Orphans Celebrate the Last Game to Be Played in Colorado Springs by Winning with a High

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 13.-The great bankruptcy game was pulled off between showers this afternoon, while a fascinated multitude of fully 117 faithful fans and one box party witnessed the struggle. By way of variety these hopeless athletes won the game from the champions by a score of 13 to 11. Still the fact that the Orphans played a shifty game and bumped the proud pennant winners did not entitle them to a home in Colorado Springs and the belief is general that Boulevard park is now for rent. As a farewell entertainment all the home players, who were attired in battle array, were prepared for the last time before the faithful few. Pitchers played in the field, a catcher held down first base and those who were left over took turn on the coaching line or umpired. Umpire Mace was excused today owing to the death of his brother in Washington, D. C., and Gonding, and Delehanty kindly consented to officiate without extra pay. Gonding tried to sidestep his job in the sixth when Nick Carter was unkind enough to suggest that his windows were dusty. This cutting remark stung Mr. Gonding plenty and he tossed up his job and two new balls at the same time and sought the players' bench. Candidates for the position were not to be found and for a time it loked as if the bankruptey game would fizzle out, but Gonding relented and umpired the rest of the game, thereby averting pending disaster. Sioux Are Shut Out.

ST. JOSEPH, July 13.—St. Joseph shut Sioux City out this afternoon, taking advantage of errors by the visitors and an onslaught on Cadwallader in the eighth. Cadwallader proved invincible througnout five innings, not a local getting a hit. Newton's wild throw in the fourth, however, gave Dougias three bases. Newton again fumbled O'Brien's drive and was slow in the return to pinch Douglas, who scored. Cadwallader, apparently unnerved by his peor support, let down a trifle and Ketchem hit in the eighth. Pulsifer shot a hot one to Weed, letting Schilz score. Quillan hit for two bases, cleaning up two runs. Andrews followed with another, which took a bad bounce over. Newton, scoring Quillin. Zinran, who walked, also scored.

Newton fumbled Douglas' drive, but recovered in time to catch Andrews on a poor silde home. Ketchem's catch in center of Sheehan's long drive was a feature. His return to Douglas doubled Collins, who saw a clean hit, and with Cadwallader was well down to the pan.

NEW YORK, July 13.—For the first time in the history of golf in the United States a professional tournament was begun today on a public links. Fifty-two of the most prominent professional golfers east of the Alleghenies started in this tournament over the VanCourtlandt park links and fifty of these turned in cards for a double journey of the entire course. When play began in the morning there was a fairly large crowd of spectators on the course, but a heavy rainstorm soon dispersed the onlookers. The links were deluged and made so soggy that low scores were not looked for. The feature of the morning round was the excellent work done by Martin O'Loughlin, a 17-year-old boy, who learned the game as a caddy at Plainfield, N. J. He negotiated the course in 78 strokes and during his tour a heavy rainstorm was in evidence. The next best scores were turned in by George Low, the Baltusrol club's professional, and Former Caddle Makes Low Score.

The amount of his salary is not stated. The fact that he has been engaged by Yale for a comparatively long term is regarded as permanently committing the university to the policy tried for the first time last year of having a professicial coach remain with the team throughout the season.
