

Saturday Important Sale of Ladies' Royal Shirt Waists

The Royal Company is the largest manufacturer of Shirt Waists in America. The Royal Waists are universally recognized as the highest class waists made. As the largest western customer of the Royal factory, Brandeis secured the bulk of the excess stock on hand at a great reduction. Every waist is laundered—not merely pressed out—most of them are in boxes.

Styles and Materials

These Royal Waists are pleated, embroidered, lace trimmed with panels, medallions and hemstitched, fagotting and French Knots, tailor pleated and lingerie—many are pure white linen in regular and handkerchief linen—others are mulls and grass linen, many are Swisses—a few linens with black and white figures, also the popular polka-dot lawns.

If you could look in on the clean, bright Royal factory, see the 500 workers, who can turn out 10,000 shirt waists in a day or two, you would understand why the Royal is such a thoroughly satisfactory shirt waist. The men who draft and cut the patterns, the women who sew the seams and do the plaiting, craftsmen who handle the fine embroideries, that are kept under glass; those who fit the shirt waists on forms, to make sure of perfect proportion; even the laundresses and inspectors all have in their hearts the spirit of doing their best, and in their fingers is the exact science of shirt waist making.

UNION PACIFIC BALAS ON TAX

Offers Less Than Thousand Dollars for Six Times as Much.
CITY TREASURER DOES NOT ACCEPT IT
Omaha Road Only One That Pays Full Amount of Taxes, and It Does So Under Protest.
The Union Pacific has refused to pay the current city taxes levied upon its mileage and terminals in Omaha, offering $49.44 in payment of $6,222.80 on the books against it. City Treasurer Hennings promptly refused to take the lesser amount and representatives of the company paid over the required taxes assessed on real estate and personal property.
The city assessment on mileage and terminals was obtained by multiplying the figures per mile given by the State Board of Assessment by five. The proportion offered by the Union Pacific, however, is even less than one-fifth, showing that the assessment of the state board was rejected, consistently with the suits in the federal court seeking to restrain its application and enforcement.
The only other railroad that had paid up or attempted to pay up taxes Saturday morning was the Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Omaha road, which paid, under protest, $1,584, the full amount levied. Attorney Carl C. Wright handed over the money personally.

Flood on Last Day.
The last day for the payment of current taxes opened in the treasurer's office with a whoop, a big pile of checks and a long line of people waiting for the opening of the doors. If $20,000 is taken over the counter during the day and evening 75 per cent of the current taxes will be collected and last year's record equaled. Friday $108,000 was paid over. As the assessments are 20 per cent less this year than last, however, the volume of money will not be nearly so great.
The big corporations and heavy taxpayers of all descriptions held off until the last moment, but nearly all have had receipts prepared and cashed in at some time during the day.
The treasurer's office will be open tonight as late as taxpayers keep coming.
For the last several days the force has worked until midnight and returned to duty at 5 and 6 o'clock the next morning.
The Union Pacific claims that in making the levy the taxing board of the city of Omaha unlawfully and wrongfully refused to accept the return of the State Board of Assessment of $16,000 per mile, but "illegally" multiplied the return of the state board by five, and thereafter levied upon a full value of $80,000 per mile.
The supplemental bill is filed against the same defendants, including the city treasurer of Omaha.
The claim is made that Tax Commissioner Fleming of Omaha is required by the statutes to extend upon his records the assessed value per mile as returned by the State Board of Equalization to the county clerk, and that he did this at the rate of $16,000 per mile; that thereafter the city council, sitting as a board of equalization, determined the value of the Union Pacific property in direct violation of law, at $80,000 instead of $16,000 per mile, and that the levy determined upon at the time for Omaha was 1 1/2 mills.
The bill goes on to say that the complainants offer to stand and abide by the final order of the court in this case in respect of the taxes properly, legally and lawfully assessed and pay to the city treasurer of Omaha such sums as he is legally entitled to under and by virtue of the tax warrant held by him.

