DES MOINES WINS HARD ONE

Three Singles and Pass in Fourteenth Inning Lands the Winning Run.

ST. JOSEPH PUTS UP RATTLING FIGHT

Neither Side Able to Get a Man Over the Pan from the Seventh Until the Last Half of the Fourteenth.

DES MOINES, July 3.—Caffyn's single with one man out and two on bases in the fourteenth inning won one of the best and hardest fought games of the season here today. Liebhart and Leifield were pitted against each other and both pitched great ball. Liebhart was wild, but was harder to hit as the game progressed, and steadied down wonderfully. Leifield permitted but three hits until the eighth inning.

Ganley after walking to first in the first scored on Rossman's single. In the next inning St. Joseph tied the score, Fleming hitting a slow one to Shugart, who threw wild to first in his haste. Quillin sacrificed and Zinran hit for two bases, scoring Fleming. Then followed a long list of nothings, when Des Moines scored in the seventh, Fiske and Rossman crossing the plate on Wakefield's single. St. Joseph tied the score in the eighth on McNichols error, Schilz's two-sacker and singles by Andrews and Douglas. There was no farther scoring until the fourteenth. Hogriever walked, so did Fiske, Rossman fanned and Wakefield singled, then Caffyn's single brought in the run. Attendance, 200. Score:

Denver's Free with Stick.

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 3.—With his pistol pocket full of powdered rosin Mr. Stimmell tried to tighten up on the Grizzlies today, but the cubs refused to be cornered, winning the game by a score of 9 to 3. The story of how the visitors won the game is told by a glance at the base hit column. The Grizzlies made eighteen hits and the Orphans three, and this unequal division caused all the trouble in the ball yard. Vollendorf was invincible and until he eased up in the eighth only one single had been made off his delivery.

For five innings the Orphans could not get a man past second, and one hit by Schriver represented the local athletes' stick work. Pennell made the circuit in the sixth without a hit. He sent a slow grounder to Perrine, who shot the ball so hard to Hayes that the latter dropped it, Pennell going to second. He went to third on an out and scored when Sisler threw wide to Hartzell. With one out in the eighth Pennell singled and took second on a passed ball. Cook also safely singled, scoring Pennell and sending Cook to third, and he scored on Perrine's error on Shriver's grounder. Attendance, 300. Score:

OMAHA AT HOME FOR FIVE GAMES

Sioux City to Play Short Series Here with the Champions.

Rain prevented the game at Sioux City yesterday, and the Rourke family was compelled to leave the Iowa town in the gander to the bad. No one down here doubts that McCloskey would have won and made it an even break on the trip, but that is all put aside now. The Sioux City team has been the stumbling block for the Champions all season, as up to date Omaha has only won one game from the Packers. This morning they will begin a series of four at Vinton park, after which Omaha goes to Colorado for a whirl at the Mountaineers again. The team has been doing very well of late, having won six out of the last nine games played, which is about as good as could be asked. Brown, the new man at first, is showing up in splendid form, and when he gets settled into his batting stride will be found of value. The rest of the team is playing fine ball, and with the hustling Sioux for opponents ought to give two fine exhibitions at Vinton park today.

If the schedule is not interfered with by the weather, the first game today will be called at 10:30 this morning, and it is the plan that McCloskey will pitch. The afternoon game will be called at the regular time. If the grounds are too wet to play on this morning a double-header will be played this afternoon for one admission, the first game being called at 2:30. This will afford an excellent program for the day and will give McCloskey and Priester a chance to duplicate last Sunday's performance. Wednesday and Thursday Sioux City will also play, and on Friday Des Moines will stop here to play off the tie game of a couple of weeks ago. Then Omaha's off to Denver for a turn at the Grizzlies. The teams:

Wahoo Defeats Fremont.

WAHOO, Neb., July 3.—(Special.)—The Wahoo base ball team went to Fremont yesterday and defeated the crack Fremont nine, 8 to 3. The feature of the game was the home run of Simodynes for Wahoo when the bases were full. Leach, who had not lost a game this year, was batted for thirteen hits. The Wahoo boys played an errorless game. This makes a game for each team this year, both having been played on the Fremont grounds, and the game there the Fourth will be hotly contested. Score:

Dynamiters Beat Reapers.

The Dynamiters defeated the Reapers Sunday afternoon, 5 to 1. The feature of the game was the fielding of Silk. The Reapers got but four hits off of Mazzei. The battery for the Dynamiters was the Mazzei brothers and for the Reapers Brown and Smith. The Dynamiters and the Binderup cigar factory team will play this morning at their grounds, Eighth and Davenport streets.

Ball Players Arrested.

FREMONT, Neb., July 3.—(Special.)—The Fremont base ball players were arrested today on a complaint filed by Mrs. Frances Beveridge, charging them with playing ball on Sunday. The team appeared in county court this afternoon and asked for a continuance to July 5. After consultation with their attorneys they decided to waive preliminary examination and they were bound over to the district court for trial, bail being fixed at $100 each, which they gave. The case will be tried at the November term of court.

