Have you ever considered the importance of a bookkeeper? Have you ever thought how impossible it would be for the business world to get along without its bookkeepers?

Bookkeeping is the keystone of the business office. Without a system of bookkeeping a man in business would be like the captain of a ship in the open sea without a compass. He would not know whether he was heading for the port of Profit or whether he was drifting towards the rocks of Bankruptcy. He could not tell whether he was gaining or losing. The expert bookkeeper is a necessity to every business, from the small grocery to the largest department store. He is just as much needed by John Jones at the four corners as he is by the Standard Oil Co. By entering you will be capable of accepting and filling a position as an expert bookkeeper when fall rolls around. You will have made your summer count for something. Nor will you have felt the lack of the long, lazy "rest" of summer taken by the usual young man or young woman. Here in the Boyles building, with its great, wide, high-ceilinged, airy rooms, the heat of the day will not touch you and the knowledge that you are daily obtaining a more thorough grasp on the principles and the practice of bookkeeping, will so thoroughly and absolutely interest you that the study will be a pleasure to you.

Write for our large, new catalogue. You will find it full of inspiration.

WANTED-FEMALE HELP

Two Schools To Be Consolidated September 1

OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE AND THE

OMAHA BUSINESS UNIVERSITY

BOTH WILL BE TRANSFERRED TO THE NEW COLLEGE BUILDING AT NINETEENTH AND FARNAM STREETS.

Arrangements have just been completed between the owners and proprietors of these respective institutions to consolidate them September 1. This has been deemed advisable because of the erection of the finest commercial school building in the country and the largely increased facilities which will be provided in all departments. It is impossible for a small school to provide its students with the best advantages, and for various reasons the patrons of these schools are entitled to the best, and hence the consolidation. All scholarships previously issued by either school will be duly honored. Everyone previously connected with either institution is pledged to a renewed endeavor to conserve the interests of old students, as well as those who may see fit to avail themselves of the splendid opportunities which new and favorable conditions will provide.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Our Summer School is now in session. Many new students have recently en-rolled; others admitted any day; all departments are actively in operation; re-duced rates of tuition prevail until September 1. It will pay you to avail your-self of the opportunities provided by our Summer School, to prepare yourself for a better salary or to make up a lost grade in public school work.

Our Fall Term will open in our new building at Nineteenth and Farnam strests September 4. If you contemplate attending a commercial school this year you should write at once for full particulars.

IMPORTANT, INFORMATION.

In a new building, planned and constructed primarily and specifically for school purposes, with the installation of new equipment in the way of furniture, office fixtures, etc., every student may be assured of unsurpassed facilities. In addition to these things, our courses of study will be enlarged, more teachers employed and two new departments added. All these, with a splendid auditorium and one of the finest symnasiums in the state, we expect this to be the banner year as regards attendance and results.

A comparison at this time of the Omaha Commercial College in its new dress, new surroundings, new determinations, etc., with any other school in the northwest is carnestly desired.

Fall Term Opens September 4

"There are schools and there are schools" but the N. B. C. has no superior.

Never have we had better prospects for a fine attendance than for this coming fall. Every day brings a number of inquiries from young people who are expecting to be with us in September. This comes by reason of the high standing of the school and our growing reputation for "absolutely thorough work."

Our teachers are all college graduates and well equipped for the duties of instructors. They are not only thorough workers, but take an interest in every pupil. Don't forget the truth of the saying, "The teacher makes the school." It would be well for young people expecting to take up a course in either Bookkeeping and Banking or Shorthand and Typewriting to investigate who the teachers are.

The system of shorthand that we teach is the best ever devised—"THE GREGG."
It is taught in more schools today than any other three systems combined. Its simplicity is phenomenal. A child can learn it. If you are interested in shorthand work, it will pay you to investigate the merits of this system.

In our Business Department we teach the Actual Practice System from the start, thus combining theory with actual work, which makes the most thorough and complete course in commercial training ever devised. A term with us in this department will enable you to hold a first-class position. Investigate.

Our records show that 55 per cent of our graduates are placed in positions. Just now we are having more calls than we can fill. The Underwood Typewriter Co, have given us seven calls this last week. Many others are comiting in from the different typewriter companies, besides the numerous calls direct from the business men of the city. John us, qualify yourself for one of these position, and we will have no trouble in placing you.

Every student who takes out a full term scholarship is given a year's membership in either the Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A. without extra expense. No such offer was ever made by any school. The value of this membership to the student
