If you don't think I'm daffy Jes' listen what I did. Had a whole day off to loaf, Not a lick to do, An' I felt so kind o' frisky-like I went crazy through an' through. Sneaked out good an' early While the dew wux on the grass, A-thinkin'. 'Dern my buttons, I'm going to ketch some bass, An' like as not some crappie, too, An' silver perch an' such; What I leave in that pesky slough Won't be so crackin' much.'' Well, here I am, back agin, Red as Simpson's barn. An' I kin tell you how I feel With jes' one word-that's 'Darn.'' What did I catch? Well, say, You're a nosey guy, you are; If you look in the kitchen there you' St. Louis Republic.
