It is impossible to formulate or carry out any consistent military policy. No needed reform can be initiated, no useful measure can be adopted, without being subject to vexations and for the most part unnecessary criticism. The educational exhibit will be greatly superior to any before made at a state fair, and Wednesday, September 6th, will be School day. It is urged that school officers delay the commencement of the school year until September 11th in order hat teachers and scholars may have an opportunity to attend the State fair which, in itself, is a great object school.

The outlook for a successful fair was never more encouraging than at the present time.
