CONDITION OF OMAHA'S TRADE

First Week of July Proves Satisfactory to the Jobbers.

YEAR'S BUSINESS IS INDICATED

Last Six Months of Year Will Prove Heavier Than First Six-Collections Good with Jobbers and Retailers.

Business with Omaha jobbers for the first week in July indicates that trade for the last six months of the year is likely to prove even heavier than for the first in months, and that the year will be the last ever known. All lines report an introduced in the properties of last year, and there is every evidence that it will continue. Collections are unusually good for this time of year and the country merchants say that the same condition holds true with them.

Sugar is off ten points this week, altogether on account of the demoralization in freight rates. The market is only fairly steady and a further decline would not surprise the trade.

Cereals are all unchanged, with the exception of rolled cats, which shows considerable strength on account of discouraging crop reports. Prices have advanced logic cents a case on five-pound packages and values have gone up on barrels.

Quistness characterized the canned goods market for the week. The growth of corn has been greatly retarded by cool weather in sections of some of the eastern states, and a shade firmer feeling has been created on the probabilities of a light output there. Canned tomatoes have been steady. An opening price of $2 has been made on New York gallon apples. Whether this price is to prevail is uncertain, much depending on the progress of the crop during July. Through June the apple crop in the canning districts of New York has progressed favorably and everything points to a fair yield.

Coffee is a little weak at about last week's prices.

Coffee is a little weak at about last week's prices. The receipts of Rio and Santos for the crop year ending June 30 were 9,98,000 bags, compared with 10,408,000 bags a year ago and 12,234,000 bags two years ago.

All grades of cheese are practically unchanged. There is a slow demand for large sizes, but better demand for the small sizes. Bkings are quiet, but the fancy qualities are well sustained.

The only point of interest in the dried fruit market was a slight advance in the demand for raisins. The supply of this fruit is light and the movement restricted by high prices. Apricots are dull and easy and peaches quiet. Prunes are held firmly up to a high price established by the crop conditions of this season.

No changes are reported in the market for the grocery grade of molasses, business being seasonable, but reflecting the usual midsummer dullness. Stocks in dealers' hands are light and prices are firmly maintained. Blackstrap is steady at unchanged prices.

Dealers report a light trade in salt fish, with no particular interest in any variety. Mackerel is steady with a light movement. Herring is quiet and the movement is limited to small lots. There is not much inquiry after codish. Smoked fish are quiet and the trade is limited to actual demand. For family whitefish there is a big demand.

The salmon market is about the same as

For family whitensh there is a big de-mand.

The salmon market is about the same as it has been for a week. Opening prices on sockeye and the probable bulk of the pack are about the only points of interest in the market. Red Alaska is most piontiful and Columbia chinook is so scarce that it is almost impossible to fill orders. Pinks move with freedom and are held steadily. Sardines are unchanged and the movement is light.

move with freedom and are held steadily. Sardines are unchanged and the movement is light.

In hardware there are no advances of any consequence to be recorded. The demand for goods made from black and galvanized sheet and tin plate has been noreased, and this leads to the bellef that there soon will be an advance in the price of the raw materials. Nalls and wire products are maintained at the same prices. They are being more firmly held in first hands and there is less evidence of price cutting.

A letup in the active prosecution of the hardware business at this season is quite in the usual course, and at the present time is not so pronounced as to indicate anything unfavorable in regard to the outlook. The six months just closed have been on the whole characterized by excellent conditions, although some of the most sanguine anticipations which prevailed at the opening of the year were not realized to their full extent. In heavy goods there has been some vacillating in the matter of price, and the volume of business in this line has been somewhat affected by these influences, but hardware in general has been quite steady. Manufacturers have had no reason for reducing prices so have had no reason for reducing prices so these influences, but hardware in general these influences, but hardware in general has been quite steady. Manufacturers have had no reason for reducing prices so far as the cost of their goods is concerned, this being practically unchanged, the tendency being, indeed with the natural increase in the expense account, toward higher rather than lower costs. Prices cortainly have been, on the whole, very well maintained. With excellent prospects for the crops, and in view of the prosperous condition generally prevalent, the outlook for the remainder of the year is regarded as decidedly encouraging.

The market is considerably stronger in all descriptions of cotten goods. The leading brands of wide sheetings have been advanced a cont a yard in the last week. Black and brown cottons in narrow widths are also strong in first hands and further advances are looked for. Staple prints have not changed in price for several months last, although plain cloths have been advanced in the last thirty days. Well informed retailers are pincing orders for what they will require during the fall general.

what they will require during the fall season.

In the face of a very quiet demand values ave already been advanced on some lines of linens, and these advances are predicted to take place at an early date. Importers state that it is impossible to secure new goods at old figures, and although in some instances lots have been secured by eastern buyers at old figures, the majority of purchases have been made at an advance.

