but the advance made earlier in the week. Conditions this morning were all against the sellers and they were in a position where they could do nothing but cut loose their hogs at the decline. The result was that the better grades of light and ship-ping hogs sold largely at prices that were by the lower than yesterday. Inferior loads and heavy packing hogs sold all of be lower. Packers were reporting their pur-chases as costing 7%500c lower than yester-day. The bulk of all the hogs sold at 45.475 US.55.