DOG PLEADS HIS OWN CASE

Canine and His Boy Master Touch Heart of the Police Judge.
The unusual spectacle of a dog pleading for his life was enacted before Police Judge Berka Friday morning. Whether or not the canine realized his life was in jeopardy has not been determined, but the sight of all the dog perched up on the city prosecutor's chair, directing a doleful glance toward the magistrate, and the owner of the dog, a boy of 2 years, eagerly holding a piece of rope and watching the judge's face, moved the heart of Police Judge Berka to the point of allowing the dog a respite. Phillip Gavin, like the boy in the play, took the dog in his arms and released a tear drop that trickled down his smiling face. He cried for joy.
The scene occurred when P. Gavin, the boy's father, was arraigned in police court on a charge of keeping a vicious dog. C. E. Showers was complainant in the case.
"Penny, my dog here, can do lots of tricks and he never bites. Even our chickens eat out of his mouth," began the boy, when he addressed the judge, and then paused in his child-like manner to see what effect his words would have on the judge. The judge's face softened and he leaned his head over the rail to get within closer range of the child who was acting as counsel for his dog.
"Penny was a tramp dog when he came to our house, but I took him in and he has stayed with us three years. We have a yellow cat we call 'Sandy,' and you should see Penny and Sandy play together," continued the boy.
The judge harked back to the days when he was a boy and loved a dog, and the old days came back to him with a bump.
Then the boy and the dog left the court room, again to enjoy life in that little world in which there are only a boy and a dog.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

City Attorney Finds His Hands Full of Business Just Now.
SCAVENGER TAX CASES PILE UP FAST
Five Hundred Answers Filed in City's Suits, and Several Damage Cases Add to Work Before Lambert.
The legal department of South Omaha is being kept busy these days looking after scavenger tax cases in the district court. In all 615 answers have been filed and all will have to be defended in the courts. These cases are now in Judge Treou's court. There is no hope of disposing of all of the cases this year, and some will have to be carried over until 1906. Where answers have been filed in regular tax cases the court's attention will be called to these cases. Mr. Lambert said that he has been docketed these will not be taken up until the fall term. In nearly every one of the damage suits filed the legal department has, after an investigation, advised the mayor and city council not to make any settlement, but permit the cases to go to trial.
Poultry Fanciers' Meeting.
A meeting of poultry fanciers of Sarpy and Douglas counties has been called for Tuesday evening, July 11, at the office of H. B. Pleharty in the Pioneer block, Twenty-sixth and N streets. This meeting is called for the purpose of organizing a poultry association and arranging for a show to be held in January, 1906. All persons interested in fine poultry are invited to attend this meeting.
City Hall Bond Case.
City Attorney Lambert stated Friday that upon his motion the city hall case would be advanced on the docket and would be heard by Judge Sears on July 10. The idea of advancing the case is to get the legality of the city hall bonds established as soon as possible. In speaking of this case Mr. Lambert said that no matter which way Judge Sears decided, whether for or against the city, the case will be taken to the supreme court. As matters now stand eastern bond buyers will not take the bonds for a city hall building until all litigation has been disposed of.
Falls to Pay Fine.
Police Judge King is wearing a worried look now and all on account of his old friend, Mrs. Hurley of Indian hill, failing to appear at police court Friday and pay a fine of $27. Only recently Mrs. Hurley was fined this amount on three different charges of disturbing the peace. After the fine had been imposed Mrs. Hurley talked in the softest tones her cracked voice would permit and told his honor that she would show up on the time the judge went home last night Mrs. Hurley had not appeared. Judge

Receipts Break Record.

Friday's hog receipts were larger than expected, the total being 13,551 head, the total receipts for the month being 301,289. For the month of June the receipts exceeded by 2000 the target run for any one month in the history of the yards. A live stock dealer said last evening that besides being a record month better hogs were never seen at this or any other market. While prices fluctuated considerably the month was one of decided activity in the hog yards.
Births and Deaths.
The birth and death returns for June were lower than usual. Twenty-four births were reported during the month, fourteen being males and ten females. Deaths numbered eighteen, seven females and eleven males. In June, 1904, there were forty-four births reported and twenty deaths. June, 1905, records show forty-six births and twenty-two deaths. The low death rate, so physicians say, surely speaks well of the sanitary condition of South Omaha.
Will Close Dry Goods Store.
C. M. Schneider & Sons will close their big dry goods store in the Walter Brandeis' block, Twenty-fourth and N streets, on August 15 and will move to some other locality. The agent for the property said last evening that a furniture house had purchased the unexpired lease from Schneider and would occupy the building some time in August.
Magie City Gossip.
Mrs. J. M. Fowler returned yesterday from a visit with friends in Kansas.
Rev. Tindall will preach morning and evening on Sunday at the First Methodist Episcopal church.
Dr. Deil, 707 North Twenty-fourth street, is suffering from a moderate case of scarlet fever. Dr. Koutsky is the attending physician.
The Woman's auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association will give an ice cream social at Highland park on Thursday evening, July 11.
Mrs. Mary B. Huxford and grand-daughter Helen, of Cherokee, Ia., are the guests of Mrs. Harry E. Trumble, 1926 North Twenty-fifth street.
Dr. Deil, a government surgeon, formerly located here, returned recently from the Philippines and is now here again after reporting at Washington. Dr. Deil expects to be assigned to duty at Kansas City.