Dry goods in general are higher and deliveries from the factory are more uncertain than they were a month ago. All factors in the dry goods industry realize that the cost of manufacture has increased during the last six months and that from jobber to retailer the prices must advance to cover the higher values secured by first-hand operators. This accelerates spot purchasing. Brown cottons are scarce and in strong request at prices that buyers would not consider two weeks ago. All grades of drills are in demand at the factories for export at full market values. Prints are steady and the demand is increasing. Values are firmly adhered to by the mills and there is a probability that wide goods will be advanced soon.

Woolen goods are unchanged for the week, but eastern dealers in wool are locking for a more active market and higher prices in the raw material before the month is over.

Advance orders at local houses are being

Is over.

Advance orders at local houses are being filled, although bad deliveries by manufacturers are delaying shipments on many lines. The condition of the retail trade in Omaha's territory has never been as good as at present, and it is expected that the house trade will be very active in the near future. Money seems to be plentiful and collections are satisfactory, both with the jobbers and retailers.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Free movement of new wheat in the southwest caused weakness in the wheat market hers today. At the close the September option was precisely it below yesterday's final quotations. Corn is off '4614c. Oats are down '4c. Provisions are 192225c higher.

Weak less in the wheat market developed soon a ter the opening. At the start the market was quite firm. September was up this can be supported by the conditions were the main cause of the initial firmness. In the northwest, however, weather conditions were generally favorable for the spring-sown crop, and this fact led to free selling by several prominent commission houses, resulting in a quick decline. Later the market became still weaker, largely in sympathy with a sharp decline in cash prices, following reports of an increased movement of new wheat in the southwest. There was a number of advices of a bullish nature, but they seemed to have little effect on the mar-sharp decline in cash prices, following reports of an increased movement of new wheat in the southwest. There was a number of advices of a bullish nature, but they seemed to have little effect on the market. One report from San Francisco claimed that the wheat crop of California had deteriorated $6$ per cent. From Minneapolis came another report asserting that black rust had caused considerable damage to spring-sown wheat. A factor that brought out much of the late selling was a revised estimate by a Chicago expert regarding the total winter wheat crop based on statistics furnished since July I. According to these figures the total yield was $60,00,000 to $20,000,000 bushels. September reached the lowest point of the day at $7%c. The market closed weak, with September at $7%c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 116,000 bushels. Frimary receipts were $17,700 bushels, compared with $19,400 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 148 cars, against $19 cars last week and 148 cars a year ago.

Larger receipts than expected and more liberal acceptances caused weakness in the corn market, notwithganding a sharp advance at Liverpool. Cash houses were the principal sellers. Receipts at primary points were more than double those a year ago. The market closed weak and near the lowest point of the day. September opened & lower to &c higher at $14,005,000,000 of to $5%c and closed at $74,005,000,000 of to $5%c and closed at $64,005,000,000 of to $10,000,000,000 of the contract grade.

A firm tone prevalled in the oats market early in the session on an active demand from commission houses. The market weakened in symmathy with the declines in other grain. September opened a shade to %c higher at $1%c00,000,000 of the contract grade.

Duluth Grain Market,

Week Closes with a Carefully Managed Movement to Realise.

MARKET SUSTAINED BY BIDDING UP PRICES

Close is Quiet and Steady at About Friday Night's Level-Heavy Selling of Union Pacific.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The week in the Stock exchange closed with a carefully managed movement to realize, which was facilitated by the bidding up of prices here and there at the opening. After the selling had spent its force prices were marked up again, leaving the last prices not far from those of last night. The realizing was most consplcuous in Reading and Union Pacific, in which the speculative operations have been the largest all the week. The demand for Reading has been incited by proclaiming confidence that the dividend on Central railroad of New Jersey was to be increased with benefit to Reading through its holdings of that stock. The action of the directors today in declaring only the regular dividend on Central Railway of New Jersey was calculated therefore to induce some selling of Reading. The cotton market was excited again, but the grain markets were inclined to react on title favorable weather conditions in the wheat belt. The realizing in Reading was purtly covered by marking up Reading second preferred. The United States Steel stocks also showed signs of irregular strength in connection with rumors of the figures for the net earnings of the last quarter.

The large decrease in cash shown by the bank statement was a surprise, as the pre-liminary estimates had indicated only a nominal change. The loan contraction was regarded as moderate for the opening week of a disbursement period. The market closed quiet and steady.

HOG TRADE RULED GENERALLY HIGHER

Receipts of Sheep and Lambs Very Light, with Market for the Week in Satisfactory Condition and Prices Ruling Higher.

