FRIDAY-Young Women's Christian association reception to Miss Ticknor. The wet weather of the last week neces situted some radical changes in the social program and seriously interfered with the plans of the fashionables. Instead of the picnic, the tallyho party, the porch party and the lawn fete one has a reasonable right to expect in July, there have been dances and dinner parties and luncheons and even a reception. But even the weather man cannot get ahead of the younger set, for, taking the rainy even ings for granted, they have gone ahead and planned more dances and dinner par-

Everybody seems to have enjoyed the Fourth. The woods were full of picnickers and both the Field and Country clubs were crowded all day and evening; half a dozen little people who are going to be society folks some day had parties in their own yards and any number of uncles and papas who are still devotees to the clubs spent their evening at home sending up fireworks for the benefit of the younger members of the family.

With the Fourth and the mid-week festivities and possibly because the weather was doubtful, the dinner list at the Country club was short Saturday evening. Less than a half dozen reservations had been made for parties up to noon. Of these Miss Lomax entertained the largest, in honor of Miss Averill of Beaumont, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warren of Chicago. The other guests present were: Miss Mary Lee McShane, Miss Keline, Miss Adair of Atlanta, Ga., who is Miss Keline's guest; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins, Mr. Oden Mackay, Lieutenant Will Cowin, Mr. Arthur Keline, Mr. Lee McShane and Mr. Phil Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McWhorter enter-tained a party of eight in celebration of their son Hugh's birthday. Covers, were laid for Misses Mary Morgan, Elizabeth Congdon, Marian Hughs, Gwendoline White, Messrs. Eimer Redick, Fred Thomas, Gardner McWhorter and Hugh

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cowin had as their guesta Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kelley. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hammer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Byrne and Mr. , and Mrs. Charles Keller.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

A special meeting of the Omaha Woman's club has been called for Monday afternoon, July 10, at 2 o'clock, in the club rooms in the First Congregational church, for the purpose of suspending article vi of the bylaws, that old members may be reinstated at the regular annual dues, $3. The required number of names, including those of the president and recording secretary, are appended to the call.

Regarding men speakers on the program of the St. Paul blennial, Mrs. Decker said ecently: "Whether there are men on the program or not, I hope the club women will see to it that there are men there to listen."

So far as can be learned, Grover Cleveand has made no word of response to the deluge of information that has been sent him by club women with a view to enlightening him regarding women's clubs. It is said that Mr. Cleveland received a serious nvitation to attend the council meeting ield recently at Atlantic City. Other men of national consequence were also invited some of the sessions and those who could not find time to accept the invitation counted it of sufficient importance to send regrets-all but Mr. Cleveland.

The June Pederation Bulletin gives a ynopsis of the opinions of several prominent men, of the woman's club. As educators or leaders of great public reforms, these writers have become familiar with the work of the clubs through their co-operation, and their opinions ought to weigh as heavily at least as those of some of the critics who confess to no actual experience with the work of the clubs and club women. Here is what some of them say:

school education have found for the last twenty years some of their strongest support in the women's organizations of various kinds

Ben B. Lindsey, Judge of Juvenile Court, Denver-For the last five years I have been actively engaged in the interest of better laws for the protection of the home and the children. In this behalf I have visited some twenty states. I have found in that time wonderful progress, and scarcely without exception it has been the members of the women's clubs who have championed every good law and secured the passage of nearly all the advanced legislation upon the statute books for the protection of the home and the children. Much of this legislation relating to child labor, delinquent and dependent children, and the rights of women as well as children, has been of such tremendous importance as must be felt for good in thousands of homes in this country. Therefore I do not agree with the criticisms of women's clubs by ex-President Cleveland. I do not know of a church society which is more philanthropic in its purposes than are the women's clubs. Mr. Cleveland's criticism, 'if justifiable, would practically limit the activity of women to their own homes. Of course the individual home comes first in importance. No one has advocated this more than the women's clubs but they are unselfish and Chris'—enough to appreciate that they owe a duty to society, and to other homes. They realize that to a certain extent all children are their children. Most members of the women's clubs have aiready reared a family, and some of the most active are, without sacrificing the duty they owe to their own homes, able to do much toward advancing every movement intended for the betterment of the homes of all the people. I am sure the ex-president has spoken without that due deliberation which so generally characterizes his utterances. Of course he is sincere in his own championship of the home, but he cannot be well posted in the fight which has been waged so successfully in many of the states, unless he credits t

QUESTION VERACITY OF JUROR Affidavita for New Trial Allege that He Has Served Thrice in Two Years.

Attorneys C. J. Smyth and John A. Ri have filed affidavits in the district court to support their motion for a new trial in the case of Robert Meinig against the street railway company, wherein the company was discharged of responsibility for the boy's injuries by a jury. The affidavits are to the effect that one M. Lagasa, on examination, asserted that he had not served as a juror in the court within two years nast, whereas the records make it appear that he served for three weeks in October. 1908, and was again drawn on the special venire in March of this year and served as a furor.

AN ARTISTIC WINDOW DISPLAY. A Thousand Bits of Finished Art in a Downtown Window Draws Crowd. A vent for feminine admiration has been reated by an extensive and unique display of imported ware in a window of a leading Omaha store. Several thousand hand-decorated china plates makes probably as complete a showing of its kind as was ever displayed in such a manner. Most of the plates are imported from Austria and it is notable feature that many of them are exquisitely decorated with heads that are opies of portraits of famous monarchs and beauties of the Austrian court. The collection in itself is a veritable gallery of art. The window trimmer who arranged the display at Brandels declares that there are enough plates to serve a banquet to two complete regiments on numerical war foot-
