COLORADO SPRINGS, July 8.—Even if Des Moines did get to the ball yard nearly a half hour late today, they were in time to take a fall out of the Outcasts. Score: Des Moines, 18; Colorado Springs, 5. About 6 o'clock the report gained circulation that Des Moines was afraid to come to the pasture because those Millionaires were about to tap their long-looked-for winning streak and the Underwriters did not want to be the first victims. They did not arrive in time to warm up, but this was unnecessary, as the game had to be played in raincoats and sweaters.

That diminuitive athlete, Mr. J. Chapelle, who is said to be one of the most terrible of his species, was selected to do the twirling, and what he did to the Orphans was more than plenty. He was closer with base hits than a railroad magnate is with passes and in only three innings were the locals able to find the ball.

Both pitchers and the fielders were handicapped by a high wind and, in addition to this, a drizzing rain fell during the greater part of the matince. Early in the struggle the Underwriters developed a mania for hitting the ball and in the first two rounds scored enough runs to win. Attendance, 175. Score:

Star Performer Drives His Car Five Miles in the Open Event in Four Minutes and Forty-Three Seconds.

High Class Fielding.

It is getting so that when the Omaha team marches on to the field the crowd settles down to see a pitchers' battle. Omaha has not yet discovered a pitcher's battle. Omaha has not yet discovered a pitcher's licould knock out of the box, nor has a team yet been found that could knock an Omaha pitcher out. So the result is a cinch before the best of support, for, while the batting record of the bunch is a joke almost, the fielding average is one that any team might feel proud of. It has been generally improved during the last week, every man but Frank Martin shoving his season's total a little higher. Martin checked his downward career in the batting column, but made a couple of bobbles on the field while he was still angry, and these cost him just three percentage points. Since Buck Thiel quit playing at short he has sent his fielding and batting both up quite a little. Bill Schipke is sticking to his work with commendable zeal, and if he doesn't have any bad luck during the coming week he will get himself in the glorious company of 90 per cent fielders. He is really fielding much above that mark, but is suffering from the effects of the bad time he had early in the season, when he had the lame wrist and couldn't throw to first. The figures for the season up to date are:
