DES MOINES, June 27 .- (Special.)-Virgil White, the prominent young attorney who was thought to have been drowned a week ago Sunday in the river here, was located at Defiance in Shelby county today and brought home to Des Moines tonight. A letter rom Miss Oella Thompson of this city was at the office of Mr. White this morning She was called to the office and permitted the attorneys there to read the letter, but Thompson burst into tears this morning when the announcement was made to her that White had been found alive. She would not deny that she had been engaged to White, but stated that she had recenily told White she was engaged to another These facts are leading Mr. White's friends to believe that blighted affections had much to do with his disappearance. He had taught in the Drake Law school here and had a bright future. His father, Hon, Fred. White of Webster, twice a candidate on