CLOCK TO REGISTER FUNDS

Unique Method Employed by Y. M. C. A. to Indicate Amount of Money Contributed.
A giant wooden clock, twenty-two feet in circumference, is being made at the Young Men's Christian association rooms to mark the thousands of the building fund as they are subscribed. The dial will be divided into twelve hours, but of the smaller divisions, corresponding to the minutes, there will be only 100 on the whole circumference. Each minute is to represent $1,000. The clock is to be placed Monday in front of the subscription headquarters at Fifteenth and Farnam and the big hand probably will point then to about the forty-fifth minute.
A canvas sign, three feet wide, calling attention to the location of the headquarters, was stretched across Farnam street at Fifteenth.
"We are feeling very much encouraged over the prospects," said Secretary Wade. "The sum of $42,000 already has been subscribed and large institutions and wealthy men have received the proposition favorably and are considering the question of large subscriptions. The big citizen's committee will get to work in earnest Monday

WINNER OF WEST POINT TEST

George E. Clark of Omaha Makes Highest Grade in the Examination.
George E. Clark, 2710 Howard street, received the highest grade for the examinations for admissions to West Point, held Tuesday and Wednesday at the high school building under the supervision of Superintendent Davidson, Prof. Waterhouse and Superintendent McLean of South Omaha. He is now eligible to appointment by Congressman Kennedy as principal to West Point from the Second district. Two alternates will be selected from the four who took the examinations—Charles L. Byrne, Omaha; O'Connor C. Smith, Blair; Grover C. Aker, Blair, and Vance R. Hayes, Omaha.
Held on Poker Game.
The police made a raid on a gambling house in the rear of the cigar store conducted by George R. Horner, 314 South Fifteenth street, yesterday afternoon. A poker game was progressing nicely when Sergeant Rentfrow and Cook and Officer Sam Baldwin arrived and placed nine men under arrest, charged with being inmates of a gambling house. The men were brought to the police station, where Captain Haze placed the bonds at $100 each, which was furnished. They will be brought up before Police Judge Berka this morning.

RAILROADS SECURE AN INJUNCTION

Union Pacific Gets Temporary Writ Against Collection.
Judge Munger of the federal court has granted a temporary writ of injunction on motion of John N. Baldwin and Edison Rich, attorneys for the Union Pacific Railway company, to restrain A. H. Hennings, treasurer of the city of Omaha, from enforcing the collection of taxes assessed against the Union Pacific by the City Board of Equalization as its recent sitting. The hearing is fixed for July 8.
The application for the injunction was granted upon the showing of the Union Pacific in a motion for leave to file a supplemental bill pertaining particularly to the taxes levied against the property of the railroads in the city of Omaha, which became due and delinquent July 1, and the filing of such supplemental bill, in addition to the pending bill filed November 23, 1904, wherein the county treasurers of the state were asked to be enjoined from enforcing the collection of delinquent taxes against the railroad property passing through and located in the several counties that became due on December 1, 1904, and for which a temporary injunction was

TRAVEL IS HEAVIEST EVER

Traffic Rushes Roads to Meet Demands, Says Wakeley of the Burlington.
L. W. Wakeley, general passenger agent of the Burlington lines west, made the statement Friday morning that travel was never so lively as at present and that all of the western roads were hustling for equipment to handle the business. The east bound business for the first two weeks of July is always enormous and besides there are special parties and excursion moving in every direction. Fourth of July will make a big additional business for all of the roads. The Northwestern officials are worried also over equipment and are thinking seriously of calling on the Chicago end for cars. At several important points along the line of all of the roads big freerack car celebrations have been planned and excursions will be run to these from the surrounding territory so that all of the roads will be taxed to the utmost.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is important when medicine is to be given to small children.
Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.
