CHAMPIONS ARE IN FINE FETTLE

Papa Bill Says His Boys Will Make the Leaders Hustle Now.

William Rourke and the Champions returned from the western trip last night and all are in fine fettle for the five-game series with Des Moines, which starts today.

While in the west Rourke spent three days at Pueblo arranging for the transfer of the Springs team to that town.

"Pueblo will be a much better town for the teams to visit," said Pa Bill, "and will have many advantages. With twice the population, it stands to reason that we should draw more people than at the Srings. Besides, it will be a much better Sunday town.

"I guess that we surprised some people by our Denver games, but then there is no team in the league which has an edge on us on even break of luck. Bill Schriver will still be manager of the team at Pueblo and two players, Swormstedt and Pennell, have been released.

"All of our players are in fine fettle and feel that we are ready to make any of them hustle from now out. Thomas has fully recovered and has his batting eye, although he has not been hitting very lucky. Joe Dolan has had his eye on the ball of late."

PUEBLO READY FOR THE OPENING

Prominent Citizens Take Hold of Base Ball Affairs.

PUEBLO, Colo., July 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Pueblo in the Western league was assured tonight when the Pueblo Athletic and Amusement company was organized and directors elected from the most prominent business men. The directors are: G. H. Williams, president of the Mercantile National bank; E. G. Middlecamp, real estate dealer; T. H. Devine, attorney; John T. West, mayor; W. G. Greer of the McCord-Chapman-Greer Mercantile company; C. Sonneborn, capitalist; J. A. Barclay, manager Pueblo Chieftain.

Elaborate ceremonies will mark the opening of the local
