Sovereign Clerk Yates Says Order Certainly Will Leave Nebraska If its Reserve Fund is Assessed.

"We have had solicitations—I cannot say tangible propositions—from St. Louis, Kansas City and Topeka," said Sovereign Clerk J. T. Yates of the Woodmen of the World regarding reports that these cities are contesting for the national headquarters of the order, now located in Omaha, but whose removal is threatened if the state authorities insist on the enforcement of the order to tax securities—that is, the reserve fund of fraternal and beneficiary orders.

The Topeka Capital dilates to the extent of two-thirds of a column upon the matter of that city securing the headquarters, and in the course of its perambulation quotes J. W. Kaiser, state deputy of the order in Kansas, as saying:

We do not want to leave Omaha or Nebraska; have no other reason for even considering the matter than that we cannot afford to pay taxes on our reserve fund. Our leaving is entirely contingent upon the final action of the state. I wish to say while on the subject, in reply to some competitors who have seized their opportunity, that the Woodmen of the World is not a tax-shirker and does not seek to evade the payment of taxes upon tangible property. We have always paid them without murmur or complaint, but what we object to solely is paying upon our reserve fund."

Letter From Topeka.

The Topeka paper said after Mr. Kaiser's talk the secretary of the Commercial club there was instructed to write to Sovereign Clerk Yates, inviting the order to go to Topeka. Mr. Yates received the letter Wednesday morning. In effect it said:

"We learn you are contemplating the removal of your headquarters because of excessive taxation. We want to say Kansas laws do not provide a tax on the property or reserve fund of fraternal orders. We think we can offer you better inducements than any other city and hope you will consider our claim."

"I shall answer the letter at once," said Mr. Yates, telling them we have not decided to move unless the state board's order is enforced. Personally I am for Omaha, first and last and would hate to see the
