the Continental Trust company, and it is this company which is plaintiff in the action before Judge Sears, in an endeavor to foreclose on the land.

Not Short on Money. Preliminary to the trial of the case interested parties, lawyers and others were discussing it, and the statement was made that A. J. Seaman is known to have presented a $50,000 certified treasurer's check at a sale in Denver when he was buying some property sold for taxes. He rarely or never handles money in large amounts. He prefers and insists, when possible, that the cash be paid to the county treasurer when any one has a settlement to make with him. The treasurer thus becomes his banker, cashier and bookkeeper, and all his business is done with treasurers' checks. If asked where he can be found to discuss business, as he was in the present case. Mr. Seaman always names the Young Men's Christian association rooms, saying he never transacts business where, he sleeps. He has been known, say those who know him best, to walk from one county seat to another, probably to become acquainted with the lay of the land. He almost invariably walks to and from his sleeping quarters, out Benson way, except in bad weather, when the grip bothers him.

Atkinson Not in It.

Mr. Seaman takes considerable personal pride in having reduced the cost of living to a minimum. He asserts that Edward Atkinson has not even approached his figures in any estimate he has made. When questioned Mr. Seaman said:

"Yes, sir, I have reduced the cost of living to a science. Seven cents a day is my limit and I find myself in excellent health when I adhere to it. The local Degree of Honor lodges will give an entertainment and drill this evening at Workman temple.

A party of Henry J. Book's friends surprised him at his home, Twentieth and H streets, Monday evening.

He also prides himself on his economy in clothes buying. To his friends with whom he wil consent to talk he has said that $3 to $4 is the limit for wearing apparel as he appears on the streets. He onfesses to having made a mistake recently. "This pair of trousers," he said, "I bought for 75 cents, but another pair shown me at $1.25 would have been the cheapest in the end."

Mr. Seaman is not known to have any relatives in this section of the country and even his most intimate friends do not know just how much he is worth.

AFTER MONEY FOR BUILDING Y. M. C. A. Issues Booklet and Starts Campaign to Collect Funds for New Home.

Under the direction of General Secretary Wade the Young Men's Christian associa tion has just issued a neat little volume giving a prospectus of the new building by floors and presenting briefly a statement of the association's organization and growth in Omaha, together with notes and cuts on other association buildings and the work that others are doing. The booklet is got out with a view of aiding the movement for the collection of funds to apply on the cost of the new building.

After recounting the stages of progress and development from the organization of the association in 1868 Mr. Wade in his statement says:

Finally, in January, 1904, the directors Finally, in January, 1904, the directors voted unanimously to accept an offer of $700,000 for the building and site, possession to be given March 1, 1905, and to build elsewhere. The association, after paying a commission of $2,000 and the mortgage and other obligations against the property, amounting to $72,000, had the net sum of $150,000 on hand toward the new building fund. In April, 1904, a site at the northeast corner of Sixteenth and Howard streets was purchased for $115,000, $5,000 being contributed toward this sum by the owners, making the net cost to the association $110,000.

"Somebody is giving away government Such is the opinion expressed by local grain men Saturday afternoon on the recelpt of the government crop report for The ground for their remarks was the fact that a few days before crop ex perts of Chicago and Minneapolis had predicted what condition of winter wheat would be shown in the government report and had come within five-tenths of 1 per cent of the actual figures as published Saturday. SYNOD HURRIES ALONG ITS WORK One More Session Will Complete All the Business. AMES, Ia., June 13 .- (Special Telegram.) -The synod today took an unexpected turn in its business session, so much so that the business of the meeting will easily be finished up in tomorrow's session, which was hardly thought possible last evening. The matters pertaining to the various departments, especially to the missions, were brought to a speedy conclusion by quick action on each subject as presented. The business matters of the synod are now in such condition that the all-day business session tomorrow will easily finish the work. Tomerrow night will be converted into a farewell service. At the special mission meeting last night a collection amounting to over $500, was taken for the nospital at Rajahmundry, India. Tonight the confirmation alumni gave a reception on the church lawn. Music is furnished by a large chorus and the band.

Grinnell Library Dedicated. GRINNELL, In., June 13 .- (Special.)-The Carnegie library, built at a cost of $50,000. was dedicated today with appropriate cere mony. Andrew Carnegie denated half the cost of establishing the library.

FACTS not THEORIES TRUTH not FICTION.

The truth is what the American public wants in these days. The 'way of truth is also the way of health now that trying weather is here. We hear a tale of hard colds, bad coughs, "threatened with pneumonia" and almost bronchitis. Maybe it is talk of "spring" fever, backache, cold feet and perhaps the early symptoms of grip. Take the ounce of prevention that is worth the pound of cure that will carry you through the bad spring weather. "A safe and sane" tonic to use at this time is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Why? because it is an honest medicine ! Made from medicinal plants that put new blood in your veins, new vigor in the worn-out body, fresh strength in the muscles, heart and brain.

Fraud is a bubble that soon bursts. Truth is a foundation of rock that cannot be moved! In order to separate the false from the true-Dr. Pierce has decided to let the public know just what is contained in his "Golden Medical Discovery." This valuable tonlo and blood purifier has been sold in ever increasing quantities for nearly forty years-its success seemed phenominal to those not familiar with its ingredients but the secret is out now and you know why it is that Dr. Pierce found it so uniformly successful in treating chronic cases-those who were run-down whose blood was bad owing to imperfect digestion-perhaps the skin showing scrofulous tendency due to impure blood-and the heart and arteries left in a weakened condition. Dr. R. V. Pierce during an active practice found time to experiment and study the combining of the following native medicinal plants into an alterative-in which just the right proportions were scientifically combined to make the most effective remedy

2. STONE ROOT (Collinsonia Canadensis).

without the use of a particle of alcohol as follows:

GOLDEN SEAL (Hydrastis Canadensis).

QUEEN'S ROOT (Stillingia Sylvatica).

MANDRAKE (Podophyllum Peltatum).

6. CHERRYBARK (Prunus Virginiana).

One of the most scientific authorities in his Medical Dispensatory says of Bloodroot: "It stimulates the digestive organs, increases action of heart and arteries-valuable as a stimulant and tonic as well as a remedy for a cough." Of the following plants he farther says: "Stone root is an alterative, tonic and stimulant. Improves appetite, promotes flow of gastric juice and a good remedy in indigestion, dyspepsia, chronic gastritis and increases the secretion from the kidneys and skin. Mandrake is a gentle stimulant tonic, improves the appetite and is a certain but sure cathartic which leaves the bowels in an improved condition." While of Queen's root he says: "an alterative unsurpassed by few if any other of the known alteratives, most successful in skin and scrofulous affections, aids in blood-making and nutrition."