SOUTH OMAHA, July 8, 1905. Receipts were: Cattle, Hogs, Sneep. ... 1,822 4,437 3,561 omeiai Monday omeiai Tuesday (holiday) 6,178 7,146 9,744 6,847 5,825

*Indicates Sunday Holiday. The official number of cars of stock brought in today by each road was: Cattle Hogs.Sh'p.H's's. Total receipts 6

The disposition of the day's receipts was as follows, each buyer purchasing the number of head indicated: Cattle, Hoge Omaha Packing Co., their holdings and were forced to take off all that had been put on on Monday. Since the middle of the week the market ruled generally steady and at the close prices are in about the same notches as on the close of last week, or possibly a little stronger.

The supply of cows and heifers was light all the week and there was a good demand for the desirable kinds. The market for the week is a little stronger than the close of last week, although the common, grassy cows are in poor demand and are only about steady.

Bulls, veal calves and stags ruled generally steady for the week and there was little change in prices. stronger. the change in prices.

The supply of stockers and feeders was small this week and the quality of the receipts was rather poor. There is a fair demand for cattle of this class and the market for the week is about stendy on good kinds, but lower on others. Representative sales:

sales: HOGS—There was not quite the usual Sat-HOGS—There was not quite the usual Saturday's run here today, about seventy-five loads being on sale. Conditions were a little better than yesterday, buyers not seeming quite so indifferent. The opening of the market, however, was very slow and draggy and bidding was a little lower. Sellers were slow letting go and very little was done till well along in the forenoon. Desirable lightweights were in best demand and were picked up first at stronger prices. Heavy hogs were hard to move on the early market, but later bids and sales on these kinds showed stronger prices. The general market was about 2½c higher than yesterday's low time, the bulk lower; is middidling, 5.57d. Seles, of Representative sales:

SHEEP-Receipts this week were only about half as heavy as last week, but the quality of the offerings was very good. Range stuff has constituted the bulk of the receipts and the market at the close here were very good, being right up to Chicago, and there has been a good active trade all the week. The light receipts of the week were not responsible for the condition of the market, but the market is higher because there is a good steady demand for sheep of all kinds and buyers are anxious for supplies. For the week the market is just about 25c higher than the close of last week. There were very few spring lambs received this week and the market on this kind of stuff shows no advance on sheep owing to the break in prices at eastern points. There were five cars reported in this morning, three of which came in early and were sold to arrive. A could deek of spring lambs sold for $1.55.

Wheat Breaks Cent and Half Under New Crop Arrivala.

BIG RECEIPTS AND LOWER PRICES

Profit Taking Over Sunday Causes Corn to Close Ensy-Onts Are Lower Also-Predictions for Monday.

OMAHA, July 8, 1908.

Wheat went down today as fast as it went up yesterday and at the close stood only about 'ac over yesterday's opening. The opening was steady, but the market broke under moderate offerings. Increased receipts at Kansas City and St. Louis caused the cash grain at those places to ease off several cents and futures followed. July closed at 874c, September at 874c and December at 874c.

Profit taking over Sunday caused corn to lose '464c; July closed at 574c, old July at 574c, December at 494c and old December at 514c.

Profit taking over Sunday caused corn to lose '464c; July closed at 574c, old July at 574c, December at 494c and old December at 514c.

Oats closed with July at 324c; September at 514c.

Liverpool closed '4d lower on wheat and '4d higher on corn. The corn market was strong, with small receipts. Broomball predicts a decrease in the quantity of breadstuffs on passage next week. He says the world's wheat experts for Monday will be 10.400,000 bushels.

Petri of St. Louis tells today that Armour sent out reports yesterday purporting to come from Mexico, Mo., to the effect that wheat was yielding forty bushels an aore along the Wabash railroad. Petri sent out inquiries and learned that the yield was twenty-two to thirty bushels. Cash wheat was heavy in all winter wheat markets yesterday and the opinion is that it will require continued bad weather to buil wheat. Dennis of Chicago says. "I am afraid the receipts of winter wheat next week will make us forget everything else, unless it is something very sensational in the way of weather or rust talk. St. Louis and Kansas City receipts today are larger than the combined receipts of a year ago. It is said that Kansas City has 2,000,000 bushels sold for July shipment. Primary receipts were 31,000 bushels. No. 3 red wheat selling at St. Louis yesterday at fit, sold today at Sc.

The prospects are that corn will have to sell blicher if the export demand is stopped.

at Sc.

The prospects are that corn will have to sell higher if the export demand is stopped. Good cable acceptances were made yesterday at the full advance. Lighter receipts are anticipated by many traders.

From today's Record-Herald: "An astation which promises to be vigorous and widespread has been started by the government authorities with the object of ultimately abolishing the issuance of official crop reports. The agitation is the result of the recent leak in the Agricultural department whereby cotton reports were department whereby cotton reports to given out in advance. The secret ser acting under the direction of the secre acting under the direction of the secretary of agriculture, has just completed its investigation. It is pointed out that the government reports are only estimates and that they are of no real value to the country, but only so speculators. So great are the temptations to those preparing the reports that it seems impossible to keep them from being doctored."