Ruelbach and Taylor fought another nine round bout and the Chicagoan again came out victor.

The handicap tennis tournament will be played off at the Field club Tuesday if the weather permits.

Pa's boys evidently have agreed to take it turn about getting those three hits. Sunday it was Schipke's, Martin's and Welch's time.

Now for another eternal war. With "Mineapole" in first place and "Santa Paul" fifth what can you expect, but the bitterest civil strife. If only Perry Werden could be captain of the Millers and make good on that long-predicted boast of his, that "Minneapolis will win the pennant this year." But then if Perry were captain it's a ten-to-one shot the Millers wouldn't be leading the American association.

The Sioux City Journal says: "The work of the Champions in the field was very fine. One of the prettiest plays of the season was made by Dolan at short when he went over to second and grabbed 'Cad's' hard liner with his left but a fe winches from the ground. Carter and Welch put up a nice game in the outfield, getting seven chances, most of them hard ones. But they couldn't win, simply because 'Cad' had them on his staff. * * * The Champions are very popular with Sioux City fans. * * * The Omaha outfield covers acres of ground. All of them are very fast. * * * Noblit smashed a hard one to Schipke in the second, which the Champions' third sacker squeezed and robbed George of a hit."

Sterilized

Every bottle of Schlitz beer is sterilized after it is sealed.

The process takes ninety minutes; the cost is enormous. But the result is a germless beer—a beer that doesn't ferment on the stomach—a beer that preserves its quality—a beer absolutely pure.

HART WINS IN THE TWELFTH

Louisville Pugilist Now Heavyweight Champion of the World.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES ACTS AS REFEREE

Battle is About Even Up to the Last Round, the Gong Saving the Victor in the Seventh.

RENO, Nev., July 3.—Marvin Hart won over Jack Root in the twelfth round here this afternoon when the odds were 3 to 1 the other way. The punch which compassed the downfall of the Chicagoan was a short arm powerful jolt of the right arm to the body. The blow was delivered with terrific force and caught Root while he was coming up. He reeled and tottered and fell in a heap on the rosined floor of the ring. Jeffries, lowering over the prostrate form of the Chicago man, tolled off the ten seconds which made Hart champion of the world. He might have counted twenty seconds for that matter, for Root was hopelessly defeated. Up to this point of the fight Root had a commanding lead over Hart and appeared to be winning well in hand when he was finally floored.

The fight for the relinquished heavyweight championship of the world, between Jack Root of Chicago and Marvin Hart of Louisville was attended by about 4,000 people. These paid all the way from $3 to $10 each for seeing the battle. There was a liberal attendance of women. The men stepped into the ringside about twenty pounds apart in weight, Root scaling 170, while Hart weighed 190. The feature of the fight aside from the battle itself was the initial appearance of James J. Jeffries, retired champion of the world, who acted as referee, for which service the Los Angeles boilermaker receives $1,000. Harry Corbett, the stakeholder, was at the ringside with the club's $5,000 in pocket.

There was a split on the basis of 65 per cent to the winner and 35 per cent to the loser. The seconds of Jack Root were "Battling" Nelson, Teddy Alexander and Paddy Mackey. Bill Gallagher of San Francisco held the watch for Root. The seconds for Hart were Jack McCormick, "Deafy" Thompson, Jack Roberts, Hal Updike and Lee Updike. Timekeeper, Al Updike.

In the choice of corners, Jack McCormick, Hart's manager, beat Lou M. Houseman, acting for Root, and placed his man's back to the sizzling sun.

Many Celebrities Present.

Among the celebrities at the ringside were Harry Corbett, Jack Welch, Billy McConnell, Bill Gallagher, Attorney General Sweeney of Nevada, Sam Davis and Lou M. Houseman of the Inter-Ocean, Chicago; Senator F. G. Newlands, Lieutenant Governor Allen and wife of Nevada, H. L. Badgley, "Doc" Smith, Walter Young, Al North of Reno, Samuel Myers, Mayor O'Conner of Reno, Colonel Martin Brady, Al Herford, Warden Considine of the Nevada penitentiary, Dan Noonan, Sheriff Ferrel of Washoe county, District Attorney Craig of Nevada, and the entire constabulary and police arms of Washoe county and the city of Reno.

Before entering the ring Jim Jeffries awaited upon both men, stating that he had retired for good from the ring and that the winner of this fight is entitled to the name of heavy-weight champion of the world.

The following message was received by Root from John L. Sullivan, at Oakland, Cal.:

"In case you win, I, in behalf of Jim McCormick, challenge you, $2,500 side bet."

Considerable time was wasted in adjusting gloves, the crowd meanwhile sweltering in the open air. Battling Nelson was introduced and relieved the tedium of the wait somewhat by agreeing to fight Britt to a finish in this ring. Jack Johnson and Gorge Gardner have both challenged the winner of today's contest. Time was called at 2:45.
