WATER COMPANY'S

Answer Filed to Request of Board, Declaring it is Unauthorized.

SAYS EXPOSITION IS NOT NECESSARY Besides Company Claims that to Expose Its Records Would Be Unjust and Invasion of Rights.

The Omaha Water company find its answer Friday afternoon in . United States court remonstrating against the production of its books for the purpose of examination and inspection by the Water board and applied for by the Water board several days ago. The answer holds that the motion of the Water board for the production, examination and inspection of the books, records and papers of the complainant for the purpose of preparing a showing of the Water board upon the application for a temporary made after investigating the affairs of the injunction in this suit is unauthorized by any statute, rule in equity or rule in chancery practice or by any precedent the books to be examined or show what whatever in the procedure of the federal courts and is beyond the power of the court to grant.

"The books should show certain evidence pertinent to the issue herein and can therefore be produced after joining of issue," the answer states, "and only for the purpose of trial herein, and this cause malities of law, with the safeguards seprocess of law. The exposure of the books and papers of the complainant to the examination and inspection of the attorneys for the Water board and to its accountant would subject the private business and affairs of the complainant to investigation and exploration for any and all purposes of said Water board and its members and their attorneys and the general public and would be an invasion and violation of property rights of complainant, as well as a violation of the constitution of the United States." Holds it Unnecessary.

It is further held that it is unnecessary for the Water board to have the books of the water company, inasmuch as the Water board has decided in order to making the reduction of meter rates, to enjoin which this suit is brought, that said reduction was water company. It is further held that the Water board does not in its motion describe books are claimed to contain the information sought, but that the whole plan of said motion for the production of the books is unmistakably to explore the private affairs at the Murray. of the water company without regard to the question involved in this suit, and to enable the Water board to use for u'terior purposes partial, garbled and irrelevant statements regarding the business and affairs of the water company.

The Water board is given until Saturday to answer the foregoing motion of the

honey Among Those Who Secure Concessions from the Board.

Messrs. Rohrbough and Boyles, proprietors of business colleges, appeared before the County Board of Equalization Friday afternoon and protested against any assessment being levied on their property. They claimed that under the law and the decisions of the supreme court this class of property is exempt from taxation. The city attorney has consistently so decided they said, and County Attorney Slabaugh expressed the same opinion to them. They offered to get a written opinion from Judge Slabaugh backing up their contention.

Assessor Reed said that in his opinion the question never has been passed on under the new revenue law. Judge Slabaugh's oral opinion to Messrs, Rohrbough and Boyles was possibly based on a supreme ourt decision given before the new revenue law was passed. He moved that the complaints be dismissed in order that the protesters could go into court and get a decision on the point.

The two business coffege men said they would prefer to avoid going to court and nsisted that the board ought to take the DEPUTIES SERVING PAPERS opinion of the county attorney as conclu-
