

ARGUMENT ON WINCH WILL

Case Before Judge Sears is Now Drawing Near Its End.

SAUNDERS PAYS ATTENTION TO THOMAS

Calls Jury's Attention to Fact that Missing Document Was Last Seen in Possession of Attorney for Contestant.

The Winch will case before Judge Sears is nearing the end. The attorneys on both sides are making their closing speeches.

Who is contesting the will of S. F. Winch? The children are not here. In whose interest is the case being tried? Who is the beneficiary?

THOMAS SHOULD CLEAR HIMSELF

It would seem to me that Mr. Thomas should clear his own name of the suspicious circumstances attending the loss before throwing mud into the faces of others.

Human sympathy for the dog. OMAHA, July 19.—To the Editor of the Bee: I never had but one friend, find here he lies," said Lord Byron in his epitaph on the monument to his dead Newfoundland dog.

It is now nearly fifty years, June, 1855, I was acting surgeon in boats which conveyed troops of the Harney expedition to Fort Pierre, one day from the deck of one of the boats an animal was seen on the shore.

WHY BAKE BREAD In This Baking Hot Weather? You save nothing by it, besides you are "fussing" around in your hot kitchen when you ought to be sitting in the shade trying to keep cool. $1.50 pays for a sack of flour, but does not pay for the gas you must burn. $1.50 will pay for a loaf of SNOW FLAKE BREAD, delivered by your grocer, fresh every morning for thirty days. No baking. No gas to burn. No worry. It's all ready to serve.
