The last two runs came in the ninth, when Hickman eased up. Fiske got one through a fielder's error and Towne banded to the wall over McHale's head for a clean home run. Ganley and Hogreiver followed with singles, but Perrine retired Long and the side.

Denver tallied two in the first on singles by Hartzell, Randall and Belden. In the fifth Hickman hit and went to third on Shugart's error, which gave Hartzell a life. Hartzell stole and scored on Belden's hit to right. In the sixth Hoelcketter was hit and Lucia pounded out a homer to left. Three more came in the eighth. Lucia and Hickman hit and Hickman stole second. McHale's two-bagger brought in at first in which Rosman and Chappelle were both culpable allowed to slide to tally the tenth run. The game abounded in holding features; splendid catches were made by Belden, Perrine and Ganley and Hoelcketter cut off several hits over second and behind third base. Attendance, 500. Score:
