A VEHICLE SALE

WITHOUT A PRECEDENT

Vehicles sold at less than cost because we must raise money. Most all business is conducted on bar-rowed money. We borrowed money from a bank at 16th and Farnam streets and bought a large stock of vehicles. This bank has called on us for the money. Had it not been for the death of one of the parties interested in this company, whose estate is now being probated, we could have extended our loan. Now to raise the amount needed we must sell in a short period, vehicles that under ordinary circumstances it would have required months to dispose of, and have therefore cut prices on every vehicle; on our large stock of imported English saddles; on all kinds of English bits, and on our fine stock of single and double coach harness (the finest stock in the city)sacrificing prices on everything in stock in order to raise money.

All vehicles are made of well seasoned, second-growth hicory, Norway Iron bolts, metal work is hand-forged; and the finish is the finest that most skilled workmanship and most costly material can give. Much interest has been manifested in this sale -many have made purchases and, knowing the high-grade quality of these vehicles, have been surprised at their exceptionally low prices.

Below are given a few of the many money-saving opportunities in vehicles in which every line and curve bespeaks comfort, elegance and carriage-quality of the highest type.

$250 Speeding $190 Black body, carmine gear, upholstered in superfine blue cloth. Has pneumatic tires and ball bearing axles. Sacrificed at $190. $275 Open Park $175 This two-seated job is offered you at way below cost. Comes in dark colors with glazed blue stripes and is trimmed in fine Bedford cord.

LONDON, June 17.—Money was in light demand in the market today and supplies were plentiful. Discounts were steady with an easier tendency. There was much uncertainty as to whether the French demand will absorb next week's arrivals of gold. On the stock exchange the attendance was light and the movements unimportant. The business transacted was scarcely sufficient to indicate the tendency. Consols eased a fraction and war stocks were stationary. Americans opened sheady, drooped from insultion and closed quiet. Grand Trunk declined slightly on expectations regarding the traffic returns not being NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
